Lakeland If, like me, you hate the idea of peeling potatoes, then you're likely looking for ways to avoid it. Now, I know what you're thinking. Peeling some potatoes isn't so bad, but what about when you have the round family and need to make heaps of puree to complete a batch of fish pie, or a bunch of french fries that feeds the family? That takes time, guys. See lakeland electric potato peeler (yes, really). How does a 1kg load of peeled potatoes in just one minute feel? Completely amazing, I know. Lakeland's Electric Potato Peeler does the work for you in a fraction of the time and requires basically nothing on your part. You know, besides playing on some spuds. Lakeland Peeling potatoes by hand requires skill (and a lot of patience), but this useful machine requires almost nothing. All you have to do is pop in your peeled potatoes, add some water, fix the lid using the two strong clips and plug it in, and BAM. It will start to quickly rotate your round potatoes, while all the small 'teeth' in the stainless steel graters quickly remove the entire skin. It's basically magic. And let's be honest, who wouldn't want to save time preparing potatoes? It comes with an anti-slip base to keep you stable as it starts working on potatoes, and is super easy to navigate. It's not the most peaceful and quiet way to peel potatoes, but it's incredibly satisfying and so fast. Hold hands on this Electric Potato Peeler via Lakeland for just £34.99.
