This profile is from compendium of ORIS – a comprehensive resource for information about all ORIS that operate in the United States and its territories. It was developed by the build partnership, early learning cooperation and children's trends. In July 2013, the state's participation in the new Maryland ORIS, ExcelS, was launched. With a redesign of the program, there was also a redesign of the awards, bonuses and incentives. These changes include the following: Programme bonuses were awarded to participating programmes based on the verification-level assessment and the assigned capacity of the facility. These bonuses range from $50 to $1,000 for family childcare and from $50 to $4,500 for centers. The full amount of credential bonuses were available to staff in the participating programs. Staff bonuses are based on credential level 4 plus, 5 and 6. Bonuses at the lower levels (levels 2-4) were only once, while bonuses at higher levels (levels 4 plus-6) were annual. There were also bonuses for administrator credentials, with Level 1 receiving a one-time reward of $400 and levels 2, 3 and 4 that have the chance to receive annual rewards of $750, $1,000 and $1,500. Participating programmes and their staff may have access to incentives to improve grants and support, including but not limited to: Credit fund support to the Childcare Fund Vouchers to stimulate childcare and reimbursement of childcare and career development Increased rates of reimbursement of subsidies at inspection levels (levels 3, 4 and 5) Childcare expansion grants with 73 hospitals and countless other healthcare facilities across the country LPNs in Maryland are looking for a number of roles.
