The new website was announced in a Facebook post earlier this week and is a major upgrade of the former website. The page separates individuals in recent releases, recent bookings and current inmates. According to Flathead County Sheriff Brian Heino, the format of the new website is much easier to read. On the roster, one can now find a picture, name and age of the person, date they were booked, total bail and upcoming court dates, in addition to what they were convicted of and any associated fines, dismissals and other relevant information. The website will be updated regularly and a post on the homepage reminds the public, all persons displayed on the website are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law. The associate charge is only for reference and can change at any time. As of Thursday, the website listed 93 current inmates, 51 recent releases and four recent bookings.
