AREA PAYEE SERVICES FINANCIAL ADVICE & MANAGEMENT Horizon Blue Cross Blue Shield of New Jersey is required by law to contact members, health care providers and sellers who have received checks but who have not received a letter by sending a letter to the beta beet at his or her last known address. State law also requires that after attempting to contact the owners with a due diligence letter, any checks that are not redeemed for specific periods of time must be sent to the state's Unclaimed Property Office. Below are answers to questions you might have about the unclaimed property due diligence letter you received. Q1. What is unclaimed goods or funds? The A1. For this purpose, unclaimed goods consist of funds or checks that have not been collected or not collected by the owner for a number of years. Q2. I got a letter about unclaimed property. What does it mean and what should I do? The A2. A recent check by Horizon BCBSNJ indicates that you may not have collected a check that you received under the control number listed on the letter. The letter contains the steps you need to take to reissue the payment or to decline it: Fill in the requested information on the form you are sent. Make a copy for your records. Mail the original in the self-addressed envelope. Q3. What if I don't have the self-addressed envelope? The A3. If you miss the self-addressed envelope, return the completed form to the vendor assisting Horizon BCBSNJ with unclaimed property at the following address: Horizon BCBSNJ 9800 Bren Rd E Suite 300 Minnetonka, MN 55343 Q4. When should the completed form be returned? The A4. The completed form must be marked on the date specified in your letter. If we do not receive your completed form before that date, we may because we are legally obliged to send the money to the state government. The process of sending this property to the state is called escheatment. You must then claim your money directly from the state they were sent to. Because the you may need to wait several months for the state to process your request, the data received from different reporting companies. Returned forms with a postmark date equal to the date in the letter will be accepted and reissued as requested. Q5. Does the letter I received about unclaimed property mean I owe money to Horizon BCBSNJ? The A5. No. This letter does not mean that you owe money to Horizon BCBSNJ. Horizon BCBSNJ sent you the letter regarding unclaimed property or funds, as our records show that you have not collected/deposited a check we sent you on the date set out in the letter. Q6. Why am I just notified of the payment? The A6. Horizon BCBSNJ initially processed the payment on the date listed in the letter. However, our data show that this payment has not been collected or deposited. We recently sent you the letter in an attempt to inform you and confirm whether you have an interest in this property or these funds. Q7. Why is my written response required? The A7. Your written answer is required to prevent this check from being avoided (i.e. to the state). As an owner, you must fill in the requested information on the letter. An email or phone question does not meet this requirement. To ensure that this property is not transferred to the state, replies must be received in writing and delivered to the address listed on the letter and/or the self-addressed envelope on the date indicated on your letter. Q8. What if I never received the check? The A8. It is possible that the original check was not embedded because it was lost in the post, had an incorrect address or was misplaced upon receipt. This notification is Horizon BCBSNJ's latest attempt to locate the owner and deliver these funds before they are sent to the state as required by law. Q9. If my name has been changed, how do I fill out the form? The A9. If your name has been changed, please send proof that the name change documents, such as a marriage certificate, divorce decree, or adoption file. Q10. The winne is a company. How do I fill out the form? The A10. When responding on behalf of a provider or company, enter your name and title. If you request a change of address, you must provide documentation, such as stationery or a business card, and add it to the completed form. If the mailing address is different from what was on the letter, select the Select to send replacement checker to another address check box on the letter, and we'll send the check to the specified new address. Q11. The beta died. How do I fill it in? The A11. If the betair has died, you must request that we reissue the payment to the deceased. Then present the reissued check to your bank with documentation that identifies you as a beneficiary or executor. You must bring a certified copy of the death certificate a copy of one or more of the following documents: a will, trust, probate order, power of attorney or affidavit. If there is no estate, an affidavit can be obtained from your local Probate Court office. Q12. What happens if I miss the deadline? The A12. We must receive your completed reply postmarked on the date specified on your letter. If you submit a form after the date set out in the letter, Horizon BCBSNJ is legally required to send the money to the state government. At that point, you must claim your money directly from the state they were sent to. Q13. you wire/ electronically deposit the money owed? The A13. No. All we can do is reissue a check. Remember to return the completed form on the date mentioned in the letter. Q14. you speed up payment at night or otherwise? The A14. No. Once you return the completed form, you must allow 10 to 12 weeks to send a new check to you. Q15. Can a check be reissued without the completed form? The A15. No. To reissue a check, the form must be sent to Horizon BCBSNJ. If you miss the self-addressed envelope, please send the letter back to: Horizon BCBSNJ 9800 Bren Rd E Suite 300 Minnetonka, MN 55343 Q16. I missed the deadline; Can I still submit my form and have a new check resubmitted? The A16. No. If you submit a form after the date set out in the letter, Horizon BCBSNJ is legally required to send the money to the state government. At that point, you must file a claim with the state to which the original check was issued. The state where the funds were avoided is the same state listed on the mailing address of the letter you received. Q17. I have more questions. Who can I contact? The A17.
