In this dungeon searches both the Alliance and the Ordos are also class-searching Warlocks. In this dungeon, the list of possible searches is as follows, and their fraction (N means that the search is neutral and accessible to both factions) and the level requirement. A [18] Finding Thaelrid A [10] Knowledge Deepes A [18] Investigation of corruption A [20] Twilight Falls A [18] Blackfathom Villainy (started inside the dungeon) H [17] Faithfulness to the Old Gods H [21] Among the ruins H [21] Baron Aquanis H [17] Essence of Aku/Mai H [18] Blackfathom Villainy (started inside the dungeon) A/ H [20] The Orb of Soran'ruk (Only Warlock) A [20] Seeking Kor Gem (Paladin-only) To complete every quest in this dungeon, you will need at least level 20 alliance and level 21 for Horde. 1. 1.1. The alliance's only Quest Alliance of players who are putting off case searches are as follows: Finding Thaelrid (need level 18) - finding Argent Guard Thaelrid in the underworld. It is located in the southwestern cave of Ghamoo-ra district. Knowledge of Deepes (need level 10) - collect lorgal manuscript and return it to Questgiver, Gerrig Bonegrip in Ironforge. It is found in the northern part of ghamoo-ra cave, chest under water. Investigations into corruption (need level 18) - collect 8 damaged brain stems from any subterranean crowd. This quest gives Gershala Nightwhisper Darkshore and is only available after completion of corruption abroad, which is launched by Stormwind by Argos Nightwhisper. Twilight Falls (need level 20) - bringing 10 Twilight Pendants out From Twilight's Hammer crowd to the dungeon quest giver, Argent Guard Manados. 1.1.1. Finding Thaelrid Search Thaelrid is an introduction to quests into one of the neutral quests, Blackfathom Villainy and picked up in Darnassus. It is provided by Dawnwatcher Shaelglass in the artisan terrace area. This quest can technically be picked up by Horde players as well as it is given by the NPC of Argent Dawn, a neutral fraction, but they will have to venture into Darnassus to get it. At the recommended level of completing this quest, this is a huge waste of time and is by no means recommended. We therefore regard this search as a mere Alliance. Questgiver will ask you to venture into Blackfathom Deepes and find Argent Guard Thaelrid, which is found in the southwest cave in the Ghamoo-ra area. When you find it, you will get the second part of the search chain, which is short, but is listed below. In search of Thaelrid Blackfathom Villainy you will need to be at level 18 in order to pick this quest up, but you don't have to finish it in order to pick up another part of the chain. If you still plan to do dungeons, you can take this experience quest, which he rewards, as well as the reputation of Argent Dawn. 1.1.2. Knowledge of deepes knowledge deepes is a quest with a very low level requirement for the recommended level of underworld it is; You in those those must be level 10 to pick up this quest from Gerrig Bonegrip to Forlorn Cavern from Ironforge. To complete this quest, you will need to get the Lorgal Manuscript out of the water around Ghamoo-ra's chest. Swim to the northern part of the cave and tear the chest at the bottom. 1.1.3. The investigation into corruption investigations is given to players who are 18 or above Gershala Nightwhisper, which is located in Auberdine. It's part of a mini-chain that starts at Stormwind. Corruption abroad is investigating corruption In order to pick up this search, you will first have to talk to Argos Nightwhisper in Stormwind and pick up corruption abroad. This Quest will send you to Gershala Auberdine. To complete the quest, you will need to collect 8 damaged brain stems that drop from the crowd through the dungeon. 1.1.4. Twilight Falls Twilight Falls requires players to collect 10 Twilight Pendants from the Twilight's Hammer crowd at the end of the dungeon. You can pick up this quest up in Darnassus at level 20 or higher, from Argent Guard Manados to Artisan Terrace. It is important to note that unlike In Search of Thaelrid, which can be picked up by Horde players (not recommended to do so), this quest can not. It is also provided by Argent Dawn NPC, but this quest is only alliance. 1.2. Only horde-quests so is only a horde quest dungeon summary. in the case of the Old Gods (need level 17) - kill Lorgus Jett. It is located immediately below gellihast in a parallel tunnel. This quest is given to Je'neu Sancrea Ashenvale, but can only be picked up after finding the Damp Note, which is dropped by the Blackfathom Tide Priestess crowd in Ashenvale. Among the ruins (need level 21) - get a fathom core, which will spawn Baron Aquanis when interacting with. It will drop the quest item, Strange Water Globe, that begins with another horde exclusive quest. The essence of Aku/Mai (requires level 17) is to collect 20 Aku/Mai sapphires, which are present throughout the case. This search is provided by Je'neu Sancrea Ashenvale. 1.2.1. Faithfulness to the Old Gods In order to pick up this quest, you will need to complete a small chain that begins with the search for a damp note. Fidelity to the Old Gods Faithfulness to the Old Gods Damp note is found in the murder of the Blackfathom Tide Priestess crowd in Ashenvale. When farming these, beware of pulling a lot of them because they have a cure that can become troublesome without adequate CC or burst damage. Once you find the note, you'll have to take it to Je'neu Sancrea, which is in Ashenvale. Zoram'gar Outpost. When you talk to him, you can begin loyalty to the Old Gods, which requires the killing of Lorgus Jett. It is located immediately after the boss Gellihast in a parallel tunnel. Note that you can't start searching with a damp note until it's at level 17. 1.2.2. Among the ruins between the ruins there are the same NPC as the faithful to the Old Gods, Je'neu Sancrea. It is located in Ashenvale, not the Zoram'gar outpost, but this quest requires a higher level of character than others. Players will have to be level 21 to pick up this one. You will need to get the Fathom Core from the underworld, which is found in the place of Baron Aquanis spawning. You don't have to kill it to get the kernel, but you should, as it gives you a Strange Water Globe, which gives you another quest, Baron Aquanis. 2. There are no specific searches of factions that begin inside the dungeon. 2.1. Neutral Quest Below is a brief summary of the neutral quest available to both factions that are launched inside the underworld. Blackfathom Villainy (Alliance) / Blackfathom Villainy (Horde) (need level 18) - this quest is picked up by Argent Guard Thaelrid. It is found in the southwestern cave of ghamoo-ra district. Quest needs you to kill Twilight Lord Kelris and get your head down. 2.1.1. Blackfathom Villainy Villainy/Blackfathom Villainy is the only neutral search that is easily accessible to all members of both groups. The only requirement is that you are at least level 18 pick up. Questgiver, Argent Guard Thaelrid is located inside the dungeon, surroundings around Ghamoo-ra. You can find it cavern, with Quest was given the same NPC by both factions. This search is technically part of a chain that is available to both groups, but it can be difficult to obtain. Finding Thaelrid Blackfathom Villainy/Blackfathom Villainy First Quest gives a neutral NPC Darnassus that is very difficult for horde players to enter and the time invested just isn't worth it. You can just pick up a second quest inside the dungeon as a Horde player, but Alliance players should complete the first quest for bonus experience and Argent Dawn's reputation. For more information, see The Thaelrid Search section. The second and main chain quest requires killing Twilight Lord Kelris and bringing his head dawnwatcher Selgorm to the artisan terrace of the Darnassus Alliance and Bashana Runetotem in The Senior Rise of Thunder Bluff for The Horde. 3. Class Quest Blackfathom Deepes There are class quests for both paladins and warlocks in this underworld, both of which are starting at the underworld. Below is a summary of the searches for each class in the dungeons. Seeking Kor Gem (need level 20) - Paladins will need to kill the elite Naga crowd and loot the corrupt Kor Gem. Soran'ruk Orb (requires level 20) - Warlocks will need to kill twilight acolytes who are found at the end of the dungeon, and loot soran'ruk fragments that they need. 3.1. Paladin Class Quest Blackfathom Deepes Seeking Kor Gem is part of a long quest chain that takes paladins through several dungeons in order for the materials needed to craft Verigan's fist. Quest is a small part of the righteousness test, which is a major quest that is part of the class quest circuit. You can see the whole chain below. Valor Tome Valor Tome Valor Valor Tome The Tome of Valor Righteousness Test To start this circuit, you will need to head to Stormwind City and talk to Duthorian Rall. You can do this only after reaching level 20. Once you have reached the righteousness test, you will need to collect a total of 4 items. Only one of these items is found in Blackfathom Deepes, Purified By Kor Gem. To get this gem, paladins will need to venture darkshore and meet Thundris Windweaver just north of Auberdine to pick up The Looking Kor Gem. To complete the quest, you will need to loot the damaged Kor Gem from the elite nail to the dungeon. When you have a damaged version, take it to Thundris and he will cash it for you, giving you a purified Kor Gem to test righteousness. Other items include Loch Modan (Jordan's refined cared for consignment), Shadowfang Keep (Jordan's Smithing Hammer), and Deadmines (Whitestone Oak Lumber). 3.2. Warlock Class Quest Blackfathom Deepes Soran'ruk Orb is much more Quest than Paladin class quests, but questgiver can be tricky to get into as an Alliance player. Hotel Doan Karhan is located in Barrense, north-east of Camp Taurajo. You can pick up a quest from him as a level 20 or higher warlock for both factions. To complete the quest, you will need to kill the twilight acolytes at the end of the specimen and loot 3 soran'ruk fragments. Unlike Paladin's quest, it's not part of the circuit, but players will still have to venture into another dungeon to complete it. For another fragment of the material needed, Large Soran'ruk, players will have to head to Shadowfang Keep. 4. Notable Quest Loot in Blackfathom Deeps 4.1.
