Aetheryte earring ffxiv code

Shadowbling finally comes here and we know you guys are probably very excited to dive into a new extension for Final Fantasy XIV. If you're trying to figure out how to pre-book a game in advance and redeem your shadow grist pre-order DLC, just have that information ready. Redeem Aetheryte Earring Reservation DLC for FFXIV Shadowbringers Before you get shadowbring pre-order DLC, you need to make sure you have entered your booking code on the FFXIV website so that you can get an early access code. If you don't know how to do that, you can proceed to this guide first. The two are interconnected during the process of registering early access codes, but FFXIV Shadowbringers' pre-order DLC is also redeemed. First, go to the system settings menu, select PlayStation Network/Account Management and select Account Information. Scroll down to the Service List and find Final Fantasy XIV: Realm Reborn. Early access of shadow gummies or entries that appear when shadow breeders pre-order will pop up - which gives you an in-game bonus item that you can unlock by going to any Moogles delivery NPC. These moogles are usually in most towns somewhere by the main Aetherite, and all you have to do is go up to them and tell them to unlock the rewards: a gremlin minion and a new pair of Aethelite earrings to help you get more EXP up to level 70.
