Better yet, it encouraged you to visit C&amp;c; M Rock Shop Honor, Michigan, where the author, Bruce Mueller, and his wife Shirley, own and run the store there. I even polished one of my Petoskey rocks yesterday!!! I can't wait to go back!!! And maybe I'll buy the guides to the other big lakes. I hope to do a pictured Rock trip this summer!!! beautiful addition to my knowledge of the great lake geology, especially along the coasts along the cliffs. author's comments on where to go to find concrete rocks around Lake Michigan were not really helpful at all. the photos were good. geological history was fundamental and sufficient for a beginner. description of the most common rocks found was useful. This book was amazing for nerds like me who collect thirty new rocks every summer. Your holiday helped me find petoskey stones! (hexagonal fossils of coral 600 million years old). It also helped identify some of the rocks/fossils we've found, b/c there are fossils everywhere on Lake Michigan great information, but wanted more photos of different rocks! Nice manual. Good tips for finding petoskey stones (I came home about 20)! This book convinced me that next time I'd have to go to the Upper Peninsula.
