He quickly became a beloved character thanks to the very good side of his transition (and love for Slurpees!). When he was finally killed, the fans were understandably devastated. ALEXEI DESERVED BETTER! HE DESERVED HIS OWN SLURPEE MACHINE. This is it, said one fan on Twitter. Can we please appreciate Alexei Smirnoff, God! His smile is suuuuute!!!! History Background Alexei was sometimes born in the early 1950s and grew up in Russia. He was a Russian scientist who was forced to work on the Key under the Starcourt Mall. Alexei was fluent in English and could only speak Russian. 1984 Alexei's colleague was executed by Grigori as Alexei watched when he failed to run the key. Alexei and a scientist were then given a year's key to work properly. 1985 Alexei stops work on the Key after being arrested by Jim Hopper. Alexei then escaped with Joyce Byers and later Murray Bauman. Alexei communicates with other characters with the help of Murray, who can speak Russian fluently. Alexei later explained that the reason for the secret Soviet presence in Hawkins was a device known as the Key, which he and his colleagues tried to build and failed russia many times. The key was to unlock the door between worlds, the Alexei way murray expressed the concept of a Portal. As this translated, Hopper, Joyce and Murray returned to Hawkins with Alexei in an attempt to close the Russian Door. Later, Alexei, Murray, Jim and Joyce went to the Fun Fair looking for the kids, thinking alexei couldn't get into the Fun Fair because he wasn't American. Murray said he didn't have to be an American to get in, and they both attended the Fun Fair. Alexei then won one of the carnival games and got a giant, woody woodpecker. Later, after attempting to defect to the United States, the Russian hitman was killed by Grigori and briefly left unattended by Bauman. Personality Alexei had a very childish personality. During his brief partnership with Hopper, Joyce and Murray, Slurpee's and cartoons (such as Woody Woodpecker and Looney Tunes) were shown pleasure, and Hawkins yearned to attend the festivities at the Fourth of July Entertainment Fair. Alexei was also very happy to win a giant stuffed Woody Woodpecker at the fair just before his death. While Alexei was mostly For his captive, at times he has been shown to have a cunning side, just like his favorite cherry-flavored Slurpee's, offering his knowledge of Russian operations in exchange for things that benefit him. When he got a different taste, Alexei refused to help until he got what he wanted. Despite this, the second Alexei threatened or physical Hopper instantly fell on the attack by his cocky side and Alexei appeared very fearful of punishing him from authority figures. This is shown again when he decides not to try to return to his comrades, because he is smart enough to understand his secrets and possibly torturing and killing him if he returns alive (but still gets hurt). Alexei easily hosted, 7-Eleven and numerous items for sale, as well as the 4th of July Entertainment Fair and an award winner, most likely surprised to see that luxury in the USSR does not exist. He also shows great accuracy and precision, as he won a game of Balloon Darts without missing a single balloon of balloons. Alexei enjoyed the American way of life and asked Murray about being a US citizen after he was willing to defect from the USSR and even helped stop them from the Russians. Relationships Jim Hopper be his captive during the search to learn more about the Russian plan, hopper referred to him as his real name instead of Smirnoff as his real name, often manhandling him and sometimes physically attacking him, as well as being cynical, for most of the time together rather hostile to Alexei. Hopper also avoids trying to talk to Alexei until murray reaches Bauman's house and often scolds Joyce for trying to communicate with him despite his language barrier. Eventually the tension between Alexei and Hopper ended when he defeated Alexei after his Slurpee refused to help them because it tasted different from what he wanted. After this interaction, Alexei was much more collaborating with Hopper and did not try to provoke her again. Joyce Byers Joyce worked with Alexei in a friendly way and was often more sympathetic to him than Hopper. Due to Hopper's discomfort, he often tried to communicate with her with sound effects and exaggerated arm movements. Joyce, along with Murray, defended Alexei. After his death, Joyce was shown shocked and upset, and hopper was couldn't bring himself to tell the news and instead nodded remorse in the indication. Before Joyce and Murray left the Fun Fair, Joyce vented his anger at Larry Kline and kicked him, allowing Alexei to death. Murray Bauman is one of his three situational allies, murray alexei grew up it allows them to communicate with the fastest due to its fluent Russian. They quickly became friends after Alexei revealed his desire to become an American citizen to enjoy the luxuses he couldn't access in the USSR, and Murray responded by saying he didn't have to be an American to join in the fun and took him to the Entertainment Fair. He then left Alexei with a few tickets and set out to find food, leaving him to freely explore the fair. After being shot by Alexei Grigori, Murray leaves him to find Hopper and Joyce. Murray then returned and Alexei died and he is devastated to find out how he left for just a minute to get the two corn dogs. Looks like Season Three looks Suzie, Copy?
