Get the power of on the way! Rated 4.58 out of 5 5 ReviewsAtest positive reviewI have been using pureology on and off for years. The price has occasionally led me to wander to find a better shampoo. I always come back to pureology! This shampoo/conditioner leaves my hair soft, shiny, and healthy looking/feeling. My hair has significant gray now and I color every 4 weeks. The funny thing is I started using this product before all the gray set in. Anyway my hair is healthy, soft and manageable. Love this stuff! I think I'm finally going to stop wandering around looking for something better. I found the best product for my hair and my beliefs (animal testing is a no-no). :Ate's most useful critical reviewI bought this after my stylist had used it on me. It smelled great, felt refreshingly tingling, and gave me nice smooth voluminous hair. I bought through Ulta for the points. I won't do that again. Unfortunately I got an expired product, it has almost no smell, no tingling, and feels a little greasy even after rinsing. Protip: when buying premium hair products, buy from the source or an actual salon so you are sure to get a legit product. I'm really bummed because this wasn't cheap. Would highly recommend the product, would not recommend buying Ulta.Reviewed by 1864 customersInvbarber from Las VegasI am a loyal Pureology (purple bottle) user for 15+ years, even if the price has gone up and up. I bought a supply about 6 months ago. About 2 months into its use, I noticed fracture and lots of hair loss, along with rats nesting after washing. At first I thought it was due to over processing, so my stylist changed the brand she used for highlights and didn't put me under the dryer for so long. This didn't help. I then started noticing the comments of others about the new formula causing breakage and hair loss, so I switched to a Redken product. After two weeks, my hair is back to healthy and smooth weather! Pureology has lost a customer! This is the only shampoo I've used for about 15 yr5Alisha from Bronx NYNo needs shampoo every day. Let my hair work great. Crowning glory5Pam N I'm from Water Valley MSUse this regularly and no adverse effects on hairBest Shampoo I've ever used5Rosy from Floridal started using this shampoo and conditioner 4 months ago and I have to say I'm shocked by all the hair reviews. I love this shampoo and conditioner.... I don't need to use so much and it makes my hair feel so clean and full. I got a gift set that came with the shampoo/conditioner/leave in conditioner. Once I get out of the shower I just spray my ends with the leave-in and it has made my hair so healthy. Everyone's hair is different it might not work for you, I had extremely thin hair and it has made my hair healthier. I loved it until I realized how much it made my hair fall 2Megan c. from Fort LauderdaleAre use this shampoo/conditioner for months and months and and that my hair was amazing. That's when I started to realize that my hair was falling out like this. I would wash my hair with the shampoo and 30 strands would just come in the shower. Again I love the way it made my hair feel, but it's not worth losing my hair lol. DON'T BUY LOS AngelesDO DON'T BUY 1dd! as you see people are commenting that this product will lose your hair and it's true! I bought it recently and already lost its after 2-3 used. DON'T BUY !!! !!! !!! Dried my hair out1MJ from MobileI having thick curly hair, and bought this product on the recommendation of my stylist. lck! It dries out my hair, and I also noticed large amounts of hair loss. I'm used to some hair loss, but this seemed more than usual. Save your money and try something else. Terrible not buying this1Morgan from DenverI used this a few times over a month ago and recently I noticed that my hair is falling out and I've never experienced that before. DON'T BUY THIS. It is a waste of money and causes extreme hair loss. Best shampoo on the Market5makeuplover of ILI have used this for years - w/o hard ingredients, leave hair soft and hydrated, but not matted or heavy. Don;t need a lot to be effective. It's pricey, but worth it. Imho. Hair Loss2Alyssa from AnaheimI got this shampoo and went through the whole bottle, only to try a new shampoo and realize that the excessive amount of hair I lost was due to this. First wash with something else and lose much less hair though. I loved the smoke and I love the minty feeling. Besides, I didn't notice anything special about this. Causing extreme hair loss!1Lee from Rossmoor, Cal bought Pureology to keep my hair color, but I noticed excessive hair loss when I started using this shampoo. It was bad! I thought it was stress or hormones or diet or something else. A phase, perhaps? But after reading the reviews, I stopped using it (got my money back too) and got another brand (Fekkai) and my hair loss stopped, after the first day!!! Will never use this Pureolgy again. Disappointed 3Gladly Ola of VermontWash and moisturising every other day. Was using Hydrate pure and will go back to that. DisappointedRedken is better3Jennie from OCAs someone who has tried Joico, Redken, Matrix, it's a 10, and finally this brand, I can confidently say that if you're looking to save over processed hair (I turned my hair platinum from black every 6 months), go for the Redken Extreme line. This one is very nice, but super overpriced. Causing excessive hair loss1Mary Nova from Washington, DCI am very disappointed in this shampoo and conditioner. I have colored blonde hair and I have used this shampoo about 2 months now. I've noticed excessive hair loss, unlike I've ever experienced with any other product. I had high expectations for Pureology after reading so many positive reviews, but I regret spending so much money on the 33oz bottle. Great product and don't buy any other type of shampoo!5sassy from lakelandThis shampoo smells really good! It only takes a small amount of shampoo with lots of water to produce wonderful sudscamused hair loss!1Ash of CAThis is terribly overpriced shampoo and it made my hair fall into large clumps!!! Don't buy! would recommend this shampoo.5Lea from OKLove this shampoo. Dear I've found5Maggiemay from Lakeland f!This shampoo makes my hair feel lighter. It stays cleaner longer. WonderfulGreat to mix with4Jayne1881 from Chandler, AZI've used this shampoo for a couple of years now and it's a great one to use every third wash, or so, to mix up your hair routine. It's not my favorite for everyday use, as it can sometimes be a bit heavy. Good Shampoo4Bumblebee22 from Raleigh NCGood shampoo that foams well and makes my scalp and hair feel really clean. The smell isn't bad by any means, but I don't think it's a great smell, especially not compared to the Hydrate conditioner. Best shampoo ever used!!!! 5Courtney from Eagle mountain, utah!It makes my hair feel so softBest shampoo ever! 5Rossin from Puerto RicoI have always had oily and itchy scalp problems. I have thick dark brown hair (and a lot of it). I've been told by many hairdressers that it's not good to wash my hair every day. But I've washed my hair every day or every other day all my life because of the oily and itching of my scalp. It was just unbearable to go any longer. My hair was always greasy and flat after 24 hours. But with this shampoo from Pureology I can comfortably go two full days without washing my hair! My head doesn't have the usual intense oiliness and it's not nearly as itchy. The smell is not the biggest, but it certainly works! And I noticed that a small amount goes a long way. I'd like to buy the full size, but I'm curious about the negative reviews of hair loss? Formula has changed1SandraC of Nebraskal have used pureology hydrate for 9 years now, and in the past year or two the quality has really gone downhill. It strips color so easily now and it never used to. No longer good1An of AustinMy hair loved this shampoo, but with the change in bottle and I think formula, it is no longer the same. My hair is frizzy, broken, and like someone else said fall. Please bring back old formula, I don't understand why something that worked so well changed. I'm sure it has to do with money. Now I'm looking for something new. Losing a lot of hair1Patty from Los AngelesI've used this shampoo before and loved it. My hair was soft and less frizzy. I recently bought this shampoo back and when I first got some saw her, I thought it might be the hair mask (biolage that makes one smooth). But I'm not putting the mask on my scalp, I'm halfway down. Today I lost so much hair while That I got scared. I'll throw away the rest and try a Kenra shampoo. Shampoo.
