Animen is an adaptation of Konomis Prince of Tennis Japanese [1] The series revolves around a 12-year-old tennis prodigy named Ryoma Echizen, who moves back to her native Japan to attend his father's alma mater, Seishun Academy, a private middle school known for its strong tennis team. The anime series first aired on the terrestrial Japanese television tokyo from October 10, 2001 to March 30, 2005, which aired a total of one hundred and seventy-eight episodes, spanning forty-five DVDs in Japan. [2] In April 2006, an OVA continuation of the anim began to be released on DVD, and a total of thirteen episodes exceeded seven DVDs. [3] A second OVA was also released on DVD on June 22, 2007. It spanned a total of six episodes that spanned three DVDs, the last of which will be released on January 25, 2008 to January 23, 2009. OVAs is animated by Production I.G and Bandai Visual, the latter of which also handles the DVD distribution of OVAs in Japan together with Amuse Soft Entertainment. [5] Viz Media manages the distribution of the series in North America, [6] where the episodes debuted as streaming media on Viz's and Cartoon Network's joint online broadband service called Toonami Jetstream on July 14, 2006. [7] It first began airing on North American television as part of Toonami's Saturday programming block on December 23, 2006. [9] However, it was removed from Toonami's schedule on June 9, 2007, and was also removed from Toonami Jetstream after the December 3, 2007 broadcast. As of January 15, 2008, a total of four DVD compilations, containing the first fifty episodes, have been released by Viz Media. [10] All four compilations, each containing four sections, saving the last two discs of the first two compilations, which contain five sections. [11] [12] The 1986 J-pop song Valentine Kiss by Sayuri Kokushō was played several times over a variety of characters in the series. From February 2004 to February 2010, total different versions (seven individually, and the last two together). The first, with the character Keigo Atobe (voiced by Junichi Suwabe) reached #14 on the Oricon charts. They take the last set and their rope pin. 6Betraval and negotiationsFebruary 20, 2015 (2015-02-20) Next match, singles by Ishida Gin against Duke Watanabe. Ishida loses as Duke bests all 108 levels of Hadokyuu. Now, No. 8 Tono Atsukyo and No. 7 Kimijima Ikuto, take on Kite and Marui in doubles. Kite turns on Marui, hitting him from behind earlier getting a deal with the first stringers because he believes in siding with the strong. It's now 3 on 1! Marui loses the first set. It turns out that Kimijima wanted to turn against Tono and asked kite to help attack his weaknesses and with an offer that they would be double partners. But before that happens, Marui vira he sides with the strong. 7Embrace 10 Ball Strike and SleepApril 24, 2015 (2015-04-24) Surprise! Kimijima also negotiated with Marui promising that if he help him turn on Tono, he would help Yukimura heal his illness for good. Marui follows up on this affair and hits Tono on his knees. Yet the first stringers take the set: two on one. Kite comments to Marui that he is done with double and asks for a piece of gum. It is now Oni against Kintarou since Akutsu, the original opponent has disappeared. Oni increases the ball illusion to 10 balls but he manages to knock them all back, surprising everyone. He proclaims that he will be the best player in Japan. Ryoma follows Ryoga and they come across Akutsu who expresses his disinterest in playing for Japan but instead to pay back Ryoma. Ryoga laughs and Akutsu plays him with many balls that avoid scans and strikes back. Ryoma rescues Akutsu from Ryogaga's powerful ball. They are interrupted by Sanada who wants to play doubles with Akutsu. Oni's memories are shown on why he must win and his past with Byōdōin. Kintarou achieves pinnacle of perfection after expressing his enjoyment of tennis but Oni counters by activating his own Pinnale of perfection as well. Oni wins the game. 8The Emperor and the MonsterApril 24, 2015 (2015-04-24) It is now double by Akutsu and Sanada versus No. 6 Omagari Ryūji and No. 2 Tanegashima Shūji. Meanwhile, Ryoma asks Ryoga to teach him that glowing shot and Ryoga gives him a two string racket telling him to find the Super Sweet Spot. On the court, Ryūji takes them both on alone using two rackets. Sanada's techniques are captured and he accidentally gets into Akutse's cheek! To even it out, Akutsu kicks him in the stomach. The couple are now collaborating and Sanada introduces Black Aura. Tanegashima reunites with her partner and Sanada tries to counter using Double Clutch. Sanada-Akutsu couple lose. Ryoma and Ryoga are shown and how Ryoga left him without explanation and why Ryoma. doesn't remember having a brother since he lost his memories during the Nationals. It's Tokugawa versus Byödöin! Tokugawa and Byödöin's match from seriously injuring Tokugawa and why they refused to join the first stringers out of camp. Tokugawa takes the lead with Asura's divine path; wins the set but it is obvious that Byodoin has the upper hand, which breaks the opposite wall. Byodoin wins the second set with Pirates of the World and Tokugawa introduces a new technique, Black Hole, that can shorten his career if used excessively. Meanwhile, Ryoma senses Tokugawa's fight and abandons his and Ryoga match to see him spew blood largely from taking Destruction last night to protect Ryoma because he couldn't abandon him. Tokugawa collapses and Ryoma's anger flares up. 10The Guided Ones26 June 2015 (2015-06-26) Tokugawa stops Ryoma and resumes the game. He is at a disadvantage and is still trying to use the Black Hole even when he falls unconscious. Ryoma, who can't look any further despite Atobe's warning, jumps in and repels a Destruction for Tokugawa that damages Byodoin. Ryoma is ordered to leave the camp for breaking the rules. Undisputed, he's unpacking. Byodoin hits the water tower, threatens him; Ryoma promises to beat him when they meet again. Ryoga leaves, Byodoin tells us that he no longer has a reason to be there and gives him his No. 4 pin. Ryoma encounters sakuno and they go to a game center where afterwards Sakuno shows him that she had drawn many unlucky fortunes at the shrine but a good luck Ryoma thanks her and leaves. Byodoin is reluctantly impressed with Tokugawa and gives him the No. 4 pin. At home, Ryoga tells Ryoma about the U17 World Cup where he could beat Byodoin as U.S. representatives together. Coach Mifune arrives at the camp and turns out to be the head coach where he announces that at the World Cup, middle school students could rep Japan too! Ryoma's name is called but he is now at the air terminal for the American team where he promises to win the cup...
