I decided to go back to San Antonio a few months ago. I finally go back to where my family is, where my mother is, the Driver of The Maxican shared on her social media. One decision is that 'delicate' is encouraged by the health in which your mother is located, but also by the need to be close to you. As some people know [my mother] was diagnosed with The Parkinsons and she is a little bit fragile in health and that's why you have to help her, she explained. But, on the side of it, I need it a lot, now with the global pandemic I felt even more that I need to be from my people, ahead of people, which is the most important thing. This is the most important thing for me, he said. Please subscriber our Bolitan though he will miss The Memory, Ana Maria has admitted to being ready to start a new chapter in her life in which she hopes to stay in touch with her audience through her work because if she is clear about it, she will not leave his offering. Obviously I'm still on the radio. I can radio anywhere in the world. And I don't likely to be able to make some contact with you all through some program. I hope it's america awake. Love Forces AMERICA, he said. The driver keeps the best memories of this time as the host of The Morning of The Success of The Union so that he will be able to return someday. I loan you one of the big changes in your life. They changed my life. So I was talking to Karsingi a Martinage, it would be too big to put in touch with the Latino community in Texas. It would be great. But let us see . See.
