Ar 15 furniture od green

Try it and actually Spring filled with rapid binocular legs. Just make sure to choose the correct method of attachment to your train and legs. ($70-100) Atlas Bipods what we work on our precision rifles We like the ability to push into the bipod for a very reproducible and durable shooting platform. It's expensive, but you get what you really pay for ($220-280), it's what we use to set up all our precision rifles. Magpul magazine pulled the company to actually start with these pull magazines (get it?) attached to the bottom of the magazine to help get rid of the rig and cushion drop ($12 for 3) Magpul Mag Coupler lets you combine two magazines together so that there are another 30 rounds on your rifle. We've covered a lot of AR-15 stuff, but we're not finished! What are your favorite accessories? What upgrade would you upgrade first? Let us know in the comments!
