Movie Movie set up in high school in Los Angeles, where we meet Devin (Wiz Khalifa) that is at the top of his class and he greatly exceeds in academics. Since he is always studying or doing homework, it is now difficult to write his valedictorian speech for graduation because he doesn't really have any social skills or real life experience to note in speech. But that quickly changes when he meets Mac (Snoop Dogg), who has been a senior for 15 straight years. Nerd just meets an older cool guy on campus. Mac is also a ladies man, and when she gets a new chemistry teacher she immediately falls in love with her. Even though she feels like the only way to get to know her is if she finally graduates after all these years. So Devin has to get 4 years of teenage experience in 3 weeks, while Mac has to learn 4 years of high school academics. The odds are just stacked against them in this short period of time, but will they do it or not? The film has been available for purchase since July 3 in the United States, although it has received mixed reviews from many critics, with fans of hip hop artists saying they liked it. The main character is aspiring rapper Rabbit with a bad case of stage fear. He is a white rapper who is rare because most rappers are African American. That in itself has made some people question his abilities. He gets a job at the factory, and he's hit the bottom. He has to go home with his mother. A member of his crew gives him hope in the form of a rap battle at a local venue. A battle is where two rappers try to outdo each other and the best of them is considered the winner. Rabbit finds girlfriend who ends up cheating on him with his best friend. Rabbit tried to get on stage in front of the crowd earlier, but had as a bad case of stage fear could not come up with any rhyme. He didn't say anything, and he got booted off stage. Gets another chance with the battle of the rival group Stage. The winner takes everything including respect for the surroundings. During his great rap battle, he is able to overcome his stage fear. Rabbit mentions all the things that can be used against him, such as living at home in a trailer, his girlfriend was cheating on him, and his friend accidentally shooting himself. He also mentions that his opponent is from a nice family and his ghetto appearance is fake. He mentioned everything that would make him sick. There was nothing another rapper could say about him that was no longer mentioned. In the end, he doesn't say anything and leaves the stage. The film ends with the rabbit gaining the respect of the crowd and perhaps the attention and fame to come. The rabbit is not blinded by its newfound local glory. He heads back to work at the factory, but with a newfound hope that his life of hardship would soon end and he may be able to make it as a rap star. 8 Mile is a drama, a musical film that was released in 2002 and has a running time of 1 hr 50 min.
