Heart pieces ocarina of time hyrule field

Heart Pieces is an integral part of The Legend of Zelda's game loop. What originated as Heart Containers in The Hyrule Fantasy became Pieces in A Link to the Past. It's only until recently with Breath of the Wild that the franchise has traded in Heart Pieces for spiritual orbs. However, the heart pieces are more rewarding to find, often linked to puzzles and game challenges. While most of the heart pieces in The Legend of Zelda require effort to find, Ocarina of Time practically gives away some of his pieces. However, this makes sense considering that Ocarina of Time was the first 3D game in the series. More importantly, it's always nice to stumble upon some easy heart pieces.

10 Gerudo Valley Heart Pieces

The Legend of Zelda never strays from hiding pieces of the heart in sight and Ocarina of Time is no exception. Gerudo Valley actually has two pieces of heart Link can get the moment you leave Kokiri Forest. Simply head to the Gerudo Valley, take the solitary cuckoo and fly to the waterfall to the right of the bridge. They will be a heartpiece inside and Link can swim towards Lake Hylia. If players go back and grab the Cucco again, they can jump from the bridge to the left to land on a platform with a box. Roll in the box and Link will find another piece of heart.

9 Skull boy's heart

After meeting Darunia in Goron City, Link will have to go through the lost forest to ask Saria for guidance. Upon meeting Saria, she will teach Link her song and he will be able to return to Darunia. Staying in the lost forest, however, reveals an easy piece of heart. Simply turn left after entering the lost forest from Kokiri Forest and stand in front of the lone Skull Kid. Take out your Ocarina, play the Song of Saria, and the Skull Child will recognize Link as a friend and give him a piece of heart, it is worth noting, this secondary mission is referenced when passing through Skull Kid in Majora's Mask.

8 Mamamu Yan's Little Richard

There's not much to do at Hyrule Market at night, but it's a fun little fun area to explore. The alleys feature some colorful dialogues, the treasure chest game is fun to cheat once Link gets the Lens of Truth, and all the wild dogs give the market a different flavor. Speaking of, the white dog in the main store is tied to a piece of heart. This white dog, Little Richard, will follow Link if the players face him. Take the dog to the nearest alley by the treasure chest game and then enter the door directly in front of Link. Give Little Richard to Mamamu Yan and he'll give Link a heartpiece.

Death Mountain Crater

This is actually a very easy heart piece to get and can be obtained along with the magic meter after completing the Dodongo cavern. Right next to the Fountain of the Great Fairy and Kaepora Gaebora is the Crater of the Mountain of Death. Navi will warn Link that overheating if they stay inside too long and a timer will start ticking. While players will have less than a minute, the heart piece inside the Death Mountain crater is directly in front of Link. Simply run from the edge of the cliff in front of Link and you'll start to come down. Let go, grab the center alcove, catch the heart piece inside and climb up again with a few seconds to spare.

6 Kakariko Cow Piece

After grabbing the magic meter and heart piece inside the Death Mountain crater, talk to Kaepora Gaebora. He will offer to take Link back to the village of Kakariko, where he will leave Link above Impa's house. If players walk forward, they will notice a ledge to the right of the house on the henhouse. Let go of the ledge and enter the hole in the wall. Next to a cow inside Impa's house there will be a piece of heart.

5 Heart fenced after getting bombs inside Dodongo Cavern, players can start bombing their way through Hyrule Field to find secret grottoes and varied treats. One of those secrets is near Lake Hylia. Head to the fenced area just outside the lake and drop a dead bomb center. A secret grotto containing a Deku Scrub will open. Shoot the Scrub's nut back in his face and buy his Heart Piece for a cuddly 10 Rupees.

4 Windmill Heart

After becoming an adult, Sheik will head Link to Kakariko Village to find the Hookshot. By talking to NPCs in front of the city gate and checking inside Dampé's hut, players will learn that Dampé has since passed away and hidden a treasure inside his grave. Enter the flower-ordered tomb to the left of the cemetery and follow Dampé. Dampé will reward Link the Hookshot for keeping up with him and players will return to Kakariko's windmill. Instead of jumping into the windmill, either Hookshot or jump towards the heart piece.

3 Frozen Source

Hyrule changes significantly after players pull out the Master Sword and Link becomes an adult. Zora's Dominion has been frozen, with all the Zoras trapped under the ice. Before Link gets the Hookshot, he can head to Zora's Dominion and complete the Ice Caverns to earn the Iron Boots. On the way to mini-dungeons, Link will have to jump over rotating circles of ice. Follow the ice to the right path and it will take you to a piece of the heart. The left path leads to the dungeon itself.

2 Underwater Heart

After completing the ice caverns and obtaining the iron boots, Link can return to Zora's domain to thaw King Zora with blue fire. However, before players return to Zora's Dominion, have to explode in the Iron Boots outside the Ice Caverns and sink to the bottom of the lake. At the bottom there will be a piece of heart. Link can then unequip the iron boots and float up again. While Link must have That health enough to make the journey down and back without dying, King Zora rewards Link with the Zora robe for those who prefer to play safe.

1 golden tree

There is a peculiar golden tree on the western side of Hyrule. If the players managed to find the tree as a child and bombed the place, they will have fallen into a secret grotto with nothing particular. Returning as an adult and with the Iron Boots, however, the Link to Heart Piece networks. At the bottom of the pond inside the grotto is the piece of the heart. Put on your boots, dive in and have a free heart.
