It is the latest of five high schools in the Scottsdale Unified School District. The school has a joint use city library facility, four computer laboratories, media studio, theatre, college/career centre, yearbook/newspaper production laboratories, child development department, business-regulated curriculum, medical education facilities in primary school and extensive athletic facilities. Desert Mountain has a two-semester scheduling format to serve its student population of nearly 2,300 students in grades nine to twelve. In 1998, Desert Mountain became an International Baccalaureate Member School and is a magnet program for the Scottsdale Unified School District. Desert Mountain offers students the choice of standard, honours, Advanced Placement and International Baccalaureate classes. Special programs are available for gifted (including Advanced Placement), English Language Learners and Special Education students. Extensive vocational programs are available through a partnership with the East Valley Institute of Technology (EVIT). [2] Library The school's library is shared with the Scottsdale Public Library System as the Palomino branch library. It opened in August 1995 with the rest of the school. The library features 18,000 square feet (1,700 m2) of space. At the time of its opening, the then 50,000-volume collection was 60% owned by the library and 40% by the school. It was the district's first such combined library. [3] Academics, honors and awards The Desert Mountain Faculty includes five administrators, nine professional support staff members and one hundred twenty-three teachers, of whom seventy-five have master's degrees and seven doctorates. Desert Mountain High School is accredited by the North Central Society of Colleges and Secondary Schools. It is a member of the National Association for College Admissions Counseling and complies with the NACAC Declaration of Principles of Good Practice. Desert Mountain High School was ranked by Newsweek as one of the top 1300 public high schools in the country. It's one of a handful of public high schools in Arizona to make the list, and is ranked 867th. [4] In 2013, U.S. News listed the school among the top 22,000 public high schools in the United States. It's ranked No. 18 on the list among Arizona schools. Desert Mountain is also one of the few SUSD schools that has an active International Baccalaureate (IB) programme for students to join. Students participate in a variety of extracurricular activities, including Student Representative Council, Student Representative Council, Honor Society, performing arts and athletics at the freshman, junior varsity and varsity levels. The school has more than fifty student clubs and organisations. Desert Mountain's DMHS Players was the only Arizona high school drama club invited to perform at the world's largest arts festival, the 2009 Edinburgh Fringe in Scotland, nominated for their production of Urinetown: The Musical. The DMHS players also received numerous awards at the 2008 Center Stage Awards, including Best Play, for their production of The Importance of Being Earnest. In 2003, the DMHS players' production of The Winter's Tale took part in the International Tespian Society state competition and took 1st Place. It then received the honor of being selected as one of only 10 plays in the U.S. to take part in the International Tespian Society's National Competition in Lincoln, Nebraska, in 2004. [citation needed] Desert Mountain's Invisible Children's Club is the recipient of several awards, including several club of the quarter/year awards and three Schools for Schools Awards. Since its inception, it has raised more than $50,000. [citation needed] Desert Mountain's Marching Band was invited to perform in the 2019 London New Year's Day parade. It was the third time, having already performed in it in 2011 and 2015. [citation needed] In 2015, the Science Olympiad team took first place and went on to represent Arizona in the national competition in Lincoln, Nebraska. The DMHS FIRST Robotics Club, Team 1852 Amore was active between the years 2004-2012. They competed in the FIRST Technical Challenge in 2008 and attended Championships in Atlanta in 2009. Athletic DMHS is a member of the Arizona Interscholastic Association. Although it won many minor titles in high school athletics, its first major state title was earned in 2007 when the boys' basketball team turned 5A-II state champions by defeating Paradise Valley High School, 65-55. [5] In 2010, the girls' football team won a 5A-II championship title. They defeated Horizon High School after 3 ADs and won 5 to 4 in PCs. The 2006 girls' volleyball team also won the 2006 state championship. Desert Mountain students won eight varsity team championships and twelve individual state championships in 2007. The Desert Mountain High School and soon to be school sponsored lacrosse team, the Wolves Lacrosse, won a major title as Division 2 champion in the 2014-2015 season (5-4). The DMHS Tennis Team is one of the strongest in the state, with two straight AIA Division I State titles. One was won in the 2014-2015 season and one the following year in the 2015-2016 season, over Brophy and Chaparral, respectively. [6] Media In 2006, Desert Mountain High School was on the MTV show My Super Sweet Sixteen.
