Parts of a sentence worksheet 6th grade

This is part of the worksheet section of the sentence. A sentence is a group of words that expresses complete thought. Each sentence has a subject and a predicate. When writing, it is important to recognize the sentence parts so that you can clearly converge your ideas. Parts of our sentence worksheet sections include; subjects and predicates, clauses, direct and indirect objects, preposition phrases and verbal words. You can download these parts of the sentence worksheet for free by clicking the picture or link. Use parts of this sentence worksheet at school or at home. Click the picture that you want to lead to this section part of the sentence worksheets. What is the subject and predicate? The part of the subject of the sentence for which or what the sentence is. The predicate part of the sentence indicates what the subject is. The predicate often begins with a verb. If the writer leaves out the topic or predicate, they do not have a complete sentence. It is important to learn how to write with full sentences that contain both the subject and predicate. Our theme and predicate worksheets can be downloaded and easily accessed in PDF format. Learn more about the topic and predicates by practicing with our free topic and predicate worksheets below.
