The owner needs to make all the choices before the game can begin.. Darts is a popular pub game involving players or troops who take a turn throwing darts on the board. Electronic dart boards are a great option for those who want to play darts at home. Each player throws three darts on the board, which is divided into 20 pieces, with four zones on each piece, and a bullseye of two ranks at the center. Not only do electronic boards have plastic darts or rubber-bounds - which won't stick to walls like pointed darts, or pose a potential danger to children - but they can automatically store scores. Specify where the discarded line will be placed, which is generally 7 feet 91/4 inches from the face of the board. Mark a line with a ribbon, if desired, or just explain where it was before the game. Turn on the dart board, and choose the game or mod you want to play.
