Valtrex and valacyclovir prices are steady with CVS, Walgreens, and Walmart in December 2020, remaining at the same levels they reached in August. The prices of both drugs fell significantly in January at all three retailers and remained consistently lower than the national average of $14.40 as of July. Long recognized as a treatment of choice for infections caused by the herpes virus simplex 1 and 2, valaciclovir is a powerful antiviral drug that can also reduce the discomfort caused by shingles. What is Shingles? Shingles, a viral infection that is caused by a painful rash, is caused by herpes zoster virus, which occurs when the long-dormant varicella-zoster virus, which causes chickenpox, is reactivated in adulthood. There is no cure for any of these pesky viruses that were once contracted go into permanent residence in the host body. During periods of hibernation, they reside peacefully in nerve cells. However, during periods of stress or weakness of the immune system, they can become active again, causing cold sores, genital herpes and shingles. How to fight back? Do medical science gets a cure for this family of herpes viruses, the best you can do is to make valacyclovir (also available under the brand name Valtrex) to reduce the number and severity of outbreaks. Valacyclovir works by making it difficult to multiply herpes virus cells. This limited ability to replicate reduces the frequency of viral herpes outbreaks and reduces the discomfort caused by such outbreaks as they occur. The price of CVS for Valtrex was unchanged at $14.34 per 500 milligram tablet in December. The price of Valtrex at CVS is $14.34 since August 2020. Previously, the price was $14.38 per 500 milligram of pills. Walgreens Much the Same The pricing pattern at Walgreens has remained consistent since January 2020, with the exception of a slight bubble in May. Walgreens currently costs 500 milligrams of Valtrex tablets at $14.36. The price of generic valaciclovir has remained at $4.50 since January. Following the same price pattern, Walmart's price for Valtrex is $13.87 for 500 milligram tablets throughout the period with a slight bubble in May. The price of a big-box store for valaciclovir was also steady at $3.13 throughout the 11-month period. The same pattern occurs for generic prices for valaciclovir at CVS, Walgreens and Walmart did not differ from January to December 2020. CVS's posted price for valaciclovir was $2.86 in January and remained exactly the same until December. At Walgreens, the price was $4.50 in January they're being beat up.
