In addition, she also shared candidly about juniors with Suzy's group in the moments before and after Miss A broke up with regret. Singer Fei - a former member of Miss A. Over the years together, with Suzy's incredible opportunities and reputation in many fields, Miss A has always been branded by the audience and the media as a Suzy and friends group. This more or less affects the psychology of the remaining members of the group. When asked about Miss A's uneven development opportunities, Fei expressed her thoughts. In particular, he thinks that everyone's level of popularity is different and no one can control that. Only make sure we've done our job well enough. The rest was felt by the audience. So the problem isn't whether the company gives you a chance, it's not at all, Fei said. Fei added that, in his early days, he was the one who actively asked the company to arrange for him not to participate in many variety shows because he was not confident in his Korean abilities. Instead, the singer will let other members participate in other events, as well as let them do most of the other conversations in public. Suzy. Speaking of Suzy, the former member praised The Meaning's respectful spirit of work in the group from the early days of her career to the present. Compared to the other three members, Suzy only had a 10-month internship before her debut with Miss A, so the idol tried her best to keep up with the other members in the best possible way. Suzy used to come to us to practice her choreography and vocals. He really worked really hard, Fei recalled. In addition, the singer also expressed her happiness with Suzy's success and revealed candidly about the gossip surrounding Suzy's popularity compared to other names that made Miss A unfairly recognized by the audience. Of course there are a lot of people who say they only know Miss A because of Suzy. I don't think this is anything too important. Finally, your answer is that you know Miss A, right? That's enough, Fei said comfortably. Four members of the group Miss A. Under the training and management of entertainment major JYP, Miss A debuted in 2010 with the hit song Bad Girl Good Girl. The group later released more well-received music productions such as Hush, I Don't Need A Man, Only You,... before it officially disbanded in 2017 after 7 years of operation. Currently, Fei is a contestant on the Chinese survival show Sisters Who Make Waves - a show that brings together famous female stars in the entertainment industry and competes for a debut in the five-member girl group.
