Salam, Apologies for the lack of posts - in short, life happened ☺ So here I am left with a new series of spreadsheets that I hope will be of help in any small way to students in Arabic out there. Each spreadsheet has a little bit of explanation and then some exercises for you or your students to work through. Insha Allah, reply sheet will be uploaded when I have completed spreadsheets. ☐ HM Download prepositions Match-up Game Pdf HERE Bismillah, My students have been utilizing the hands of activities to revise for their end of year exams. I have allocated 30 minutes of independent study time within each lesson in the last two weeks. The girls get the chance to develop their revision skills and to help each other achieve high marks. I explained to the girls that your friend doing well on exam means that she now understands the Koran a little better in the language Allah revealed it in, and you helped her achieve this. The following activity was created to help them revise the Arabic prepositions. Download prepositions Match-up Game Pdf HERE I hope you find this useful. HM Bismillah, Up for a Challenge? Using the following spreadsheet will help you learn at least 20 keywords that regularly occur through out the Koran. I will use this spreadsheet with my Year 10s to help them revise the 20 words. I have uploaded the keywords and example ayaahs here for those of you who are teaching them for the first time. With Ramadan coming up – it will be helpful to learn keywords to understand the Koran in Arabic as you recite it during the day, in prayers, in Taraweeh, and when the Imam recites ayaat contains those keywords. I'll use this with my Year 10 class. I think it would be best for me to go through bending in Arabic. Download Negation Review Sheet HER Bismillah, Year 10s got the following rating as their end of term 2 testing. This assessment covers the following topics: 20 verbs in the Quran (pdf here) Past Tense Bending Present Bending Identification Nouns From a Particular Verb Use your knowledge of past/present and grammar topics (learned earlier) to translate simple sentences. Have a go at the test - the responses have been uploaded for ☺ in exam sheets PDF Reply sheet PDF Reply Enjoy, download and share! Bismillah, My Years 8s, 9s and 10s are learning 20 verbs that are often mentioned in the Quran, a useful list that I can work from to help teach concepts such as inflections in the different times, nouns, and keywords of the Koran by extension. For example, by learning the verb سَجَدَ-د-زس I can help students with past/present tense inflection for the various subject words and help them identify the nouns created out of this verb eg masjid. So verb roots are really key to making students feel comfortable in exploring the Koran. Here is a spreadsheet I will use in this week's lesson to review Past Tense bending 20 verbs + English means Subject pronoun Click here to download this spreadsheet HM Bismillah, Last term, Class 4 covered the following Arabic reading and writing topics: Shaddah Alif Maqsurah Suspended Alif Natural Madd – Alif, Waw and Yaa Class 4's teacher sent the following reading and writing package home to help parents review with their children during the winter holidays for an easier task. Each student had to fill out the spreadsheet under parental supervision. I've been uploading spreadsheets individually and thought it might also be useful to upload a Pdf with all the spreadsheets together to make printing a little easier (double paged copying for example). Click on the image below to download Pdf HM Bismillah, here is a spreadsheet to help review the possessive pronoun (attached pronoun). It helps students identify the rightholder in the English sentence and then translate it into the Arabic pronoun they have been taught. I use this spreadsheet with students who need more revision on this topic, and this spreadsheet inshallah will allow them to review them in a format that is not my usual table format. Click here to download the spreadsheet Hope you find this spreadsheet useful inshaAllah HM Bismillah, here is a spreadsheet that was used in class 6 as a test to revise topics they had learned in Arabic class. Topics include: Keywords by Surah al-Fatiha, al-Falaq, al-Ahad and al-Nas, ending rules, Arabic handwriting practice (writing basmalah) and sun and moon letters. This spreadsheet is a glimpse of how Arabic is taught at my school, ie primarily using short surahs/juzz Amma as the basis for learning Arabic handwriting and grammar, as well, and most importantly for learning the meaning/tafsir behind the short surahs. Click here to download the spreadsheet I hope you find this spreadsheet useful inshaAllah.
