Kodaline all i want lyrics youtube

Your mind is so beautiful! Don't deny all I want to hear more anything you have to hear knocking on my door 'cause if I can see my face once and I was a happy man I'm sure could die all I wanted to hear him knock on my door.' Because if I see his face again, I will die when you say your last goodbye I died a little bit in bed without you from my side lay alone in tears all night alone when he gave me the last goodbye.. I Inside me, it's slowly breaking up all night. I was lying on a bed drenched in tears. Without her body alone, but if you love me why do you want to leave me? But if you still love me, why did you leave me? Take my body. Take my body, all I want.. I Just meet someone. I'm going to find someone... Which, like him, so you brought out the best of me, a part of me I've never seen. You've taken my best side out. It's a side that I haven't even seen. He cleansed my soul. Our love is definitely made to make films, but if you love me, why would you leave me? But if you still love me, Take my body. Take my body. All I want is to do all I need to do is just meet someone. I'll find someone... If you love me why would you leave me? Take my body. Take my body. All I want is to do all I need to do is just meet someone. I am a translator and in love with coding (and yes, I am a programmer. I'm here to give things true of the songs. Lyrics and express the way we can feel and understand together.
