Currently, visual judge has a lot of versions, but the version that I like best is still vs2013 untimate. This version, although the set of tools and features are not equal to newer versions, is also quite complete and suitable for me for the program and the size of the installer is also much better than the new versions. And one thing I see is that in new versions Microsoft integrates too many things and makes vs too big and too heavy and too spare for me. You can download vs2013 on the Microsoft homepage. Or you can download it from here and here to get your copyright key. 2.
