It was developed by New England Development and The Pyramid Companies and opened in 1989; It is currently managed by JLL-Retail. Starting in 2020, the mall is anchored by the department stores J.C. Penney, Macy's and Sears. Previous anchors include department stores Filene's (map two locations), G. Fox & amp; Co., Lechmere and Lord & amp; Taylor. History emerald square, October 2008. Emerald Square originally opened in 1989 as a joint venture between New England Development and The Pyramid Companies and included JCPenney, Sears and G. Fox., [2] with Lechmere added in 1992. The G. Fox store was renamed Filene's in 1993, [3] while Lechmere was closed in 1997 due to chain liquidation. Lord & amp; Taylor bought the vacant location in 1998 and doubled the space before opening in 1999. [4] A carousel was installed in the food court in 1999. Meanwhile, Pyramid had sold its interest in the mall in 1998 to New England Development,[5] which turned around and sold most of its shopping mall portfolio to a joint venture led by Simon Property Group in 1999. Lord & amp; Taylor closed in 2004. The space was taken over by Filene's, which had opened a separate Men's & amp; Home store in 2005. In 2006, Filene's stores were renamed Macy's as well as Home & amp; Men's stores. On 1Nov1, 2020, Simon Property Group sold the mall to JLL-Retail.
