Since 1918, we have been on a mission to cultivate relevant Christian leaders for ministry and markets. The Student Life Office is located at the back of the Samuel R. Chand Auditorium (Chapel). Hours: The Student Life Office is Monday through Thursday at 8.30 a.m.m. SGA [Student Government Association] student government association at Bella Heights University functions in accordance with the Constitution and by-laws. As of each spring semester, the SGA and the Office of Student Life and Enrollment Management facilitate nominations, elections and elections for those interested in participating. He currently has SGA President, Vice President, General Secretary/Treasurer, Junior Class Representative, and Sopomore Class Representative. All by students. In addition to the responsibilities outlined in the judiciary, the SGA has formed annual international anniversaries [chapel services consisting of international flower forests and fellowships], annual spring banquets for students, faculty and staff, annual student picnics, holiday dinners for campus students and surrounding communities, in addition to submitting welcome letters to freshmen each semester. The BHU student promoted outreach to provide food and other resources to the poor. [See attached article 17.10 b] This club was organized by students of the Department of Community and International Economic Development. Donations are given to the BHU and are used to purchase food, clothing and other raw materials. Club Give members advertise when and where they want to distribute items, and then send them directly to the community and individuals in need. Students who want to participate in campus life can connect with BHU campus ministries as volunteers. BHU-CM plans students to run worship services like SNL [Saturday Night Live], and similar special events. BHU-CM also provides assistance by working with the planning team through a variety of other BHU events. Volunteers may be asked to support promotions, settings, hosting, and more. Club Give is a student who started a food drive providing food and clothing to low-income families in a housing community near the university. Students also currently serve as volunteer mentors to high school students and local alternative high schools. Responsible student residents who exemplify M.O.S.T. [Overseas Short-Term Mission] leadership skills are recruited to support campus housing as resident assistance (RA). RA varies from semester to semester and earns a minimum salary for the service. If you are interested in RA, please contact the Residence Life Office for information on how to apply and availability. Under the direction of the C.A.T.S. [Chapel Auxiliary Training Symposium] Chapel Dean, you will support the leadership team with the execution of chapel services. Your support may not include reading the Bible, collecting offerings, ordering CDs, creating duplicate CDs and labels, or greeting chapel attendees as they enter. If you have classes on Thursdays, you will need to attend a chapel service. Guest speakers include skilled Christian leaders from the state as well as metro areas. CDs can be purchased immediately after the service. The closing announcement will be made via WSB Radio (750 a.m. to WSB TV). Dr. Benson Karanza, president of Beulah Heights University, is interested in knowing complaints, suggestions or ideas, and leave items in designated sockets on campus. Includes serious accidents, illnesses or other important events that can be classified as emergencies. A notice of emergency should be directed to Faculty Assistant (ext 103), which determines whether the situation warrants a class interruption. Otherwise, the note is placed in your instructor's campus mailbox. Late for classes, the message is not considered an emergency. The Student Handbook is full of information about practical and personal student needs. The information provided in the handbook is critical to campus experience and dormitory life, policies, procedures, and personal development. Each student must read the handbook and provide a signed statement to the university to keep each student's file. Food and beverage machines are available at the student activity center. If you have lost money from the machine, you can report it to the front desk receptionist to receive a refund. Want to know what BHU's campus housing has to offer? Housing tours provide a great opportunity to see each dormitory, talk to students, faculty and staff, and learn about the educational benefits of campus housing. For more information, click < Hyperlink to the Campus Housing page. The Student Life Office facilitates counseling services for all students at Bella Heights University. The scope of service is displayed in the student handbook. Specifically: Pastoral Care: Bella Heights provides personal and spiritual support to students in the Student Life Office. Issues where students can receive help may include spiritual, ministry standards, and personal relationships. Professional Counseling: Bella Heights University maintains professional Christian counseling on campus for students who need professional counseling services. These services are provided by licensed therapists who serve on the faculty of the BHU. Vice President of Student Life facilitates this referral process. (For additional information, please visit the Student Number and Enrollment Management Department). ADA Accommodations (Americans with Disabilities Act) academic counseling is offered in collaboration with academic departments that provide academic advice to each student each semester. The Student Living Room may request classroom accommodation or modifications for students who want additional academic support or demonstrate the need for improvement in the courses offered at the university due to learning, physical and/or mental disabilities. If you have any questions about this, please contact the Student Life Office. All the fun things to do! List some of your favorites close to campus to help students enroll new in the area.
