Oggy and cockroaches theme song

Image: CMA compilation country music can speak to the soul. Whether you're stuck in or falling in love, we'll tell you what your country theme song is! Country music began in the southern U.S. states in the early 1920s. Some of the early singers included performances like Jimmy Rogers and Vernon Dalhart. In the decades that that following, stars like Johnny Cash, George Strait, Reba McEon and Dolly Parton centered on our minds. If you feel like you're in a rut, maybe you're like Johnny Cash's Folsom Prison Blues. You may feel like life is passing you by, but we're sure you'll be out on top soon! If you're trying to open yourself up to a relationship that looks like it's going to be, you can handle complex situations like Carolyn Dawn Johnson. Is the Zac Brown band enjoying the little things in life? Maybe you feel nostalgic for the past, and Alan Jackson knows how to take advantage of that atmosphere better than someone you know. We'll answer this question and let you know if you're singing the blues or if you can have a cold beer on a Friday night! Copyright © 2021 InfoSpace Holdings, LLC, System1 Company Image: ABBA Do you remember Swedish pop group ABBA? Were you a fan? Are you still a jam fan? Some ABBA tuneys as you drive home from work every day? Were you at the front and center of the theatre when Mamamia walked out of the theatre? If this sentence describes you, this is a quiz you think you'll never find. Let's start to find out if ABBA songs are the theme song of your life. If you remember correctly, ABBA is a Swedish vocal group consisting of Agneta, Bjorn, Benny and Annie Fried. The group first hit the airwaves in Sweden in 1974, and shortly thereafter made its way across the pond to the United States. The group is one of the best-selling record groups of all time and is estimated to have sold 500 million records. With music such as Waterloo, Dancing Queen and Super Troupe, ABBA remains a very popular group. And despite being disbanded in the 1980s, ABBA captured the hearts of fans on stage and on the big screen, with various versions of the musical Mama Mia based on their songs. So, you remember ABBA, and you have their, rumored, upcoming new album (yay!) If you can't wait, then take this quiz to find out what abba songs describe your life. Copyright © 2021 InfoSpace Holdings, LLC, System1 Company Image: Izzec/E+/Getty Images Many believe the 1980s are the dawn of the digital age. New technologies were emerging in almost every aspect of life. Sender Implants and compact synths in personal computers and DNA mapping, no one could deny that the 80s were a big deal. Fashion was no exception, with bright neon colors covering the landscape. And with loud fashion, bigger music came. The music was fun, popular, and especially danced. Instead of live performances, many of the hits had music videos, and each had a larger production budget than the last. Michael Jackson released the thriller in the third video of the album of the same age in 1983 to show the world the true definition of a music video. Director John Landis and special effects expert Rick Baker (director and Academy Award-winning American werewolf in London) brought Michael Jackson's horror film-themed video to life. And with horror icon Vincent Price presenting voiceovers and a 45-minute documentary, Thriller has become a masterpiece. It wasn't just men spending big dollars on video. Madonna had a slew of men wearing tuxedos in her Material Girl video. Then she followed the lion and the journey to Venice and New York for the video like a virgin. She even held a 10-year contest for bragging rights (and $25,000) for creating a concept for her True Blue Video. So with big heads and bigger personality names, what is the theme song of your life?
