(read all 180 Q&A with short answers) This section contains 4,339 words (about 15 pages per 300 words per page) 1. Describe Henrietta Lacks' genre and narrative style of immortal life. From whose perspective is the narrative connected? Henrietta Lacks' immortal life is a work of nonfiction. Author Rebecca Skloot links her first-place narrative as she describes her process of finding the Lacks family and exploring henrietta lacks' life. Narrative style is sometimes scientific in the details of HeLa cells and their role in scientific advancement, but it remains at a level where lay people and non-scientists can understand concepts. 2. How is Henrietta Lacks' early childhood described in the book? When and where was she born? Where did she grow up? Henrietta Lacks was born august 1, 1920, in Roanoke, Virginia. Her birth name was Loretta Pleasant. Henrietta lived with her parents and eight other siblings. Her mother died giving birth to her 10th child. After her mother died, her father took her children and spread them among relatives in Clover.
