A three-wire cable is not broken quickly. 2 Romans 13:8 I owe no one anything except to love one another, for he who loves another has fulfilled the law. 3 1 Corinthians 13:4-5 Love is patient, love is good. She doesn't envy, she doesn't brag, she's not proud. He doesn't dishonor others, he doesn't look for himself, he's not easily angry, he doesn't keep any record of evil. 4 1 Corinthians 13:2 If I have the gift of prophecy and can understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains but have no love, I am nothing. 5 1 John 4:12 No one has ever seen God; but if we love one another, God lives in us and His love is made complete in us. 6 Ephesians 4:2-3 With all humility and gentleness, patiently, patiently, all in love, eager to maintain the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. 7 Colossians 3:14 And over all these virtues put on love, which unites them all together in perfect unity. 8 Ephesians 5:25 For husbands, this means loving your wives, so Christ loved the church. He gave his life for her. 9 Mark 10:9 Therefore, what God has united, let no one part. 10 1 Corinthians 16:14 11 The Song of Solomon 8:7 Many waters cannot extinguish love; rivers can't wash it. If someone gave all the wealth of his house out of love, he would be completely despised. 12 Psalm 143:8 May the morning bring me the word of your unwavering love, for I have placed my trust in you. Show me I should go, because I entrust you with my life. 13 Proverbs 3:3-4 Never leave your love and faith; tie them around your neck, write them on your heart tablet. Then you will win favor and a good name in front of God and man. 14 1 John 4:16 And so we know and rely on God's love for us. God is love. Anyone who lives in love lives in God, and God in them. 15 1 Peter 4:8 Above all, love each other deeply, for love covers over a multitude of sins. 16 John 15:12 My commandment is this: Love one another so I loved you. 17 1 Corinthians 13:13 And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love. 18 Romans 12:10 Be devoted to each other in love. Honor each other above you. 19 Colossians 3:14 And over all these virtues laid upon love, which unites them all together in a perfect unity. 20 Ephesians 4:32 Be kind to one another, tenderness, forgiving one another, so God through Christ has forgiven you. It's natural and healthy. Reviewing the old and setting goals for us brings a breath of fresh air and maybe even a bit of excitement- which is only possible when slate has been erased. The word of God is a wonderful place to start thinking about how we start over and we can move on. Here's a list of seven verses to help you jump-start the new year. Verses from the Bible for the New Year One Thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining toward what is before, I press on toward the goal of winning the prize for which God called me to heaven in Christ Jesus. Philippians 3:13-14 (NIV) Forget about the things of the past; don't dwell on the past. See, I'm doing a new thing! Now it rises; Don't you perceive it? I'm making a way into the wilderness and the rivers of the wilderness. Isaiah 43:18-19 (NIV) Teach us to number our days so that we may acquire a heart of wisdom. Psalm 90:12 (NIV) Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, because His compassion never fails. They are new every morning; great is your faith. Laments 3:22-23 (NIV) And what does the Lord ask of you? To act on God's good will and to love mercy and to humbly walk with your God. Micah 6:8 (NIV) May these words of my mouth and this meditation of my heart be pleasing in your eyes, Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer. Psalm 19:14 (NIV) Be kind and compassionate to each other, forgiving each other, so God has forgiven you in Christ. Ephesians 4:32 (NIV) If you want to dig a little deeper, here are these verses I can help you in any year of growth: 1. One thing I do: Forgetting what is behind and straining towards what is ahead, I press on toward the goal of winning the prize for which God called me heaven in Christ Jesus. Philippians 3:13-14 (NIV) Your failures are not definitive. Put the past into the past and continue to move toward the purpose God has for you. 2. Forget the previous things; don't dwell on the past. See, I'm doing a new thing! Now it rises; Don't you perceive it? I'm making a way into the wilderness and the rivers of the wilderness. Isaiah 43:18-19 (NIV) God is all about old and do new things. Find out where he's working this year and join there. 3. Teach us to our days, so that we may acquire a heart of wisdom. Psalm 90:12 (NIV) Time is a limited resource. In fact, it might be even more precious, so invest it in things that really matter. 4. Because of the Great Love of the Lord, we are not consumed, for His compassion never fails. They are new every morning; great is your faith. Laments 3:22-23 (NIV) Every day you wake up is a day when you come to experience God's grace and faith. You have 365 days in a year. Refuse to take at least one for granted. 5. And what does the Lord ask of you? To act on God's good will and to love mercy and to humbly walk with your God. Micah 6:8 (NIV) If you do the right thing every time you get the chance, treat others gracefully and never forget who's really in charge, you'll be fine. 6. May these words in my mouth and this meditation of my heart be pleasing in your eyes, Lord, my Rock and my Redeemer. Psalm 19:14 (NIV) Want to cut down on the list of regrets this year? Let God serve as a filter for everything you say and everything you think. 7. Be kind and compassionate to each other, forgiving each other, so God has forgiven you in Christ. Ephesians 4:32 (NIV) Be forgiving and forgiving. Before deciding to hold a grudge this year, ask yourself a question: Exactly how much forgiveness did God show me in Christ? Of course, this is not an exhaustive list. The Bible has a lot to say about all sorts of things you're going to face over the next 12 months. That's why you have to dig deep into the word of God every day. But these verses will be a good starting point, giving you extra help of hope in the coming year. This year, don't let financial stress be an obstacle to your future. Take control of the money with the Financial Peace University. University.
