January 16, 2019 Players hoping to track down the latest Spider bounty sets in Destiny 2 are once again wondering where to find Gravetide Summoner in his hideout in a Lost Sector. Yes, he has managed to escape the Prison of Elders once more, but it's a great opportunity to increase your power level, so make sure to complete it while you. You pack this bounty for a pair of Ghost Shells from Spider in Tangled Shore, so buy it and we're ready to complete the Wanted: Gravetide Summoner bounty in Destiny 2. Where wanted: Gravetide Summoner © Bungie Wanted: Gravetide Summoner is a bounty that has surfaced a few times in Destiny 2, and it shouldn't be much harder to beat this time. As before, he has holed up in a Lost Sector, this time in the Cargo Bay 3 in The Rig, Titan. To get there, start from the spawn point of De Rig, jump to the higher platform through the boxes on the left, and then stay on the left at the level you're sitting on, close to the ocean edge barrier. After you go down the stairs, look for a platform over the edge of the barrier on the left. Drop down to this and you'll see the entrance back under the direction you came from. Once you're in the Lost sector, start the adventure and make your way through the Cargo Bay 3 Lost Sector until you reach Wanted: Gravetide Summoner. Before you hurt him, you have to kill the Ogre nearby, so focus on that one first. If you have problems, taking out the yellow enemies will be the Ogre's Fear buff which should make things a little easier. Once they're both dead, you've completed the bounty and you can earn some powerful gear as a reward, beautiful things! If you're not sure where to go, the video below from WoW Quests should help you. Now that you've found Wanted: Gravetide Summoner, you may be after the other premiums available now, so check out our guide to where to find Irixis Partizan in Destiny 2! Destiny 2 Guide Cutting Edge Load Comments Life continues in Destiny 2, even with Shadowkeep's release lurking on the horizon. With weekly and daily premiums to worry about, Nightfall strikes to take a hit, and the rotating demands of The Crucible, there's never a shortage of content to work through. Spider still offers the usual premiums on the Tangled Shore, so let our Destiny 2 Gravetide Summoner guide help you complete this particular bounty. Wanted: Gravetide Summoner, like the rest of Spider's premiums, is a To actually acquire this bounty, you want to bring Ghost clips to Spider to buy it. You will be able to get this net net doing other premiums, public events, and killing valuable targets. The bounty requires you to hunt for the wanted Gravetide Summoner, and part of it will include completing a Lost Sector. If you've completed this bounty before, the location of the sector may change from time to time, so don't assume it was where you last saw it. Once you've captured Spider's bounty, you'll have to do a Titan adventure and, as we said, complete a Lost Sector. As soon as you make your way to the end of the sector, you will come across the Gravetide Summoner in question. However, you might find that you don't actually do any damage to them, which is a bit of a bummer. The trick is actually to kill the ogre that is lurking nearby, but it's not as simple as just emptying an entire clip in. We would recommend focusing on gunning down the thralls that are starting to flood into the room - these are special because of their various yellow health bars. When you kill one of these, you get a buff named Ogre's Fear that will increase the damage you will then inflict on the ogre. After you've eliminated the ogre, you can set your sights on the Gravetide Summoner for real and plunder the powerful gear you're entitled to once the bounty is completed. Voila! With the help of our Destiny 2 Gravetide Summoner guide, completing this bounty for Spider should have been a piece of cake for you. Check out our hub if you want the lowdown at Xur's location, how to get The Long Goodbye and more. The Gravetide Summoner is a bounty you buy from The Spider on the Tangled Shore. It will cost you five Ghost Fragments, and unlike other premiums, it will take the form of an adventure. To start it, head to Titan and spawn at Siren's Watch. The totem you need to communicate with is right next to the spawn point, at the entrance to the Methane Flush Lost Sector. Interact with the totem, then go down the tunnels to the Lost Sector. When you arrive, all kinds of enemies will kill each other, so kill everything and go deeper into the rooms. At the back you will find the Gravetide Summoner. The Gravetide Summoner is a Hive Wizard, and she will be joined by two of her kind. Kill both of the lesser Wizards, as the Gravetide Summoner is invulnerable, and they will then call into a giant Ogre. This is a ferocious enemy, and it can do a huge amount of damage. Grenade Launchers, Rockets Launchers, and Sniper Rifles are all great weapons to use against. As you fight the Ogre, the Gravetide Summoner will continue to spawn in other enemies you have to deal with. These include Thralls, Knights, Wizards, and even Shriekers. should clear them all while also treating the Ogre. There is a raised platform at the back of the room that gives good coverage provides easy access to both the gravetide summoner room and the surrounding rooms. It's the best place to operate from, because it gives you good fire angles on the Ogre and protects you from the other enemies. When the Ogre finally falls, you can now damage the Gravetide Summoner yourself. The good news is that she's not particularly difficult without her team to back her up, so she should fall very quickly. When she is dead, the bounty will be finished, and you hand in the Quests tab in your director. Destiny 2 just had a weekly reset, adding another round of premiums and missions. The Gravetide Summoner can be found here. He's a shielded wizard, and you see two other Wizards around him. Kill them first, and then the boss fight can begin in earnest. Before they die, the Wizards will spawn in a big, tough Ogre called the Gravetide Ogre. Keep whittling away his health while looking out for the Knights and Thrall who spawn in too. Watch out for Thrall's green aura because they're wearing an Ogre's Fury buff, which will temporarily increase the damage you're doing to the Ogre.Once the Ogre is dead, a Shrieker will spawn that you have to take care of as well. After all these enemies are defeated, the shield of the Gravetide Summoner Wizard will disappear, making it vulnerable. Take it down and claim your Bounty! It's well deserved. One of the many things that changes in each of Destiny 2's weekly resets on Tuesday is the slate of premiums offered by Spider in the Tangled Shore. While you won't get any more powerful drops to complete these Wanted premiums, they're worth working through if you're new to Destiny 2 and want to earn some gear and complete some Triumphs from the Forsaken expansion. This week's bounty is Titan's own Wanted: Gravetide Summoner is one of the premiums that we have seen repeat more than once, but whose location between several lost sectors. Your goal, as always, is to do a Titan adventure, but the Lost Sector can be found this time in Siren's Watch, in the Methane Flush Lost Sector near the spawn point for that platform. To begin with, take five Ghost Fragments to Spider on the Tangled Shore to buy the bounty you earn with Patrols, public events, killing valuable targets and completing Spider's Tangled Shore bounty. This unlocks the Adventure on Titan, which lets you complete a Lost Sector. At the end you will find Gravetide Summoner, which is initially immune to all damage. To make it vulnerable, you have to kill the nearby ogre. It has a great health pool, but you do increased damage to it by taking special thrall enemies (those with yellow health bars that periodically attack in waves). Killing this gives you a temporary buff that will cause you more damage to the ogre. With the ogre down, finish Gravetide Summoner to complete the bounty, which will get you some powerful acceleration. In addition to this renewed Spider bounty, there is a new Ascendant Challenge. This presents you with a repetitive Ascendant Realm area to tangle with; it comes down to some careful platforming and a boss you have to kill, but the accompanying bounty from Petra offers another piece of powerful acceleration.
