Tripadvisor enzian inn leavenworth

My wife and I, along with two of our adult children, stayed at Enzian Falls Hutte last weekend. This is the cottage overlooking the golf course. It is operated by the Enzian Inn. Enzian Falls Hutte is, without a doubt, the most unusual place we've ever stayed. If you're looking for a quirky and unusual place to stay, it's certainly that. We thought it was interesting for them to say it can accommodate six people. It has a half bathroom downstairs with only a sink and a bathroom and another on the same floor with sink and shower, but no toilet. There is no bathroom upstairs. The bedroom is downstairs and not private at all. The upper floor has a microwave and four gold-colored bathroom sinks and a refrigerator the size of a dorm. The building is located in a very convenient location: an easy walk for golf, shops and restaurants. It's across the street from the rest of the Enzian Inn. I have stayed at the Enzian Inn many times in the last 35 years or so. While brunch was still good, it was no longer great. The choices seemed to have been scaled back a bit compared to previous years. The Enzian Inn's outdoor hot tub is nice, but you have to re-set the timer every five minutes to keep the jets going. We're probably going to stay somewhere else... More Welcome to the Linderhof Inn in Leavenworth, where everything you need is right here! Easily accessible on foot from the center. I will definitely stay here again. This was a wonderful time to visit, between Octoberfest and the big crowds during the Christmas holidays. A way of peace! of Waiza007 Hotel older but with all the charm yet! If being picky this time was a pretty long walk to get anywhere at the hotel as our room was quite far away (with what looked like very few people checking in at the time, I was surprised to be so far away) however, that said, it was also a very quiet location. The Fire every night was wonderful with piano music and hot tea. Extremely friendly reception, nice that the pool was covered but the water needed more heating, the room was much warmer than the water (Florida sultry). However, it still looks nice. Having stayed here before, breakfast was definitely not up to scratch this time (very little selection in the middle of the week unless you love omelets every day) but again, you still can't beat the view (having stayed at MANY hotels here, this is by far the BEST view of all the breakfast areas you'll ever find, (breathaking actually) is not too much to lose. This was a girl getting away with it and with Leavenworth NOT busy (unlike the summer) we were able to go and see and do everything we wanted without any problems or stress. We like that this hotel is very close within walking distance. It's still my number one to go to a place to stay for breakfast, pool, friendliness (when sold out), then the Bavarian Inn for proximity to the center.
