Mabinogi Cooking Guide from ShakespearedIntroduction Cooking is a skill that is fairly ranked for leisure, which gives a small amount of stats, but you'll be able to earn some money for your fabulous dishes! I would like to keep you in mind that in the skills training section, you are given that you are using cooking talent and are not getting any other boost, from Double Rainbow or potions of experience bought from the cash shop. AdvantagesThe food; from higher ranges can be used to gain some Glutton Monkeys elements; Food that is high quality, usually 4 or 5 stars can be sold to players for their fans. Culinary skill, gives some skill and intelligence for a small amount of capacity power. Unlike other cooking skills it doesn't add much combat power, which means you can rank when you feel, even before the windmill. Some life skills such as refinement require you to buy expensive equipment, but by cooking the ingredients are generally cheap; with only a few ingredients costing substantial amounts. DisadvantagesThe tools can be expensive and for beginners and even for some experienced players, going into secret stores and buying all the books can be expensive; especially without potions of responsibility. In back rows, skill requires one to buy tokens or full kitchen dungeons that can be difficult depending on your level. Even if you can complete these dungeons you will have to run more than once. Unless you use a kitchen ruler or have high prowess, it can be difficult to measure ingredients, especially if they require quantities like 48% which is not an integer. When making noodles especially can be horribly tedious to collect bags of flour that requires the use of a windmill. The use of Cooking Cooking Skill is the easiest mini-game of life skills. If you have a ruler it is almost impossible to fail, but for those who don't like all the add-ons I will explain how to achieve the best results. First after using cooking skill you will be asked with three empty boxes; empty; on the dish you want to create; (see Wiki mabinogi for a list of dishes) will fill these boxes with a specific ingredient. After checking the Wiki for specific dish proportions, continue adding the respective values. The more skill you have the less the bar will move around, to accommodate this; specifically at low levels you can add ingredients slowly. Type of cuisine Currently in Nexon America there are 10 different types of cuisine; these are listed below with their respective equipment that is required. The mixture requires a kitchen table and a kitchen knife. Cooking requires a cooking pot and a tray, as well as a bonfire, cooking oven or grill. Over low heat requires a cooking pot and a tray, as well as a bonfire, kitchen oven or grill. Kneading requires a roller and kitchen table. Boiling requires a cooking pot and a tray, as well as a bonfire, cooking oven or grill. Making cake requires a roller from a kitchen table. Training guide I would like to point out now that you should have around 100k at your disposal to completely rank this guide, this is accounting for the fact that you will earn your own tokens to access the Glewyas store. It should also be noted that unless it is indicated that all food made must be at least 4 quality start, otherwise it will not count (for example, during range F you would not yet ranked eat 10 deliciously cooked foods in the oven, so even though you can create 5 meals you won't count if you eat them unless they are 4 stars).
