It has six subsections: Bethany House, Revell, Baker Books, Baker Academic, Chosen, and Brazos Press. The Company's history was founded in 1939 by Herman Baker in Grand Rapids, Michigan. The company has published Christian books discussing many issues that range from family life to theology within a broad evangelical framework. [2] Baker published books and ministerial resources for pastors and church leaders, focusing on topics such as da'wah, worship, pastoral ministry, kaunseling and leadership. Baker also publishes to put Christians on topics such as discipline, spirituality, relationships, marriage, fatherhood and the intersection of Christianity and culture. [3] In June 2014 Baker announced that he had acquired Regal Books from Gospel Light. [4] Behany House Subsection Main article: Bethany House Baker is considered a pioneer in publishing Christian fixes. [5] Revell The Fleming H. Revell Company was founded in 1870 by Christian Evangelist D.L. Moody and his brother-in-law, Fleming H. Revell. Both men identified the market for practical books that would help bring Christian beliefs to a day's life. In 1992, Revell was absorbed by Baker. [6] Selecting the selected publishing company began in 1971. By 1985, the company had been absorbed into the Revell Publishing Group. When Revell was bought by Baker, the Selected imprint remained as a different unit in the newly developed company. [7] Brazos Press Brazos Press is the publisher of theology and cultural criticism based on theology, with an orientation toward the point of view after childbirth in mainstream Protestantism.
