Video shows pro tips on how to catch Pink Jade Gar. Regal Arapiama is also one of the hardest fish to catch in Final Fantasy XV. It's tied with Pink Jade Gar in trouble. This fish requires you to be defensive most of the time, and the fish is located in the hidden fishing spot at Vesperpool - North Bank's Catching the Murk Grouper in Galdin Quay will give you the best fishing rod in the game (Ro) The largest (large, not long) fish in FFXV's Dread Grouper. It's bigger than king catfish and Pink Jade Gar (both of which are thin and long, rather than large). You can catch dread grouper in Galdin Quay after you catch Murk Grouper. The Best Lure is Big Blaze Bahamut, which you can never lose, as it always comes back even if your line clicks. During the Moogle Chocobo Carnival Event, a fishing festival takes place in Altissia. There are advantages to fishing, such as collecting ingredients or materials to sell. Fishing also has several components that go into it, so you will not only be able to randomly fish without any knowledge. I am here to give you that knowledge so that you will be reeling in the big catches and leveling up your skills. If you need to know how to start fishing in the first place, check out my guide on how to fish. This guide will go over thorough information about fishing in Final Fantasy XV including: Fishing equipment - What you can fish with and what they all do. Fish shops - Places of fish shops and what they sell. Fishing skills - What every fishing skill does and when you get them. Fishing tips - Extra tips for catching fish that cause you problems. Fishing equipmentThere are 4 items you use and upgrade for fishing: Line - Determines the durability of the fishing rod. This is HP on your rod. When it reaches 0, you will lose the line, lure, and will not catch the fish that bit. Lure - This determines what fish will bite. Each lure lists fish that it attracts, but they can also attract fish that are not listed. Rod - This determines the defense of your rod. The defense affects how fast your shelf life goes down when you roll in a fish. Reel - This determines the attack of your rod. The attack affects how fast you can roll in a fish. You start with all these, but you can upgrade them by going to fish shops. Fish shopsGaldin Quay - Bob's Bait EmporiumThe first shop you'll find is near Galdin Quay. You can buy extra line and lures here. Rachsia Bridge - Tabby's Tackle ShackThis store is located north of old Lestallum. It sells several lines and lures, as well as a new rod and wheels. The rod is Butterfly Edge with a 150 defense. The wheel is Galatea with a 240 attack. Vesper Pool East Bank - Bert's Bobbers 'n' StuffThis store sells the best line, Dragon's Beard, as well as some great lures and the best buyable wheels and rod. The rod is Death Spin with a 210 defense. The wheel is Nereid with 270 attacks. CarYou can also buy lines and lures from your car as you advance through the game. Fishing skills level 1 - Allows you to catch fish. Level 2 - Make shelf life fall 25% less when fish struggle on line. Level 3 - 10% discount on all items at tackle stores. Level 4 - Increases the chance of hooking fish by 25%. Level 5 - Allows you to catch larger fish. Level 6 - 30% discount on all items on tackle shelf life falls 50% less when fish struggle at line level 8 - Increases the chance of hooking fish by 50%. Level 9 - 50% discount on all items at tackle stores. Level 10 - Allows you to catch even bigger fish. Fishing tips When the fish is struggling, press the wheel button You will not hold the wheel inside, but you can press it once at a time to roll it in a little without losing its durability. If fish are hard to roll in and break the line, upgrade your gear sometimes just get a better wheel, rod, and line is all you need to catch a hard to get fish. Buy multiple lures and lines You need to constantly change lines when fish lower shelf life, so be sure to buy multiples at a time. Different fish as different lures, so buy as many different as possible. Try out different lures If you throw in an area with fish and no bites, turn the lure up. When you use the correct lure, you get the red bar at the top of the screen to alert you that a fish is attracted. Roll in quickly when the controller stops rumbling If the yo controller isn't rumbling, or it's very light, it's time to hold the wheel button down. This allows you to roll it in for a while before the fish struggles again. That's it for my guide on fishing in Final Fantasy XV. Now you can catch big fish and reap the rewards!
