Negative! This game is really good! It runs perfectly on my iPad Pro! This game has pretty awesome gameplay and upgrades depending on the way you play the game. Dec 18, 2019 Version 1.8.2 I enjoyed all the games you have released recently and I look forward to more balloon games. Balloon super monkey 2 is one of my favorites. I enjoy the combination of weapons and upgrades. And it's very challenging. But each game has at least one problem. I feel like laser vision and plasma vision are not too different as far as how much balloons they pop in each level. I tested this and it turns out that laser vision is actually better than plasma. Plus plasma costs more. I got silver using plasma and gold using laser. I think plasma needs a faster rate of fire to be worth it. Another complaint is that DR Monkey forces you to buy a core weapon for 1000 Blops and I want to save my Blops energy weapons. I didn't want to waste my Blops on a kernel I wouldn't use. It's not so of an appointment, but change it if you can. Let me know when adding or fixing things or making a new game. I love your games and I would play every single one of them if I could. Complete flip of what I said earlier? Yes, but I found out what was about to destroy it, so now I say what I have to say about this game. It's good, the difficulty is proportionally scaled and there's no real payroll. I've put $20 in after buying this game in the time I've been playing this since day 1, just a purchase, and I can say: it wasn't really worth it! I mean, there really wasn't much point buying the $20 red blop pack. You can easily earn blops, red or blue, just by playing through an old level a few times or using experiments to collect about 20k red or blue blops. And I must say the addition of Bloontonium to slow you down is an interesting concept that I find to add a good challenge to your style of play. I love this game, but the ad system needs work. I saw about five ads and got nothing ... IN DRAG!!! So making the ads work is one thing, but another thing is the payout to see it. Like if I'm at 20,000 blops and I need 20,250, surrrrrrrrrrrrrrr it's handy, but when you're at 20,000 blops and you need 25,000 it just makes no sense to see 50 ads to get 5,000 blops. So to make sure I don't rant about how awful the ad system is anymore, numero uno: Make sure a man gets his blops for spending 3 minutes of his life watching manipulated ads. numero deux (because I took French not Spanish): increase the payout of seeing an ad (cause seriously, I could have made myself a sandwich in 3 minutes). and last but not least numero trois: stop using manipulated ads that force you out of the game and into the App Store or whatever others are using. But apart from this the game is pretty epic App Support Privacy Policy Policy
