Properties without the City of Minneapolis Solid Waste & Recycling Recovery Service cannot bring materials to city transfer stations. For more information about how to allow non-utility invoice payer to use vouchers, see Document approval. Vouchers are for materials only from accommodations in Minneapolis. Non-Minneapolis accommodations are not eligible for the voucher program. Minneapolis is entitled to an on-site inspection of the property before approving the voucher. Each property that uses solid waste and recycling services is provided with the following vouchers each year: Cleanup Vouchers: Up to 6 years per year per property. Vouchers are used for household waste, construction and disposal of paving materials. The maximum weight per load is 2,000 lbs for free. Restrictions on two appliances, electronic products or mattresses are not subject to additional charges per voucher. Charges apply to each additional item. Tire vouchers: maximum of 2 per year per property. Each voucher can use up to 8 tires. Tires are accepted with or without rims. Charges apply for each additional tire. Additional charges apply if you combine multiple vouchers in a single trip. For example, a truck load that weighs 4,300 pounds requires three documents to cover the weight. A total of $30 ($15 per additional voucher) will be charged to combine vouchers for use in a one-time load. Processing fees for adding extras to utility charges: If a customer wants to pay a fee of extra debris ($41/ton) over the £2,000 voucher limit for utility charges, a $10 processing fee will be added to the utility building. Prices are subject to change. A customer means a person who now owns a property in Minneapolis and is now a utility building payer. If you are the owner of your property, you will not be granted the right to a voucher unless you are eligible for payment and listed as a utility bill payer. If you are not a utility invoice payer, see Document approval. Because of the abuse of the report voucher program and the protection of illegally dumped paying customers, we have implemented stronger guidelines to tell customers that they must request vouchers from different addresses, scam customers by having to charge fees to carry goods, or request vouchers to prevent driving without paying (this scam is often used by older people). It is illegal to use another resident's voucher. City Ordinance 225.10 states that if substances or materials are generated outside of residence, they must not allow others to leave, throw, throw, or deposit any substance or substance at the city's solid waste service or collection point for urban disposal. If you see illegal dumping or abuse at the South Transfer Station or anywhere in minneapolis city, please report it. Write down your license number, vehicle description, the person involved in the dump, and any items that were dumped, dial 311 and report it to minneapolis 311 staff. If you wish, you will remain anonymous. If this service is abused, you may lose it. If a resident abuses this program by taking items from friends, family or other places or businesses, this service can be canceled. South Transfer Station staff will monitor this abuse and report it when it is discovered. Once removed from this program, the reinstaete of vouchers can only be made by the director of solid waste. The voucher program is a special service to our customers and is included in the monthly fee. This special service abuse can bring additional costs to you, utility building payers and taxpayers.
