DATA 10 OCTOBER 2021 In stock Description Additional Information Reviews 0 True Rose Repair Essence Active ingredients Damask rose flower water is produced by hand picking and steam distillation of rose flowers. Water passes through the plant material several times, therefore not only extracts of water-soluble plants, but also many beneficial elements and essential oils are included in the composition of the future fragrant water of flowers. The resulting ingredient soothes irritated skin, gently moisturizes and eliminates skin exfoliation, improves skin, relieves skin inflammation and redness. Damascus rose oil is a very expensive ingredient. To get a drop of oil, it is necessary to process about 1000 petals. increases the firmness and elasticity of the skin, smooths wrinkles. It has a moisturizing effect on dry skin, eliminates exfoliation and irritation, evens out the tone of the facial skin. Aloe leaf extract contains many antioxidants, antioxidants, vitamins C and E, which help to improve the skin's natural tone and keep it hydrated and elastic for a long time. Aloe soothes and helps reduce skin inflammation, and also acts as a protective layer that promotes proper skin hydrobalance. Glycerin performs the function of protecting the skin, as it retains moisture in cells and promotes healing. Glycerin is widely available in nature and is formed in the human body during the enzyme decomposition of fats. It is part of our skin water balance system, and the natural hydration factor will not work without it. The upper layers of the skin are hydrated due to the fact that moisture gradually increases and glycerin plays an important role in this system. Therefore, it is added to cosmetic products. The harmless daily rate allowed of glycerin per person is 30 ml. is used After cleansing and toning the skin, apply 1-2 drops to the face and neck. Gently massage and touch the skin until completely absorbed. The serum can be used alone or in combination with other serums. Regular use is recommended to get the best results. Recommended use True Rose Repair Essence of Urang: For oily skin or combination that is prone to excessive oil (or seborrhea) use only the essence for a refreshing effect. For dry or combined skin prone to dryness, mix a few drops of Urang oil serum with the essence. At the end of skin care for more intense and deeper hydration, apply URANG Rose Ceramide cream. For instant hydration, apply the essence immediately after washing. On a sunny day, True Rose Repair Essence soothes and moisturizes the skin after tanning. For sensitive skin, the essence soothes and cools irritation and redness. To nourish and maintain healthy hair, apply a small amount of True Rose Repair Essence to clean the hair. Like a night mask, apply the essence on the face several times until a thin layer is formed on the skin. Leave the mask on the night and in the morning remove the film formed on the face. Wash your face thoroughly. True Rose Repair Essence as a nutritional mask Try this simple method of making your own mask! True Rose Repair Essence can be used as a nutritional mask.
