Privacy Policy Cookie Settings in: Dragon Age II side searching Desk Writing Edit (Hawke Estate), or when searching for a Forgotten Lair Evil Tome (Darktown) Forbidden Knowledge is Act 2 of side quests in Dragon Age II. Bug! The effort was bugged. Choosing any option other than destroying 5 initial books will leave you unable to complete the search. The effort can still be completed with statistical stimulus as long as only Fell Grimoire is read. Acquisition[edit | edit source] If Idunna is leased during Enemy Among Us, she sends a letter to Hawke at the beginning of Act 2. If he dies, the effort is accepted upon finding any Evil Tome. Maximizing experience and loot[edit | edit resources] To achieve the largest amount of experience as well as getting a statistical boost and Voracity, destroying all five Nasty Tomes, the effort will go ahead and you'll lead to the last book called Fell Grimoire. Then choose to read Grimoire to get a statistical boost. This will allow you to complete the search and get a unique statistical boost and staff. Walkthrough[edit | edit source] There are 5 Nasty Tomes scattered throughout and around Kirkwall as well as Grimoire Fell. You can choose any of the following options when choosing a book (they are all mutually exclusive): Since you can still get a Cup, Exorcist even if you read or take Fell Grimoire in the end, more worth you to destroy all five Evil Tomes. Choosing any of these options will result in some demons and nudity to attack. You'll also get a Forbidden Book Trash Lore item to sell coins, no matter which option you make, but only and that includes Grimoire Falls. Taking or reading any Evil Tomes will make an impossible search to complete. Reading and accepting a book deal will give you +2 attribute points, but this will only work once: the next book won't provide an attribute bonus. Malicious tomes [edit source] commands where you find Evil Tomes irrelevant. When entering the area with a theme, it will be marked on the map. Preparing to fight colors, demons and abomination. The theme

lies: In chantry on a table near the top of the south staircase. Note: If Sebastian is not in the party, he will join as an ally in the next fight if you entice the enemies to him. In eastern Viscount's Keep, on a bench near the throne. Note: When the enemies give birth to the door closed. It can be unlocked (during battle only) for 250 XPs with 50 cunning (or 40 and Bonus for gear lockpicking). Note: Themes in storage cannot be used immediately upon arrival in Act 2; Hawke must leave the area and return to use it because Hawke was able to use the book immediately when starting Act 2 means they may be forced to fight alone.) Note: If Aveline is not in the party, she will join as an ally in the next fight if you entice the enemies to her room. At Rotting Caves (which cannot be accessed until other tomes are read/taken/destroyed), whose entrance is found at the far east end of bone holes on the surface-level, at the other end of the dead (see map below). Damaged Lyrium is also in the cave. In the abandoned Thaig, whose entrance is shown as the Recent Opened Route in the game, and near Sundermount's western exit to the world map. The theme is found in the main room of the thaig, along with Nexus Golem's belongings. There is a battle in this room before getting a tome; see the thaig strategy left if you're having trouble. Inside The Dank Cave, an unmarked entrance is found in the central area north of the Injured Coast (see map below). Dragons control tome and medium treasures. There was also Raw Lyrium at the beginning of the cave. The Fell Grimoire[edit | edit source] The Fell Grimoire is available in Lair Ter forgotten, which is an area in Darktown near the Northwest entrance next to the bin and labelled as Evil Pit. It will not be locked up until all the Evil Tomes have been destroyed. Once you enter The Forbidden Lair, there is a master trap (50 cunning to detect and dispose of - 250 XP) blocking the hallway. Note: If you release this trap, the poison gas is released north and east of the first intersection you face, and a disarmament switch appears on this intersection path (one at the intersection, one at north). Using this switch turns off poison gas. The first door you face has a simple key (10 cunning to open - 50 XP), so make sure you bring at least one shovel or you can't proceed. After After Some corpses in the first room, there are 2 complex traps (30 cunning to detect and dispose of - 150 XPs) and master traps* (40 cunning to detect and dispose of - 200 XP) at the beginning of the short lane before the door opens, and complex traps (30 cunning to detect and dispose of - 150 XP) and 2 master traps (40 cunning to detect and dispose of - 200 XP) before the entrance. Note: * These master traps can sometimes change as complex traps instead. Note: All Traps can be Master Traps, clean your group a huge amount of xp to dispose of them all, so being very careful and ready can eventually become very profitable to you. Just past the open door there are three more master traps (50 cunning to detect and dispose of - 250 XP/trap), and before the path turns north there are three more master traps* (50 sneaky to detect and disperse - 250 XP/trap). Revolving attacks can draw enemies to safe areas where they can be defeated and then traps can be stripped. Note: * This master trap shoots a burst of fire one time from the southern wall of the next corner; they also release poison gas in the west of the trap and north of the upcoming corner where the route turns north (gas eventually disappears). There is Arcane Horror and 2 Skeleton Archers around the corner; if you release these traps and release poison gas, gas can kill them as long as they don't see you. Note: Rovels with 40+ cunning and Bonus to disable gear traps will be effective in disposing of the above listed master traps that usually require 50 cunning to detect and dispose of. Arcade horror and 2 Skeleton Archers attack where routes turn north (unless poison gas kills them). In the next room you find the grimoire. No matter what you do with the Fallen Grimoire, you will face Xebenkeck, a demon of strong desires. Bosses will call the hordes of demons of anger and abomination, as well as the revenant in the second wave. Check out the articles on Xebenkeck for a strategy to beat them. Results[edit | edit source] Tarohne theme and potentially Fall Grimoire destroyed. Rewards [edit | edit source] Exorcist or trophy achievements From 3 to 7 on Xebenkeck 1000 XP (after reading/destroying Fell Grimoire - finished search) (optional) 750 XP/mus booknah and (about) 260 XP/demons fight (for other five books) Notable items[edit | edit source] Voracity, robbed of Xebenkeck Notes[edit | edit source] If you seek Supplier achievement, Be sure to grab Raw Lyrium from the cave in Injured Beach and Lyrium broke down in a cave at The Bone Pit. Even if you decide to read or take fell Grimoire, the journal will still say that it has been destroyed. You read Fell Grimoire, or you read any other Evil Tomes, you still got the Lore Ban Junk Book for sale. You got Merrill: competition (+10) for every book that's been destroyed, destroyed, in Merrill whopping: competition (+60) if he is in the party when destroying all Evil Tomes and Fall grimoire. Elastic, Fenris did not have any changes in approval from any action during this search. If you have read any books and played on the PC version, it is possible to use the zz_lgt_debug runscript command from the console, select Act 2, and then more options, and then prohibit the knowledge. Then you can choose the last phase of the search and complete the search despite having read/picked up a book. You may need to be somewhere other than Darktown when you use the order to work, because it broadcasts you to Darktown right next to the entrance. Do not use commands while on the Hawke Estate, or you will be alone and in your Finery, with all your talents disabled (except for the ongoing effects that have been turned on). Items can still be used. Although you can easily grab/change your party members at anders clinic, and while you maintain your equipped gear statistics bonus (such as your weapons attack rating or bonus to disable traps), the state, to put it a little, makes the battle against Xebenkeck harder. (Confirmed on PC.) To fix it, return to Hawke Farm and then leave it usually for other areas. It's still pretty disturbing that you might as well go somewhere other than the Hawke Estate to run the script. If you've read one of the Evil Tomes, unfollowing only the final phase of the search still doesn't let you read Grimoire Falls. (Confirmed on PC.) This makes sense, because you get an extra statistical point early. Dragon Age II bug Age II community content search can be found under CC-BY-SA unless otherwise stated. More Dragon Age Wiki Wiki
