Perhaps your computer does not meet the hardware requirements; Maybe you bought a game by mistake; Maybe you paid the title for an hour and just didn't like it. It doesn't matter. Valve, on request through help.steampowered.com, is a refund issue for any reason, if the request is in the required return period, and, in case of sports, if the title has been paid for less than two hours. Below are more details, but if you fall out of refund rules we have stated, you can ask for refund anyway and we will take a look. You will be issued a full refund of your purchase within a week of approval. You will be used to shop you in steam-weight funds or through the same payment procedure. If, for any reason, steam fails to release the refund through your initial payment procedure, your steam will be collected full amount to the volleyball. (Some payment methods available through steam in your country may not support purchase of the original payment procedure. Click here for a complete list.) Steam return offer, within two weeks and with two hours of playtime, is applicable to sports and software applications at the steam store. Here's a review of how money works with other types of purchases. The downloading material (steam store content used within the application of another game or software, DLCD) is purchased from the steam store, and if the DSC has been purchased for less than two hours, unless dLCD has been used, modified or moved. Please note that in some cases, steam will not return some third party DLCs (for example, if dlcd errorsable levels up to a game character). These exceptions will be clearly marked as irreversible on the store page before purchase. I will be offered refund on game purchase steam within 48 hours for the purchase of the game in any valve developed game, so long as the game item has not been used. Third party developers will have the option to enable refunds for sports items on these terms. When buying steam you have chosen to offer refunds on the game item in the time you are buying will tell you if at the time of purchase. Otherwise, the purchase of games are not returned through steam. Refund on pre-purchased titles when you buy a title on steam (and have paid for the pre-title), you can request a refund at any time before the release of this title. The standard 14 day/two hour return period also apply, starting on the release date of the game. Steam Wallet Refund You can request a refund for funds inside the steam wallet The day of purchase if it was purchased on steam and if you have not used any of these funds. Renewable subscription for some content and services, steam provides (for example monthly, annual) access that pays you again on a bar basis. If no renewable subscription has been used during the current cycling cycle, you may be requested to refund within 48 hours of initial purchase or in 48 hours of any automatic renewal. Materials are used if any games have been paid during the current cycling cycle or if any benefits or discounts included with membership have been used, used, modified or transferred. Please note that you can cancel an active subscription at any time by going to your account details. Once canceled, your membership will no longer automatically renew but you will gain access to the content and benefits of the subscription through the end of your current cycling cycle. Identified in the hardware return policy, steam hardware within the applicable time frame, you can request a refund for steam hardware and accessories purchased through steam for any reason. This information can be accessed by someone from your Steam ID timely. At least, the public personality name you have selected to represent you on steam and your avatar picture are thus accessible, as well as whether you have received a ban for cheating in a multiplayer game. Any additional information about you can be accessed through your steam community user profile page; Data available in public on your profile page can be automatically accessed through the Sityamoorx API. In addition to publicly available information, sports developers and publishers have access to specific information directly from the Sityamoworks API related to the sports users they work with. This information includes at least one of your possessions of the game in your question. Depending on which game the services of the stymourx are applicable, it may also include leader-order information, your development in the game, your completed achievements, your multiplayer game match making information, sports items and other information necessary to provide support for it. For more information about whether a specific game has been implemented on the Steamoorux services, please review its store page. When we do not intentionally share personally identifying information about you through the Steamoorx API, your real name or your e-mail address, any information about you on your public steam profile can be accessed by the Steamworldorx API, including information that you can identify. 5.6 The steam community includes message boards, forums and/or chat areas where users can exchange ideas and interact with each other. When posting a message to a board, forum or conversation area, please be aware that information is publicly available online; Therefore, you are doing so at your own risk. If your personal data is posted to one of our community forums against your will, please use the Reporting Function and Steam Help website to request its dismissal. Valve 5.7 may allow you to attach to your steam user account offered by a third party. If you allow accounts to be linked, valve steam is a third with your user's account information at the degree allowed by your permission Can collect and collect information to get from Time. If you need to transfer valve information about your person attached to accounts to a third party, you will be notified of this before it is attached and you will be given the opportunity to consent to the link and transfer of your information. Using a third party of your information will be subject to third party privacy policy, which we encourage you to review. 5.8 Valves can issue personal data to comply with court orders or rules and regulations that we need to reveal such information. 6. Your rights and control the data protection laws of the European Economic Area, California, and other areas, give their residents specific rights in connection with their personal data. While other jurisdictions may provide less legal rights, we create tools designed to use such rights available to our customers around the world. We are providing a break section on the Steam Support page to allow you to use your data protection rights in an easy way (Privacy Dashboard). It gives you access to your personal data, allows you to improve it and object to its use where you feel necessary. To access this, log in to the steam support page on and select your account > data about your steam account to menu items. In most cases, you can access, manage, or delete personal data in the privacy dashboard, but you can also contact valves with questions or requests through the contact process described in sections 8 and 10 below. As a resident of the European Economic Area you have the following rights in connection with your personal data: right to access 6.1. You have the right to access your personal data that we have about you, i.e. your personal data needs to be maintained, (ii) the information or/or (iii) copy of personal data is maintained. You can use the right to access your personal data through a privacy dashboard. If the request affects the rights and freedoms of others or is unfounded or more, we are entitled to charge a reasonable fee (administrative costs for providing information or requesting action) or refuse to follow the request. 6.2 in favour of Sodhan. If we execute your personal data, we will try to ensure that your personal data is accurate and up-to-date for purposes for which it was collected by applying appropriate steps. If your personal data is incorrect or incomplete, you can change the information provided by the privacy dashboard. 6.3. Right of the Right of The Right of The Right. If the reason we can collect it is the right to delete personal data about you (see section 2. see above) no longer exists or there is another legal land for it Delete. For individual items of personal data please modify them through their privacy dashboard or request delete via the steam support page. You can also request to delete your steam user's account through the Steam Support page. As a result of deleting your Steam User Account, you will lose access to steam services, including steam user accounts, memberships and game information that includes steam connected to the user account and other services you use using the Steam user account. We allow you to restore your steam user account over a 30 (30) day time requesting you to delete your stem user account. This functionality allows you to miss your account by mistake due to lack of your account credentials or hacking. During the suspension period, we will be able to finalize financial and other activities that you have started before sending a request to delete the Steam User Account. After the grace period, the personal data associated with your account will be deleted under section 4. Upstairs. In some cases, deleting your steam user account, and therefore deleting personal data, is complicated. That is, if your account has a business relationship with valves, such as your work for the game developer, you will be able to delete your steam user account only after you transfer this role to another user or dissolve business relationships. In some cases, considering the complexity and number of requests, the period for personal data recuse may be extended, but for longer than two more months. 6.4 on the right object. When your personal data processing is based on legitimate interests in accordance with Article 6 (1) (f .c) of this privacy policy. you have the right to object to this processing. If you object, we will no longer process your personal data unless there are forced and current valid grounds for processing as described in Article 21 of GDP; especially if data is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defend legal claims.
