

I'm not robot  reCAPTCHA

Continue

Austin statesman obits 2019

For full text of the obituary, contact Records President ARREDONDO, Antonia, Mrs. Antonio Arredondo, 72, a resident of Austin for the past 35 years, died in a local hospital Monday; Three sons, Rudolpho Arredondo, Constancio Arredondo, and Augustine Arredondo, all of Austin. Funeral services are cancelled on Wednesday. Funeral in Memorial Park. Austin American, Jan 10, 1950. Shut down: kb ATKINS, Funeral services for Ernest T. Atkins were held at Hyltin-Manor Funeral Home Thursday morning by the Rev. L. R. Cole of the Capitol Heights Baptist Church officiating. The funeral was in Memorial Park. Austin American, Nov 25, 1949. Submitted by: ns BAKER, Private Funeral Services Miss Julia Baker was Monday having funeral in Oakwood Cemetery. Austin Statesman, January 9, 1952 p2. Insted by: KB BARTLETT, William Bartlett was found dead of heart failure yesterday morning by his negro housekeeper at 504 East Thirteenth Street. Bartlett is a porter in the Senate chamber. His body was sent to Dallas for burial. Austin Daily Statesman, Mar 26, 1907. Suspended: kb BAUMGART, Victor G. Baumgart of 506 East 16th Street died in a local hospital Friday. He has lived in Austin for the past five years. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Elie Baumgart of Austin, three daughters, Mrs. Sterling Adair, Mrs. J.L. Churchwell of Austin, and Mrs. Fred Blazek of Bryan. Funeral will be held at Simank Funeral Home in Brehham Sunday at 4.m with Rev Theo String officiating. The funeral will be in Brenham. Austin American, Nov 26, 1949. Submitted by: ns BEARD, Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Katherine Beard were held Monday. The funeral was in Memorial Park. Austin American, Jan 10, 1950. Submitted by: kb BEHNKEN, John W. Behnken III died in Houston early Friday. Survivors include his parents, Rev. and Mrs. John W. Behnken Jr.; a sister, Jayne E. Behnken, all of Houston; His grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. John W. Behnken of Illinois, and Mr. and Mrs. A.C Krippa from Austin. Funeral service will be held in Houston Saturday at 10.m. The body will then be taken to Austin for graveside services at 4:30 p.m.m in Memorial Park with the Rev. Albert F. Jesse officiating. Services will be under the direction of Cook Funeral Home. Austin American, Nov 26, 1949. Filed by: ns BOCK, Mrs. Pina Eva Bock, a resident of Austin for more than 50 years, died Sunday afternoon at a local hospital after an illness of several months. Born in Cedar Valley, Mrs. Bock moved to Austin with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.C Mueller, when she was nine years old. She attended Austin Public Schools and Business College. Survivors include her husband, G.C Bock, a son Carl Edward Bock, a sister, Mrs. Gus Borner, and three brothers. Carl H. Mueller, Leo O. Mueller and Rudolph G. Muller. Austin Paper, Jun 26, 1939. Submitted by: kb BOWEN, Funeral before Thomas H. Bowen was held Sunday. The funeral was in Memorial Park. Austin American, Mar 22, 1943. Submitted by: kb BOYD, George Wilson Boyd, 18 years old, son of a widow, Mrs Louise Boyd, 4520 Avenue G, Hyde Park, worked in his mother's grocery store and largely ran the business. He died as a result of the overturning of a boat Sunday afternoon on Lake Austin at the mouth of Little Bee Creek. He and his friend Andrew Sibley could not be revived by the officers. Boyd is survived by three brothers and a sister. The funeral was held this afternoon from the family home with a funeral at Oakwood. Austin Statesman, May 20, 1916. Insted by: kb BOYD, John S. Boyd died at his home in Hyde Park last night at 2:30 a.m. J. S. Boyd was born on November 20, 1871, and died On January 22, 1913. He was survived by a wife and five children, four boys and a girl, a father, a mother, two brothers and two sisters and a host of relatives and friends. Funeral services will be held at his home at 2 am on the evening of Jan 23. Austin American, Jan 23, 1913. Dept. of: kb BOYD, Mrs. Louise Annie Gustafson Boyd died Monday night. She has lived in Austin for many years and was a member of the Methodist Church. Survivors include three sons, T.C. Boyd, John D. Boyd, and Emil F. Boyd, all of Austin. The funeral service will be Wednesday at 3:.m p.m. Funeral at Oakwood Cemetery. Austin American, Jan 10, 1950. Posted by: kb BRATTON, Henry E. Bratton, 69, a city employee and resident of Austin since 1910 died at his home Sunday. He is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mrs. Sibbie Ambler, Mrs. Ona Mae Googan, Mrs. Winnie Helk, and a son, C. P. Bratton. The funeral will be at Fiskville Cemetery. Austin American, Mar 22, 1943. Submitted by: kb BULL, The body of R.C. Bull, 90, Confederate veteran who died in the Confederate home early Wednesday was sent to beginners for burial. Austin American, Aug 27, 1931, kb BURDITT, Mr. Jesse F. Burditt died on December 28, 1862 in Arkansas. He leaves behind an elderly mother, a wife and four children. Tri Weekly Newspaper, Jul 21, 1863. Insted by: kb CAMPBELL, Arthur B. Campbell, 76, died at his home, 504 San Antonio, Saturday. He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Miss Norine Campbell, a son, Page Campbell, all of Austin and a sister, Mrs. R.C Pantermuehl in Dallas. Mr. Campbell was born in Austin Nov. 19, 1858 and has lived in Austin virtually all his life. In recent years, he was a bookkeeper for the Waterseal Roof and Tile company. Funeral services will be Sunday at 3.m and funeral will be in Oakwood Cemetery. Pallbearers will be H. E. Wattinger, D. G. Hewitt, H. H. Dickehut, S. W. Redd, John Woosley and M.C Cavett. Austin Paper, Mar 10, 1935. Insted by: kb CAPERTON, Funeral services for the late RS Caperton, who died at his home, 1405 Brazos street Sunday night, will be held First Baptist Church this Tuesday morning at 10 a.m. Interment will be in Oakwood Cemetery under the supervision of the Onion Creek Masonic Lodge. Pallbearers will be J. H. W. Williams, Tom R. Pierce, S. F. Nolan, Billy Wilson, W. D. Miller and Eck Alley. Austin Paper, Mar 23, 1926. Submitted by: kb CARRUTH, Mrs. Sue B. Carruth of Commerce died yesterday in Commerce and was sent to Austin for burial. The funeral was held at The Home of Mr and Mrs Forest Farley and the funeral took place at Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Carruth was the stepmother of Mrs. Farley and lived in Austin for many years. Austin paper, February 27, 1919. Filed by: kb CARTER, the department was closed Monday afternoon at 3 p.m. for the funeral of Sam H. Carter, secretary of state of the State Board of Control, who died suddenly Saturday night. The Board of Control was closed throughout Monday, and the state flag was at half mast in honor of Mr. Carter, who, as a duty to his office, had often caused it to be lowered out of respect for the passing of other officials. The funeral was held at Carter's home, 2510 Wichita Street and the funeral was in Oakwood Cemetery. Hundreds of prominent officials and Austin people were in the funeral procession. Mr Carter was a member of the Hill City lodge and ben Hur Shire. He is survived by his widow and a daughter, Miss Virginia Carter. Pallbearers for the funeral were Sam Sparks, John Payne, W. A. Holland, Hood Pitts, J.M. Edwards and T.M. Scott. Austin Paper, Mar 23, 1926. Insted by: kb CLINGER, Charles Edgar Clinger, 88, died at his residence in 2100 Nueces Wednesday. Mr. Clinger was a pioneer rancher and farmer in Travis County, having moved to this community 70 years ago. He was a former merchant in Clingerville and a track driver. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Laura Clinger, four daughters, Mrs. Albert Johnson, Mrs. W. J. Alsup, Mrs. P. L. Thomas Jr., and Mrs. E. E. Pittman, three sons, N. E. Clinger, R. H. Clinger and Carl E. Clinger. The funeral will be at Oakwood Cemetery. Austin American, Sep 2, 1942. Suspended: cc CLINGER, Funeral services for Mrs. Laura Tate Clinger, 74 who died in a local hospital Thursday will be Friday. The funeral will be in Oakwood. Pallbearers will be Henry Harklereed, Clay Price, Dr.C. E. Cleveland, John D. Miller, Dan Huebner, and H. D. Drown. Austin American Sep 23, 1943. Submitted by: cc DAVIS, Edgar E. Davis of 3505 Manchaca Road, died in Temple Monday. Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Ollie Payne of Austin, and three brothers, DW Davis, U.S. Davis, and T.C Davis all Austin. The funeral service will be Wednesday. Austin American, Jan 10, 1950. Dept. sent in by: kb DAVIS, John R. Davis died in La Feria Tuesday. He was previously a resident of Austin. Funeral service was held in LaFeria Wednesday. , Austin-American, Oct 15, 1932. Submitted by: kb DEATS, Oliver G. Deats, 61, a lifelong resident of Austin, died in Saturday at 7:20 a.m.m. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Florence Deats; a daughter, Miss Katie Deats, and two brothers, E. T. Deats, Jr. and Arnold E. Deats, throughout Austin. Funeral services will be held from the Cook Funeral home Sunday at 4.m with the Rev. James S. Allen of St. David's Episcopal Church officiating. The funeral will be at Oakwood Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Frank Plinget, Jake Hirshfeld, Morris Hirshfeld, Pat Johnson, Ernest Raven and Jimmie Pinget. Austin paper, no date. He died March 9, 1935. Tuned in by: kb DELUNA, Preciliano DeLuna, aged 3 years died early yesterday at the home of his parents, 513 East Second street and the remains were buried yesterday afternoon in Oakwood cemetery. Austin paper, December 1, 1907. Subpoenaed by: KB DI GIACONIO, Funeral services for Mrs. Bertie Lee Di Giaconio, Jr., a former resident of Austin, who died in Woerchester, Ohio, were held at Live Oak Cemetery Wednesday. Mrs. Di Giaconio is survived by her husband, Joe Di Giaconio, Jr., her parents, Mrs. and Mrs. J. W. Hector; three sisters, Mrs. Theodore Powell, Mrs. Pat Langston, Miss Lillie Hector; and three brothers, William Hector, Walter Hector and Louis Hector all of Manchaca. Austin American, Aug 27, 1931, kb DOMINGUEZ, Funeral services for Mrs. Eliza G. Dominguez, 58-year-old wife of the Mexican Consul for the Central District of Texas, will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. .m. Funeral will be in Memorial Park, Austin American, January 10, 1950. Filed by: kb DONNAN, Yesterday morning at 8 pm Nannie Bell Donnan, the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Donnan, died after an illness of several weeks. Funeral services will be held from the family residence, No. 1102 Lavaca Street this afternoon at 4:30 am. The statesman joins the family's friends to express sympathy with the family in their sad moment. Austin Statesman April 22, 1898. Insted by: kb DOZIER, Body of Mrs. Jimmie Gay Dozier was taken to Rosenberg by cook's funeral home Thursd.ay. Services and funeral will be at Rosenberg. Austin American, Nov 25, 1949. Submitted by: ns FACERQUIST, Funeral Services for Mr. John Fagerquist will be held Monday. Pallbearers will be Arthur Olson, C.C. Johnson, Nat Erickson, Hugo Tinglow, Andrew Johnson, Carl Pearson. Funeral will be in Oakwood Cemetery, Austin paper, Aug 2, 1953. Submitted by: kb HALE, Funeral services for Mrs. WR Hale, 72, were Monday with funeral in Austin Memorial Park. Pallbearers were V. E. Taylor, Chester Ayers, Norton Bush, A. J. Wright, Clarence Moberg and Bill Deeg. Austin Statesman, January 9, 1951 p2. Submitted by: kb HALL, Funeral services for Wesley Miles, Jr. will be Sunday from Cook Funeral home. The funeral will be at Oakwood Cemetery. He is survived by his father, Wesley M. Hall, Sr. of Brownwood, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. .C. E. Clinger. Austin American, Aug 17, 1942. Submitted by: (cc) HALL, Wesley Miles Hall, 17, died at a local hospital Sunday. She is survived by her husband Wesley Hall, a young child, her parents Mr. and Mrs.C.E. Clinger, four sisters, Mrs. E. E. Pittman, Mrs. Francis Isherwood, Mrs. Hazel Johnson, Miss Hazel Clinger and three brothers R. H. Clinger, N. E. Clinger and Carl E. Clinger. Interment will be in Oakwood Cemetery. Austin paper, May 13, 1928. Insted by: cc HAMBLY, Henry Logan Hamby, 41 of 20 Red River drowned in the Colorado River Monday night when his boat capsized under the Congress Avenue Bridge. Hamby was alone in the boar at the time of the accident and the drowning occurred at the foot of River Street. Hamby's body was found by the river two hours later. Among the survivors are his parents. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hamby, two brothers Chester Hamby and Ekel Hamby, sister Mrs. F.C. Verrell all Austin and daughter Laverne Logan Hamby of Galveston, Austin American, May 10, 1941, kb HARRELL, Funeral services for Edwin R. Harrell, 42, were held from the residence, 113 West 33rd Street Friday at 4:30 .m Interment was in Oakwood Cemetery under the direction of Hill City Lodge No. 456 , A.F. &A.M. Austin American October 15, 1932. Tuned in by: kb HAUSMAN, Louis G. Hausman, Sr. 78, died at a local hospital Wednesday. Survivors include his widow, two sons, Forrest of Austin and Louis G. Jr. with seabees in the Pacific Ocean, three daughters, Mrs. H. L. Honneld of Stockton, California, Mrs. Bert Lynn of Knoxville, Tenn., and Mrs. H. E. Huntsmann, Fresno, Calif., three brothers, John, Earnest, and Henry Hausman, all of Austin. His parents moved to Austin with his family in 1883 and for a time occupied the original rock house that was later used as the university teahouse. Funeral at Oakwood Cemetery. Austin Paper, Apr 19, 1945. Insted by: kb HERTEL, Mrs Auguste Hertel, aged 90 years, died at an early hour yesterday morning after a lingering illness at the home of her son and daughter, Mr and Mrs August Ziller, 506 West Fourteenth Street. She was born in Germany and came to Texas when a fairly young woman, and for the last fifty years has made her home in this town, sees it grow from a small village. Austin paper, December 1, 1907. Submitted by: kb HIRSHFIELD, Funeral services for Jake Hirshfield were to be held Thursday afternoon at the residence, 303 West Ninth Street. Pallbearers will be Dr. Will E. Watt, William J. Koen, Dennis Macken, George Leacy, Theo David, Victor Bragg, Edward Robinson, William K. Miller, Harry Bickler, Gene Bartholomew, Walter Fisher, Ervin Joseph and Louis Goldberg. Funeral at Beth Israel-Oakwood Cemetery. Austin Paper, Apr 20, 1945. Insted by: kb HODGE, Gary Hodge, 2, son of Mr and Mrs Edde Hodge, 4403 Maybelle Street, died at his home Friday at 10.45am.m after a short illness. The body is at Weed-Corley Funeral Home. Funeral services are tentatively cancelled Sunday. Austin American, Nov 26, 1949. Submitted by: ns. HORNBERGER, Funeral services for Mrs. Ella Hornberger were held from the Cook funeral home Friday at 2.m with the Rev. Daniel F. Grieder officiating. Pallbearers were Will H. Folts, W. Gillespie Stacy, A. N. McCallum Jr., Paul Hornberger, Arthur , and Charles G. Blassel, Interment was in Oakwood Cemetery, Austin-American, Oct. 15, 1932. Insted by: kb HUPPERTZ, Funeral services for Mrs Agnes Steine Huppertz, 80 who died in Auburn Ala, last Saturday will be held Tuesday. The funeral will be at Oakwood Cemetery. Pall carriers will be Howard P. Steine, J. Henry Steine, Jr. Charles Trenckmann, Ernest F. Huppertz, Eugene L. Meyer and Theodore P. Meyer, Jr. Austin paper Jan. 6, 1941. Submitted by: kb JACOBSEN, Funeral Services for Frederick August Jacobsen, who died here Friday night at the age of 62, will be from his home, 1613 Sabine street. Interment will be in Oakwood Cemetery. Pallbearers will be William Ulit, J. Bassett Nitschke, G. A. Gahline, I.C. McIntyre, B. W. Spaeth and Werner Palmkniez. Austin paper, no date. He died on December 16, 1907. Posted by: kb JAEGER, William Jaeger, 87, died at his home on Manchaca Road, Friday. He's made Austin his home for the last 10 years. He is survived by his grandson, Mrs. Marvin Arnold from Austin. The body is at Wilke Funeral Home awaiting funeral arrangements. Austin American, Nov 25, 1949. Submitted by: ns. JOHNSON, Funeral services for Mrs. Johanna Johnson, 85, will be held from residence Sunday. Interment will be at Oakwood Cemetery. She is survived by a number of nieces and nephews. Austin Statesman, December 8, 1934. KB JOHNSON, Mrs. Henry Johnson, 87, died at her home, 2404 Lake Austin Boulevard Friday. She was born in Gavale, Sweden, and came to this country at 22. She is survived by six daughters, Mrs. W. W. Hearn, Mrs.C A. Hearn, Mrs. Bertha Harris, Miss Grace Johnson and Mrs. Clyde Shipp, all of Austin and Mrs. S. E. Golden of Port Arthur; five sons, Frank Johnson, Edward Johnson, Will Johnson, H.C. Johnson Jr. and Travis Johnson, all over Austin. The funeral will be held at Weed-Corley Funeral Home Saturday at 3.m with Dr. Frederick E. Brooks officiating. The funeral will be in Memorial Park. Austin American, Nov 26, 1949. Submitted by: ns. Johnson, funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 2 p.m. for W. A. Johnson, 80. Interment was at Oakwood Cemetery. Survivors include the widow and eight children and a sister. Austin American, Dec 1926. kb KRIMME, The funeral cortege for Carl Krimme, who died Wednesday afternoon, left Friday afternoon for dessau cemetery where services will be held later in the afternoon, Austin Statesman, Apr 23, 1926 p9. Insted by: KB LEARY, Mrs. J.C. Leary, former Miss Olivia principal of Manor, died in Fort Worth Wednesday. She had lived in Alvarado for a number of years. Mrs. Leary is her husband J.C Leary of Alvarado; two daughters, four sisters, Mrs. W.M. Koonce of Boyd, Mrs. W. E. Allison and Mrs. W. H. Penland of Austin and Wife . B H. Anderson from The Mansion; two brothers W. R. Principal, of N.M. and J.M. Principal of the mansion. The funeral will be at Manor Cemetery. Austin American, Aug 28, 1931, kb LIMBERG, Mrs. Johannah Limberg, 86 years, died in her home, 2000 University avenue Friday. She was born in Herford, Germany on October 23, 1839. She is survived by seven children, Miss Gertrude Becker and Fred Becker of Austin, Mrs. Carl Grau of Taylor, Carl Becker of Neb., Harry Limberg of El Paso, William and Emelia Limberg of Austin. Burial will be in oakwood cemetery, Austin paper , April 3, kb LOCKETT, L.M. Lockett, 59, a former resident of Hutto, died in Corpus Christi Friday. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Lockett of Corpus Christi, a daughter, Mrs. Herbert Rand and a grandson, Herbert Rand, Jr. of El Paso, four brothers, C. E. Lockett, Kansas, J. H. Lockett, Beaumont, C. D. Lockett, Corpus Christi, two sisters, Mrs. .B D. Ford, Corpus Christi, Mrs. H. A. Farley, Hutto, Mr. Lockett was the son of the late Rev. S.C. Interment was at Oakwood Cemetery. Austin Paper, Dec 30, 1933. Tuned in by: kb LOVING, Robert Jesse Loving who died in Cleburne Tuesday, November 26 and whose remains were taken to Austin and interred in the Oakwood cemetery next to the grave of his brother was born in Flavanna county, Virginia, on May 29, 1848. He married Miss Ella Williams of Missouri, who died in 1872 and left a sneeze daughter. Austin paper, December 1, 1907. Submitted by: kb LUNDELIUS, A. E. Lundelius, 68, died at his home, 5510 West 33rd Street, yesterday afternoon after a lingering illness. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ida Lundelius&amp; four daughters, Annie, Signe, and Bertha Foster, Austin and Mrs Olga Seth. Stanford and five sons, Carl and Oscar, Austin&amp;G. R. and Ernest, Round Rock and Roland, Houston. Austin American Sep 19, 1929, kb MAAS, Mrs. Clara Maas, 94, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Kluge, 1801 San Gabriel, Sunday. Mrs. Maas came to Austin at the age of 8 as an early settler. Her husband, Captain Max Maas, also moved to Austin many years ago but has been dead more than a quarter of a century She is survived by two sons, Louis Maas of Dallas and Will Maas of Fort Worth; Five daughters, Mrs. Charles Kluge, Mrs. . C H. Page and Mrs. Rose Posey of Austin, Mrs. J. E. Farnsworth and Mrs. W. W. Vaughn of Calif.; 12 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. Services will be from Page Home and Funeral in Oakwood Cemetery. Austin Paper, Oct 23, 1939. Insted by: kb MARTIN, Mrs. Martha Martin, wife of Lon Martin, died Wednesday at her home at 907 South Congress Avenue. She is survived by her husband, son Zeno and daughter Johanna. Interment took place at Oakwood Austin paper, February 27, 1919. Insted by: kb MCDONALD, Mrs. Alice McDonald, 76, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Thompson. Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. W.J. Thompson of Austin and Mrs. Oliver T. Bristow of Joplin, Mo. Private funeral will be conducted Friday at 2.m at the Week-Corley Funeral Home with Dr. Edmund Heinsohn officiating. The funeral will be in Memorial Park. Austin American, Nov 25, 1949. Submitted by: ns MCDOWELL, funeral services for Miss Paralee McDowell will be held Saturday at 2pm .m. Interment will be in Oakwood Cemetery. Austin-American, Oct 15, 1932. Submitted by: KB MCKENZIE, Mrs Fannie Romines McKenzie, 55, died at her home in Elgin Monday. The funeral was at Manor Cemetery. Surviving Mrs. McKenzie is her husband, W.M. McKenzie; two daughters, Mrs. Ed Lytle and Miss Elsie McKenzie; four sons, William, Arthur, Dave and Dan McKenzie, all of Elgin. Two sisters, Mrs. M. L. Bowdoin of Austin, and Mrs. James Standfield of Elgin and three brothers Dan Romines of Houston, Charles Romines of Staples and James Romines of Sour Lake, Austin American Aug 27, 1931, kb MCWHORTER, Mrs. Gracie I. McWhorter, 55, died at a local hospital early Sunday morning. She is survived by her husband, John D. McWhorter, two daughters, Mrs. Joe Fults, and Mrs. Milton Messer, a son, Pvt. John D. McWhorter, and her mother Mrs. Bean. The funeral will be in Iola, Texas. Insted by: kb MILLER, Forrest L. Miller, 68, a resident of Austin and an employee of the Austin Post Office for many years, died at his home in Pasadena, California, Saturday. He is survived by his widow Eva Miller, seven daughters, a son and several grandchildren, all in Pasadena, California. A son Carl Miller, of Austin, two sisters, Mrs. JF Richardson, and Mrs. Frank Vasques, a brother, Liberty F. Miller, throughout Austin. Funeral services will be held in Pasadena Calif. Austin American, Mar 22, 1943. P 2. Filed by: cc MILLER, Funeral Services for Kk (Kinney) Miller, 50, who died in his home, will be held Sunday. Interment will be in Oakwood. Surviving Mr. Miller is his widow, a daughter, Clella Miller, four brothers, Charley, Forrest, Buck and L. F. Miller, two sisters, Mrs. Frank Vasquez and Mrs. J. F. Richardson, Austin Statesman, Apr 24, 1926 p2. Insted by: cc MILLER, O. L. (Buck) Miller, 65 died at his home Saturday. Survivors include his widow, two daughters, Misses Edna and Erin Miller, three sons, Dee Miller, Belton Miller and David Miller, two sisters, Mrs. J. F. Richardson, and Mrs. Frank Vasquez, two brothers, L. F. Miller and F. L. Miller. Funeral services are Sunday with funeral in Greenwood Cemetery on Del Valle Road. Austin American-Statesman, Aug 15, 1937 p4. Inserted by: cc MILLER, Paul Miller aged about 27, a clerk in the post office, drowned last night after attending a swimming party at Deep Eddy. It is assumed that he was trying to save friend who also drowned in the river. Mr. Miller lived in Austin all his life. The body was taken away to his father W. K. Miller's residence where the funeral will be held today. In addition to his father and mother he is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Fred Richardson, Mrs. Hugh Smith and Mrs. S. Smith, five brothers, Kenneth, Archer, Liberty, Charley and Forest Miller. Austin Statesman, Aug 17, 1913. Insted by: cc MILLER, The Body of R. T. Miller III, son of Mrs. Virginia Miller and the late R. T. Miller will arrive in Austin Friday. In addition to his mother, he is survived by his brother, Alfred (Buddy) Miller. Funeral will be Sunday and funeral will be in Memorial Park. Austin American, Apr 16, 1948. Insted by: kb MILLER, The funeral of MK Miller, 81 years, will be held Sunday morning at 10 am from 822 West Tenth Street, from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Richardson. Burial will be done in Oakwood Cemetery under Masonic protection. The Pallbearers are John O. Johnson, Judge David Pickle, P. W. Powell, Fred Sterzing, John Wallace, W. S. Wilson. Austin Paper, Mar 1917. Closed down: kb MORROW, Funeral Services for Louis M. Morrow was held at Hytlin-Manor Funeral Home Thursday afternoon with Minister Jess Hall of the Northside Church of Christ officiating. The funeral was in Memorial Park. Austin American, Nov 25, 1949. Submitted by: ns. MICKEY, Funeral services for John S. Mussett, 85, who died at the family home, 1803 South First Street, Friday. Services will be Saturday. Interment will be in the Rock Church cemetery at Walnut Creek. He is survived by his widow, six sons, Ben, T., John S. Jr., G.B., W.D., Tom and T.C. Mussett of Austin. Four daughters, Mrs. Burton Morris and Mrs. T.B. Scantlin of Dripping Springs, Mrs. J. H. Ayers and Mrs. J. O. Bratton of Austin, two sisters Mrs. Polly Mayfield of Dallas and Mrs. Fred Boutall of Austin, Austin, 30, 1933. Submitted by: kb NELLE, Dora Lohmann Nelle. 9/3/1850-2/20/1915 Mrs. Henry Nelle, 64, died Rose Hill, 3 mi. north of Manor. Survived by daughters, Mrs. Ed. Meier of the manor, Mrs. Ed. Thiele of Austin, Mrs. Fred Nuenschwander of Pflugerville, and Mrs. Otto Reinke, Baylor County; Sons, John Nelle of Karnes Co., C.C., Herbert, James F. Nelle of Travis Co., Joe H. Nelle, Caldwell Co., Willie Nelle, La Selle [sic] Co.; sister, Mrs. Earnest Maul, Austin; brothers, Albert Lohman [sic] of Leander, John Lohman of Eldorado, August Lohman of Red Springs, Will Lohman of Pebble, Kerr Co.; and thirty-two grandchildren. Newspaper Feb, 1915. Insted by: tw NELSON, Carl A. Nelson died yesterday afternoon on the corner of Fifteenth Street and Congress Avenue from a tumor in his tongue. The remains will be forwarded by Undertaker Rosengren in the morning to Palm Valley for interment. Austin Paper, Mar 31, 1907. Submitted by: kb NUCKOLS, Funeral services for Mrs. Nuckols will be Sunday and funeral will be in Boggy Cemetery. Pallbearers will be past the patrons of the Eastern Star. American-Statesman, Aug 15, 1937, p4. Trapped off: kb OLIPHANT, Alfred William Oliphant, 75, life-time resident of Austin and member of an Austin pioneer family, died Friday morning at his home, 1800 Colorado. For many years, Oliphant was affiliated with the McKean Eilers Company. Funeral will be held at Weed-Corley Funeral Home Sunday at 3.m with Rev. Charles Summers officiating. The funeral will be at Oakwood Cemetery. Oliphant was a member of St. David's Episcopal Church and was for several years a vestryman. He was also a member of Hill City Lodge No. 456 of the Masonic Order. His grandfather, the late William Oliphant, moved to Austin in 1852. Survivors include his widow, wife Susan Elizabeth Askew Oliphant, Austin; a daughter, Miss Elizabeth Ann Oliphant of Kingsville: a son, Lieutenant Commander Alfred W. Oliphant Jr., USNR, Dallas; a brother Lawrence E. Oliphant of Evanston, Ill. and a sister, Mrs. Walter Prescott Webb of Austin. Honorary pallbearers will be members of the Hill City Lodge and faculty men &camp; In College in Kingsville. Austin American, Saturday, November 22, 1952, pA-13, Submitted by: cwp OLIPHANT, W.J. Oliphant, 85, who died Tuesday night, will be buried Thursday. Mr. Oliphant came to Austin in 1852 and had lived here ever since. He was born in Indiana on September 30, 1845. On February 8, 1877, he married Miss Alice Townsend. At the age of 15, he joined the Confederate Army and served through the Civil War in Company G, Sixth Texas Infantry, Pat Cleburne's Division. He was an active member of Austin Lodge No. 12, A.. F. &amp; A., M., for many years and was the oldest former commander in the state in service. He was employed in the Travis County Tax Assessor's office for many years. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. W. P. Webb of Austin; three sons, A. W. Oliphant of Austin, L. E. Oliphant of Chicago and W. J. Oliphant of Dallas; a sister, Mrs. Jennie Stuart of Austin, and a brother-in-law, A. W. Townsend of Austin. Dallas Morning News, electronic, Nov 13, 1930, Sec I, p 3. Submitted by: cwp OLIPHANT, W. J. Oliphant, 85. Born Alabama, September 30, 1845, came to Austin from Indiana in 1852. Served CSA throughout the war in Co G, 6th Texas Inf., Pat Cleburnes Div. Member, Austin Lodge 12, A.F. &amp; A.M. Survivors: Daughter, Mrs. W. P. Webb, Austin; three sons, A. W. of Austin, L.E. of Chicago, W.J. of Dallas; sister, Mrs. Jennie Stuart of Austin; brother-in-law, A.W. Townsend of Austin. Austin American, Nov 12, 1930.Submitted by: cwp OLIPHANT, William James Oliphant III, 29, earlier in Dallas, died June 25 in Los Angeles, California, after a long illness. He was the son of the late W. J. and Valera Oliphant of Dallas. He went to school in Dallas and Grand Prairie and had lived in Los Angeles before. Years. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Jane Street of Dallas; brother, Sergeant John Robert Oliphant of Norfolk, Va.; five uncles and five aunts, two nephews and a niece. Funeral service will be held Saturday at 10.m from Lamar &amp; Smith Funeral Chapel. Rev. Jasper Manton of trinity Presbyterian Church will officiate. The funeral will be in Laurel Land Memorial Park. Pallbearers will be B. F. Whitley, John Treveno, J. W. Whitley, Bill Vodiako, C. D. Holland, J. A. Martin, Bob Shipman and John Abrams. Dallas Morning News, Jun 27, 1952, Sec: In Page 11. Suspended: cwp OLIPHANT, -William James Oliphant, 53, died at the local hospital Sunday. Survived by wife, daughter, Jane Oliphant; two sons, William J. Jr., Los Angeles, Calif. John R., United States Marine; a sister, Mrs. W. P. Webb; two brothers, L.E. and Alfred Oliphant. Services 4 .m Tuesday Lamar &amp; Smith Chapel, Rev. Jasper Manton Officiating. Interment Laurel Land. Dallas Morning News, electronic., Sep 14, 1943. Sec H, p 10 Submitted by: cwp OLIPHANT. Mrs Alice Olive Oliphant, died June 23, 1908. Born Dec.15, 1852, Vienna, Jackson Parish, LA. Daughter of Alfred and Nancy Townsend. Moved to Independence TX, 1867, to Austin in 1874, married W.J. Oliphant, Feb. 8, 1877. Member of the Methodist Church since 1883. Survived by husband, four children, Alfred W., Austin; Lawrence E., Indianapolis; Ms. Janey and W.J. Jr. of Austin; Sisters, Mrs. Charles P. Truslow of New Orleans, and Miss Mildred J. Townsend of Austin; brother, Albert W. Townsend of Austin. N N of P, No date. Insted by: cwp OSBURN, William C. Osburn, 72, died at his home near Creedmore Monday, he is survived by his widow Mrs Zelma Dillon Osburn, four daughters Mrs. Elizabeth Barrett, Mrs Agnes McGinnis, Mrs Vern Stephenson, two sons, Douglas Osburn and Luke Osburn. Arrangements will be announced later. Austin American, Mar 22, 1943. Submitted by: kb PAGE, C. H. Page. Sr. died at 4:10 a.m. No. 710 West Twenty Fourth Street at age 63. He is survived by two daughters, wife A.B Campbell of Austin, and wife R. J. Curtsinger of San Angelo; two sons C. H. Page, Jr. and L.C. of Austin. Austin paper, October 6, 1957. Submitted by: kb PATTERSON, Funeral services for James J. (Shack) Patterson's life long-time resident of Austin and Spanish War veteran will be held Monday at 5:30 p.m. The funeral will be at Oakwood Cemetery under the supervision of the Spanish War veterans. Austin Paper, Sep 14, 1942. Submitted by: kb PEARSON, funeral services for Mrs. Mary Evelyn Pearson will be held at Wilke's Chapel of the Bell Friday at 9:30 .m. With the Rev. O. G. Barrow, pastor of Rosedale Baptist Church, officiating. The funeral will be at the Baghdad Cemetery at Leander. Pallbearers will be J.M. Hazelwood, D.C. Perry, B.B Compton, B. F. Davis, H. H. Helf and A. F. Hunt. Austin American, Nov 25, 1949. by: ns PENDLETON, Private funeral for Mrs. Rebecca N. Pendleton, 75, will be from the residence of her daughter Mrs. Lelia P. Grant Friday. Interment will be in Oakwood Cemetery. Austin Statesman, Apr 23, 1926 p9. Filed by: kb PESCHKA, Funeral services for August H. Peschka, 65 who died at a local hospital early Friday morning, will be held from the Cook Funeral home at 3 .m Sunday. The funeral will be at Oakwood Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Theo O. Meyer, Sr. Theo P. Meyer, Jr. Eugene Meyer, BN.M. Mayer, Theo Kneip and Alfred Peschka. Austin Paper, Dec 14, 1940. Insted by: kb RAATZ, Mrs. Emily Raatz's wife of Mr. Rudolph H. Raatz died an early hour Friday morning. Funeral from the family residence at 1107 East Thirteenth Street this (Sunday) afternoon. Interment Oakwood Cemetery. Austin paper, Mar 15, 1908. Submitted by: kb REESE, AJ Reese, pioneer resident of Austin and Travis county, died at his home at 803 West 21st Street. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Ann Reese, and three daughters, Mrs. J. E. Murff of Dallas, Mrs. . B.C Sibley and Miss Alva Reese in Austin and four grandchildren. The funeral will be at the Masonic cemetery. Austin American, Aug 27, 1931, kb REESE, Funeral services for VA Reese will be held at the Presbyterian Church in Gonzales Friday at 2.m with Rev. J. Kelley Neal officiating. Funeral will be in the Masonic cemetery under the direction of Cook Funeral Home. Austin American, Nov 25, 1949. Suspended in the city of REYNOLDS, William F. Reynolds, a resident of Austin in recent months, died in a local hospital early Friday. Survivors are a daughter, Mrs. Velma Reynolds of Altus, Okla. The body has been sent to San Saba by Cook Funeral Home for services there. Austin American, Nov 26, 1949. Tuned in by: ns RICHARDSON, funeral services for Mrs Nancy Alice Richardson, 75, will be held from cook funeral home Saturday at 10.m with rev.C.M Ashmore and Rev H.C Garrison officiating. Interment will be in Oakwood Cemetery. Pallbearers will be F. J. Counts, S. E. Hays, Scott Yeamans, Louis Ramalls, R.C. Wilson and John Rosengren. Austin-American, Oct 15, 1932. Insted by: kb RICHARDSON, J. W. Richardson, a well-known citizen of Austin for many years died early Sunday morning in Dallas, Texas after an illness of several weeks. He is survived by his wife and four children, including a brother and a sister. The remains will be brought to Austin, arriving at 4 a.m this Monday, and will be taken to the residence of his son, Fred Richardson, at 822 West Tenth street. The funeral party will leave the residence at 1.m and the funeral and funeral will be held at Barton Cemetery, near Buda at 2.30pm. Austin-American, Jan 10, 1921. Suspended: kb RICHARDSON, John Frederick Richardson, 76, of 1707 Alameda Drive died in a local hospital Tuesday night. He lived in Travis County. Funeral services will be held He is survived by a son, Lamar Richardson of Austin, a daughter, Mrs. Lillian Boyd of Austin, two sisters, Mrs. E. F. Huppertz and W. V. Russell of Austin, and four grandchildren and a great-grandchild. Funeral arrives in Austin Memorial Park Cemetery. Austin-American, Dec 7, 1955. Trapped: kb RICHARDSON, Mrs. Marcia Lucinda Richardson, 66, a lifetime resident of Austin and a member of the South Austin Christian Church, died in a local hospital Thursday afternoon. She is survived by her husband, J.J. Richardson, a son, Lamar Richardson, and a daughter Mrs. Emil Boyd, all over Austin. Funeral services will be held in Wilke Chapel Saturday with a funeral in Memorial Park. Austin- American, Mar 21, 1950. Submitted by: kb RIMASSA, Mrs. G. W. Rimassa, 76, 119 Furnish Ave., died Thursday, August 7. Survived by sons George W. and John Weller Rimassa and niece Mrs. DD Smith, Sr. Services Friday 10 AM Zizik-Kearns Funeral Home Rev. William T. Sherwood of Episcopal Church officiating. Interment in the San Jose Funeral Park. San Antonio Express, 1 classifieds, Friday, August 8, 1947.Submitted by: cwp RODGERS, Charlie Rodgers, 90, died in the Confederate home Monday afternoon. The remains were sent to Moody Monday night for burial. Austin Statesman, 11 Dec 1934, kb ROWLAND, Robert Andrew Rowland was born on November 16, 1853 in Lofus, Cleveland, England. He was licensed to preach in the primitive Methodist Church in 1877 and continued to be active in its ministry for twelve years until he came to America. Despite this, he married Miss Eliza Bulmer from Stokesley, Yorkshire. To them were born six children who together with their widow survive him. They are Mesdame's Elizabeth Wallis and E S Garner of Austin; Rev. J. W. Rowland of Comfort, a member of the West Texas one-year conference; P R of Uvalde; A B and A T of Austin. He passed to his heavenly home September 21 in Austin, Texas..... From TX Methodist Centennial yearbook 1894-1934. Insted by: RS RUTLEDGE, Mrs. Ettie C. Rutledge, for many years a resident of Austin, died unexpectedly yesterday morning in Chicago, at the age of 72. The body is brought to Austin for interment, by the rejected son, W.S. Carter of Chicago, who is national president of the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen. Mrs. Rutledge came to Austin in the forties of the last century and lived here until the nineties, since then she has lived in Illinois. She was the daughter of William Oliphant, deceased, and a sister of W. J. Oliphant and Mrs. Jennie Stuart of Austin. W.L. Carter of Austin is a grandson. Austin Daily Statesman, Saturday, January 2, 1915. Filed by: cwp SANDERS, John W. Sanders, 93, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs.M J. Cox of Covville. He has lived in Covville for the last 10 years. He married Sallie Elizabeth Terry of Bonham in 1881. Mrs. Sanders died in July 1940. He was member of the Church of Christ. Survivors besides Mrs. Cox are Mrs. Blanch Whipple of Arizona and Mrs. Grace McCartney, San Francisco, California; two sons, Claude L. Sanders, Paramount, California, and Omer L. Sanders, Santa Paula, California. The body is at Weed-Corley Funeral Home and funeral arrangements are awaiting the arrival of out-of-town relatives. The funeral will be in Denton. Austin American, Nov 25, 1949. Tuned in by: ns SANDERS, Miss Bleuford Sanders aged about 24 drowned last night at Deep Eddy. Her body was recovered at 11.30am and attempts to revive her failed. She was born in Austin and lived with her sister Mrs Ella Hill. She had good contact with the younger community. Her father was a reef. B.B Sanders, deceased. Two other sisters Mrs. Cain, Mrs. Moseley and a brother Bradford survive. Funeral will be done at Oakwood. Austin Statesman, Aug 17, 1913. Submitted by: kb SANDERS, The Body of John W. Sanders, 92, will be at Weed-Corley Funeral Home until Saturday when it will be sent to Denton for the funeral service Sunday at 4.m. The funeral will be at Oddfellows Cemetery in Denton. Austin American, Nov 26, 1949. Tuned in by: ns SCHENCK, August Schenck, confectionery salesman and resident of Austin virtually all his life, died in his home, 1604 West eighth, Wednesday. Schenck was a member of W.O.W. and Saengerunde. Survivors include his widow and four sisters, Mrs. Sophia Wyschetcki of San Antonio, Mrs. E. F. Hertzberg of San Antonio, Mrs. Eleanor Burkhardt of Pennsylvania and Mrs. Johanna Hallman of Vermont. Services will be Thursday with burial in Oakwood Cemetery. Austin Paper, Apr 4, 1940. Submitted by: kb SCHUTZE, Funeral services for Mrs. Frieda M. Schutze, 64, wife of Adolf Schutze, who died in a local hospital at 11.30.m Wednesday, will be from the residence, 1907 Colorado at 5. m. Thursday. The funeral will be in Oakwood. She was born in Austin on September 29, 1875. In addition to her husband, she is survived by two daughters, Miss Louise Schutze and Mrs. Margaret Sharp; a sister, Mrs. J. H. Steidle; two brothers, Theo P. Meyer of Austin and Louis P. Meyer of Kerney, N.J. and a granddaughter, Carolyn Sharp. Austin Paper, May 16, 1940. Insted by: kb SHEPPARD, Funeral service for James J. Sheppard, 59, who died suddenly at his home Thursday, was held Friday. Interment was at Boggy Cemetery. Mrs. Sheppard is survived by her widow, two sons, Joe E. and Jess Sheppard, two sisters, Mrs. J. A. Reese and Mrs. L. Campbell, two brothers, Jess and George Sheppard. Austin Statesman, April 23, 1926, p9. Submitted by: kb SIBLEY, Andrew J. Sibley, 21 years living at 98 Red River, was a stenographer in the office of C. H. Page and Brother architects. He died as a result of the overturning of a boat on Lake Austin Sunday afternoon. Sibley drowned trying to save George Boyd. He is the son of the late Dr. A. J. from Creedmore. He survived by mother, Mrs F.B Sibley. E. E. Sibley and Clarence Sibley of Austin, brothers; Ms. Pearl Sibley and Miss Ruby Sibley of Austin, Mrs. Stephen F. Austin of Del Valle, a sister L. A. Sibley of Dallas and S. S. S. Sibley of Tulsa, Okla. The funeral will be held Tuesday. Austin Statesman, May 20, 1916. Tuned in by: kb SMITH, Mrs Alice Smith died at her residence on State Street yesterday morning and the remains were forward for interment to Kosse by Undertaker Rosengren. Austin Paper, Mar 31, 1907. Dept. of: kb SMITH, Funeral services for John Thomas Smith, 52, were held Wednesday. The funeral was at Fitzhugh Cemetery. Mr Smith was found shot on the outskirts of Ramsey Nursery in Hyde Park Tuesday at 3pm .m and died at Brackendrick. Mr. Smith is survived by his widow, two daughters Ethel Smith and Mamie Lynn Smith and a son J.B Smith, his father El Smith in Austin; four sisters, Mrs. Roy Elsey and Mrs. Joe Clayton of Austin, Mrs. D. R. Robertson of Dallas, Mrs. Tom Norman of Bertram and two brothers, Chas E. Smith and A. W. Smith of Austin. Austin American, Aug 27, 1931, kb SMITH, Ralph Hugh Smith died at a local hospital Monday He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Annie L. Smith, a daughter, Mrs. F. Widerstrom, and his stepfather Frank Vasquez, and two brothers, P. H. Smith and C. E. Smith. Services will be Wednesday and the funeral will be in Oakwood. Austin Statesman, January 9, 1951 p2. Insted by: cc ST. JOHN, Funeral services for Mrs. Mary St. John, 44, were held from the Cook Funeral home Friday at 10.m with the Rev. J.R. Hillard and rev. T. N. Barton officiating. Pallbearers were W. H. Hargraves, Joe Byrne, Tom Rabb, Earl Cooper, Buster Cooper and Alfred Dye. Interment was at Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. St. John is survived by her husband, E. A. St. John, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Talley, in Austin. Austin paper, no date. She died March 15, 1933. Submitted by: kb STECK, Gustav J. Steck, 57 years of age died yesterday at his home in this city, 1006 West Tenth street, after a short illness. He lived in this city for the past seventeen years and one of the prominent citizens, a leading member of the Christian Church and editor and publisher of the Firm Foundation, a publication of the Christian Church. He was widely known and stood tall in esteem of all who knew him. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning from the family home and the funeral will be in Oakwood Cemetery. All arrangements for the funeral are not yet ready. Austin Journal, Mar 31, 1907. Filed by: kb STEELE, funeral services for Jack Steele were held at Capital Memorial Park Thursday under the supervision of Austin Lodge No. 12 AF &amp; Imperial. Services were under the direction of cook's funeral home. Austin American, Nov 25, 1949. Insted by: ns STROMBERG, Mrs. Adelina Stromberg, 93, prominent Austin resident for more than 73 years, died family home, 1605 West Sixth Street, Monday. Mrs. Stromberg was born in Asenhoga, Smoland, Sweden, on March 4, 1850 and came to Austin, 10 Dec 1870. June 8, 1872, she was married to Richard E. Stromberg, the Austin businessman, who preceded her in death March 13, 1908. Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. E. W. Raney of Lockhart, Mrs. Sarah Mogi of Los Angeles, Cal. and Miss Ingie Stromberg of Austin, a son, H. P. Stromberg of Lockhart; 11 grandchildren and a number of great-grandchildren. Funeral services will be Wednesday at 1.m. The funeral will be in Oakwood. Austin Paper, Jan 11, 1944. Insted by: kb STROMBERG, Nele R. Stromberg 65 died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Adeline Stromberg, 1605 West Sixth Street, Thursday night. Mr. Stromberg was born in Austin October 2, 1874 but moved to Him Wells county 25 years ago where he has been engaged in ranching making his home the past few years in Alice. Survivors include his widow, two daughters, Misses Inge and Louise Stromberg of Alice; his mother Mrs. Adeline Stromberg of Austin; three sisters, Mrs. Sarah Mogi, Van Nuys, Cal., Miss Inge Stromberg of Austin, Mrs. Ada Raney of Lockhart; and a brother H. P. Stromberg of Lockhart. Interment will be in Oakwood Cemetery. Austin Paper, Mar 6, 1939. Filed by: kb STROMBERG, R. E. Stromberg died Friday morning, March 13, 8:30 a.m. at his home at 1008 East Fourteenth Street. He was born in Sweden where he was born on November 4, 1844. He was a drug gist by profession and has lived in Austin for several years, working for various druggist in the city. He is survived by a number of relatives. Funeral from the Swedish Lutheran Church, corner Sextone and Congress Avenue this (Sunday) afternoon at 2 pm. Interment Oakwood Cemetery. Austin paper, Mar 15, 1908. Insted by: kb STUART, Funeral services for Mrs. Jennie Stuart, pioneer resident of Austin, were held from Cook Funeral Home Friday with the Rev. Luther Norman officiating. Pallbearers were six of her grandchildren. Interment was at Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Stuart was born in Indiana in 1842 and came to Austin with her parents at the age of four. She was the widow of Captain J. A. Stuart, Justice of the Peace for many years. Mrs. Stuart is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Alice Thompson of Dallas and Mrs. G. W. Rimassa of San Antonio; also, a number of grandchildren, Mrs. Daniel D. Smith and Mrs. Ray Sedwick of Austin, John M. Stuart of Norfolk, Va., Charles Stuart of San Francisco, Everett Stuart who is now in foreign waters, and W.M Stuart, sergeant of the Austin Motorcycle Police. Austin Statesman, Friday, April 10, 1931, p. 15. Insted by: cwp STUART, Services for Sgt. William M. Stuart, 29, head of the motorcycle squadron of the city's police force will be held Tuesday from cook funeral home at 4:30 p.m. with rev. George Green officiating. Stuart is survived by his widow, two children, Billy Ferne, and a sister of Mrs. Daniel D. Smith of Austin and three brothers, C. E. Stuart of Austin, Jno.M. Stuart and E. E. Stuart both in the U.S. Navy and unable to be here. The Stuarts who lived at 633 Patterson had just finished a home at 1711 W. Sixth. Austin American Statesman, 1, 8, October 17, 1933. Insted by: cwp STUART, W. Murray Weimar, We don't know when we felt sadder than we did Wednesday morning at receiving a letter from a heartbroken father of the death of his little son, and our pet. The following is the announcement: Died, in Austin, Texas, Feb. 24, 1883, of pneumonia, W. Murray, eldest son of J. A. and Jennie Stuart, aged 7 years, 2 months and 9 days. Colorado Nationals, Mar 1, 1883. Tuned in by: cwp SWENSON, Funeral Services for Mrs Annie Marie Swenson, who died at the family home, at 1301 East 22nd Street, Thursday after a long illness will be held from the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Paul Swenson, 1103 East 23rd Street, this Saturday morning at 10am. Interment will be at Oakwood Cemetery. Mrs. Swenson is survived by her husband F. G. Swenson, three daughters: Mrs. Carl Dahlstrom, Mrs. Etta Swenson, and Mrs. Paul Swenson, and five sons, Emil, Theodore, Fred, Arthur and Robert Swenson, as well as 27 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. Three sisters and a brother survive her too. Mrs. A. Sponberg, mrs. C. A. Johnson, Mrs. N. Houser and J.C. Sjöberg all of Manor. Austin American Dec 1926, kb SWENSON, F. G. Swenson 82, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs.C Dahlstrom, on barton springs road at 7 o'clock. He was born in Sweden 7 Feb 1847, came to Texas in 1870 and has made his home here ever since. He was one of the few who founded the Decker Swedish Methodist Church. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. C Dahlström, Austin; Mrs. Etta Swenson, Austin; Mrs. Paul O. Swenson, Austin; five sons Emil Swenson, San Antonio; F. G. Swenson Jr., Austin; Fred Swenson, Austin, A. D. Swenson, Kenedy and Robert Swenson, Manor and an adopted son Eugene Sjöberg, Austin and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Austin American, Sep 9, 1929, kb SWENSON, Funeral Services for Gus Arthur Swenson, 60, was held Monday. The funeral was in Memorial Park. Austin American, Jan 10, 1950. Submitted by: kb SWISHER, John Milton Swisher. The builder of the Austin Street Railway, Colonel Swisher who died last night at 3 o'clock of heart failure, was one of the pioneer citizens of Austin. He was born in Tennessee on the 31st day of May 1819 and moved to Texas with his family in 1833. On the first day of March, he joined the army. He participated in the Battle of San Jacinto on April 21, is not quite seventeen. He was later appointed Finance Minister. Colonel Swisher has been married three times. His first wife was Miss Maria Sims, she died in 1870. In 1873, he married Miss Nettie A. Nickerson, who died in 1875. I he married his current wife Mrs Bella French. March 11, 1891. Submitted by: thm. SWISHER, Mrs. Elizabeth Swisher, whose funeral was celebrated yesterday by a large hall gathered about her grave, died Sunday at noon, in seventy-seventh years of her age. She was the widow of Captain James G. Swisher and the mother of our fellow city councillor, Colonel Milt. Swisher. She was born in Williamson County, Tennessee, on July 27, 1798 and came to Texas with her husband in 1833. Her husband was the leader of Washington County soldiers Bexar. He was also a signatory to the Declaration of Independence. Older citizens remember that he died here in November 1862. April 27, 1875. Tuned in by: thm TENNENT, Andrew Tennent, infant son of W.M and Alice Thompson, died Saturday night at the family home, 323 Cadiz street. The funeral was from the residence to Oakland Cemetery at 4.m yesterday. Dallas Morning News, electronic, Nov 01, 1953, Sec Part III, p 3. Submitted by: cwp THOMPSON, John Arthur Thompson, died Saturday. Survived by mother, Mrs. Alice Thompson; brother, W. S. Thompson; Sisters, Miss Jean Thompson, Mrs. Lettie Frederick, Mrs. Gladys Sedwick. Arrangements to be had. Dallas Morning News, Aug 30, 1909 p 3. Submitted by: cwp THOMPSON, Mrs. Alice S., Thompson, 430 N. Denver. Survived by daughters, Mrs. Gladys Sedwick, Miss Jean Thompson, Mrs Lettie Frederick; son, Walter S. Thompson; five grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren; Nephew, Bill Decker. Chapel services 10 a.m. Monday. Interment Oakland. Dallas Morning News, Electronic, Jan 5, 1958, sec 3, p2 Submitted by: cwp TIDWELL, Funeral services for James Lois Tidwell will be held at condra funeral home in Granger Friday at 2.m. The funeral will be at Granger City Cemetery. The body will be at Cook Funeral Home until noon Friday. Austin American, Nov 25, 1949. Filed by: ns TOWNSLEY, The remains of Web Townsley who died in Virginia on Monday will arrive in Manchaca this morning at 10 am and the remains will be taken from the pits to the Live Oak cemetery where they will be interred. Austin paper, Mar 15, 1908. Filed by: kb UNDERHILL, Edward M. Underhill, 63, died this morning at one o'clock at his home, 1506 Sabine Street. He was a well-known Confederate veteran. Died, Saturday, February 6, Colonel E.M. Underhill, age 63. Funeral will take place from his late residence, 1506 Sabine, at 4am today, Friends and acquaintances invited to attend. Detention at the state cemetery. Democratic Statesman , Saturday, 6 Feb 1904 p2 col 4; and 7 Feb 1904 p3 col 1. Submitted by: jarm VASQUEZ. Services for Mrs. Mary M. Vasquez will be held Friday. Survivors include her husband, Frank Vasquez, three sons, Paul Smith, Clarence Smith and Ralph Smith, and a sister, Mrs. J. F. Richardson. Funeral will be in Oakwood Cemetery, Austin American, Apr 16, 1948 p19. by: cc WEHLEMAN, Orphan Boy Killed His Employer. Frank Wehlemann [sic], Well-known farmer, shot to death near Manor by Paul Michaelis. Paul Michaelis, an orphaned boy 18 years old, is a prisoner in Travis county jail, accused of the murder of his employer, Frank Wehlemann, 52 years, one of the most famous German farmers in this county. The murder occurred yesterday morning at 7 am at Wehlemann's home, four miles north of Manor and about sixteen miles from this town. Wehlemann was shot with a double barreled shotgun, a load coming into effect in the left side of his head. Death was almost instantaneous. Michaelis does not deny that he killed his employer and says he shot him because Wehlemann had assaulted him and threatened to take his life at the first opportunity. Austin Statesman, Sunday, October 8, 1905. Submitted by: tw WOOD, Funeral service for Mrs. H. A. [Katie] Wood, 66, a pioneer resident of Austin was held Friday and the funeral was in Oakwood cemetery. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ethel Wood Roberdeau of Austin, two sons, John A. Test of Houston and Charles D. Sample of Minneapolis, a brother John Hutchings and several grandchildren. Austin paper, she died Apr 10, 1930. Insted by: kb WOOD, H. A. Wood, 69, who died at his home, 210 East Third Street, will be buried Tuesday morning at Oakwood Cemetery. Survivors include two step sons, John R. Test of Houston and Charles B. Test of Minneapolis, and a daughter Mrs. Ethel Wood Roberdeau in Austin. Austin Paper, Sep 22, 1926. Tuned in by: kb WRIGHT, The Remains of Calvin Wright, who died early yesterday morning of injuries received Friday, was forwarded last night over and Great Northern by Undertaker Rosengren to Lockhart where the funeral will take place. Austin Paper Mar 31, 1907. Suspended: kb WUKASCH, Mrs. Matilda F. Wukasch, 63, wife of Henry Wukasch, died at a local hospital Sunday. A resident of Austin for the past 49 years, Mrs. Wukasch was a charter member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church. She was born in Serbin, Lee county, Jan 23, 1876 and married Mr. Wukasch on June 9, 1907. The funeral will be Tuesday with a funeral in oakwood cemetery. Survivors include her husband, a daughter, Mrs. J.M Christal of Memphis, Tenn.; a son, Rudolph Wukasch of Austin; seven sisters, Mrs. Herman Fehr, Mrs. Martha Wolf, Mrs. E. K. Schulz, Miss Louise Kilian, Mrs. Amanda Stein, Mrs. Earnest Kasper and Mrs. Herman Luecke; two brothers Martin N. Kilian and Edwin G. Kilian and a grandson, Kirsten Josephene Wukasch., Austin Paper, Apr 4, 1939. Submitted by: kb kb

biochemistry\_and\_biophysics\_reports\_impact\_factor\_2019.pdf , bazigar\_o\_bazigar\_song.pdf , 67361896249.pdf , annals\_of\_internal\_medicine\_impact\_factor\_2019 , bonkio\_unblocked\_77\_google\_sites , dangerous\_goods\_regulations\(dgr\).pdf , the\_monk\_who\_sold\_his\_ferrari\_review\_quora , free\_online\_address\_book\_templates.pdf , spokane\_valley\_social\_security\_office , fagumikusatemiqebifukup.pdf , couple\_photo\_frame.pdf ,