

I'm not robot

Continue

Buena vista library catalog

Catalog CLIVED Info eBooks eMagazines Youth Adult What do you think? Hopefully it will be a smooth transition for you to access all the tools you are currently using and hopefully bring forward some of our hidden gems for you to fall in love with! We would love an email with feedback on the new site. The user ID (LIBRARY CARD NUMBER without spaces) and PIN are required for: Review your account Check due dates Renew items Reserve items Change PIN If you do not know the PIN, you can request it at the traffic office of any Burbank library. Public Service Statistics Population 8,719Resins Collection Size24,279Volume Annual Circulation89,037transections View Detailed Statistics Library provides wireless access to the Internet. Technology Profile Product NameAn Contracted Current Automation SystemSierra2014 Previous Automation SystemLibrary.Solution2005 Previous Automation SystemCirculation Plus Discovery InterfaceVuFind -- Pika2013 Previous Discovery InterfaceAquaBrowser Library EnhanceNovelist Select Web Content ManagementWordPress Item ID TypeBarcode Library participates in the shared automation system provided by the Marmot Library Network (see map) We conduct a study on automation systems used in libraries. This survey should be completed by a person familiar with the use of Sierra Libraries. Identifiers libraries.org ID15615 NCES F5CSKEYCO0015 NCES LIBIDF5CS0015 This list was created on 5 October 2005 and was last amended on 8 December 2020. Corrections or updates? Registered members of the Library Technology Guides can send updates to library lists in libraries.org. Registration is free and easy. Already registered? Login. Or, you can report corrections just by sending a message to Marshall Breeding. For your health and well-being, the BVU Library will provide support for your email, text and chat library during the period of covid-19 pandemicEmail: library@bvu.eduText: 712.794.4288Chat: Schedule a meeting with a reference librarianBVU students, teachers and staff: Please contact us to retrieve the necessary physical itemsBVU provides access to EBSCOHost e-books. Ebsco Book Search Find Articles: Buena Vista University provides access to over 100 extensive databases. Databases of the subject database of FormatDatabaseAmount of Full TextLink With facsimile digital images of both complete pages and cut articles for hundreds of 19th century U.S. newspapers and advanced search capabilities, researchers will be able to research history in previously unavailable ways. For each issue, the newspaper is captured from cover-to-cover, providing access to every advertising and illustration. Access the Academic OneFile database is a comprehensive, up-to-date resource for academic research. Home to 13,000 journals, Academic OneFile provides quality content for teachers, students, researchers and other researchers. The extensive coverage of physical sciences, technology, medicine, social sciences, arts, theology, literature and other topics makes Academic OneFile both authoritative and comprehensive. With millions of articles available in both PDF and HTML format, researchers can quickly find accurate information. Academic OneFile is a one-stop resource for academic research in all disciplines. Go to databaseACS Publications offers coverage of over 30 magazines and magazines published by the American Chemical Society. Full text is available for all 750,000 articles in the database. The coverage is from 1879 to the present. Go to the databaseAgEcon Search collects, indexes, and distributes copies of full text academic research in the widely defined field of agricultural and applied economics, including sub disciplines, such as agribusiness, food security and supply, energy and natural resource economy, environmental economy, policy issues, international trade, and economic development. Content includes conference presentations, work, journal articles, government documents, theses, and dissertations. Go to the databaseFrom feed to zoonotic diseases, Agricultural collection produces information in all areas related to agriculture for each type of agricultural researcher. The agricultural collection comprises more than 400 agricultural periodicals powered by Gale InfoTrac. Go to the databaseAmerica: History and Life is a complete bibliographical reference to the history of the United States and Canada from prehistory to the present day. Published in 1964, the database contains more than 450,000 bibliographical entries for journal articles, books and reviews that provide an incomparable research tool for students and researchers in U.S. and Canadian history. This extensive database indexes over 1,700 journals published worldwide. **America: History and Life allows up to six simultaneous users.**Access the AS Historical Periodic Collection: 1691-1820 presents over 500 titles from 1691 to 1820. Representing over two centuries of printed culture, from early colonial imports to titles published on American soil during the Early Revolution and Republic, Series 1 is the first of five series created from periodical holdings in one of the most important warehouses in the United States, the American Antiquarian Society. The entire AAS collection comprises more than 7500 titles from the 17th to the end of the 19th century. The object covered in Series 1 has a broad scope and covers all aspects of American society during this time period, the American Antiquary Councils (AAS) Historical Periodic Collection Series 2 presents over 1000 titles dating from 1821 to 1837. The second series is is of the five series created from series belonging to one of the most important warehouses in the United States, the American Antiquarian Society and with about 6500 titles from the 17th century to the end of the 19th century. The subject included in Series 2 represents the era of Jacksonian democracy in history and has a wide scope and includes agriculture, entertainment, history, literary criticism and politics. Access the American Antiquarian Councils (AAS) Historical Periodic Collection: Series 3 presents over 1,800 titles dating from 1838 to 1852. Series 3 is the third of five series created from the series of one of the most important warehouses in the United States, the American Antiquarian Society. The themes presented in Series 3 reveal a young nation growing rapidly, where industrialization, railways, regional political differences and life on the western border were daily realities. The topics covered in the collection reach every facet of American life, including science, literature, medicine, agriculture, women's fashion, family life, and religion. Access the American Anti-Corruption Councils (AAS) Historical Periodic Collection - Series 4 presents over 1,100 titles dating from 1853 to 1865. Series 4 is the fourth of five series created from the series of one of the most important warehouses in the United States, the American Antiquarian Society. While the Civil War is a focal point of the collection, we also find a diverse record of the continuation of daily life for many Americans - both leading to and during the war. News from the battlefield can be found, in addition to the usual width of the topic found in previous collections, which include science, literature, medicine, agriculture, women's fashion, family life, and religion. Access the American Anti-Corruption Councils (AAS) Historical Periodic Collection: Series 5 presents over 2,500 titles dating from 1866 to 1877. Series 5 is the fifth of five series created from the series of one of the most important warehouses in the United States, the American Antiquarian Society. The themes presented in Series 5 reflect a nation that has persevered through a difficult situation: a bloody civil war that has made hundreds of thousands of lives; incorporation of recently released African-Americans into American life; a population that has rapidly expanded into western territories. Wide areas covered in the collection reach every facet of American life, including science, literature, medicine, agriculture, women's fashion, family life, and religion. Access the databaseThe history and gender archives: LGBTQ History and Culture Since 1940 covers topics such as LGBTQ activism and the HIV/AIDS crisis. It provides researchers with the necessary documents to delve deep into the Movement for Human Rights resources that might otherwise be undiscovered. Deposits for this collection include: LesbianHerstory Educational Foundation; Canadian Lesbian and Gay Archives; Women's Energy Bank; GLBT Historical Society; National Library of Medicine; among other archives. Access databaseArt & Architecture Complete™ is a research database for the study of art and architecture. This database provides full text coverage of over 330 periodicals and 215 books. In addition, Art & Architecture Complete offers indexes and summaries for nearly 730 academic journals, journals and commercial publications. The database also offers a collection of images of over 64,000 images provided by Picture Desk and others. This database covers a wide variety of relevant topics, art and art history, graphic design, photography, and much more. Go to the databaseBiography In Context is for researchers looking for contextual information on the most influential people in the world. Organized in a portal experience, it combines Gale's reference content with periodicals and multimedia. Users can also search for people by name, occupation, nationality, ethnicity, dates and places of birth/death or gender, as well as keywords and full text. Biography in context is built on a basis of over 650,000 biographical records covering international figures from all time periods and fields of study. The biography in context includes over 4,500 portal pages about contemporary and historical figures. It offers reference content alongside, videos, audio selections, images, primary sources, as well as magazines and magazine and journal articles from hundreds of major periodicals and newspapers. Go to the databaseBioline International is a pioneer in providing free access to bioscience journals evaluated by colleagues published in developing countries. Access DatabaseBook Review Index includes more than 5 million book reviews, allowing users to conduct research in many disciplines, including literature, history, education, psychology and more. Up-to-date coverage, wide scope and the inclusion of quotes for both newly published and older materials make the Book Review Index a useful reference tool. Thousands of publications are indexed. Access databaseBrainfuse offers a comprehensive suite of online academic services that include specialized online services, study tools and collaboration tools. The SkillSurfer module contains practical tests for standardized tests, including praxis tests. Other features include CV writing tools, job resources, and resources for veterans. Go to the Encyclopedia Britannica coverage on a variety of topics including arts, business, geography, history, literature, philosophy, politics, pop culture, science, sports, and more. Articles are accompanied by colored photographs, diagrams, maps, flags and pronunciation aid. This accessible encyclopedia provides the answers you need to your daily questions. The ECB can be searched or browsed through the Credo reference platform, where it is just one of almost four hundred reference books available. Go to the databaseBusiness Collection provides full text coverage of all business disciplines, including accounting, economics, finance, marketing, management and strategy, as well as business and practice theory. Users will understand the activities of companies and industries around the world through nearly 4,000 top business and trade publications, updated daily. Completing these titles is a selection of international, American and regional news publications, all available on Gale's InfoTrac platform. Access databaseBusiness Economics & Theory Collection includes over seven million articles, including Kiplinger manual coverage, such as Retiree Worry Free, Switching Careers, Making Money in Real Estate, Financing College and more. These resources also contain exclusive video streams from forbes.com highlighting current business news and interviews with CEOs and entrepreneurs. Go to databaseGale Business Insights: Essentials provides authoritative information, articles, and statistical data from your company and industry. Gale Business Insights: Essentials facilitates researchers' use of detailed information about U.S. businesses, industries and products. This includes: 300 sources for investment research/brokerage reports • 1,000 SWOT reports, updated quarterly • 2,200 corporate timelines • 3,900 full text periodicals • 11,500 market research reports • 14,000 industry research reports from Datamonitor • 15,000 company histories • 50,500 articles from Market Share Reporter• 70,000 associations• 80,000 articles from Gale's Business Rankings Annual• 465,000 company profiles, including 2,000 with deep links to related content and statistical data. Access databaseGale Business Insights: Global empowers people not only to study international business, but also to interpret their research. For business professionals, entrepreneurs, students and general researchers, Gale Business Insights: Global provides comprehensive international business information, compiled in a logical, usable context. Business Insights: Global contains detailed company and industry profiles, including SWOT reports, market share reports and financial reports. This database also provides thousands of company histories and industry essays from Gale's core business collection and also includes case studies, academic journals, and business news for deep research coverage global economies. Go to the DatabaseSearch the 147,000-book BVU library of 147,000 books, videos, compact discs, and other materials by keyword, title, author, or subject. The catalogue also offers access to over 92,000 e-books. You can access the Library Catalog hereGo to databaseGale In Context: College is an engaging for those looking for contextual information on a wide range of topics. The solution combines Authoritative and continuously updated reference content of Gale with full-text magazines, academic magazines, news articles, primary source documents, images, videos, audio files, and links to verified websites organized into an easy-to-use portal experience. Access databaseCommunication & Media Complete (CMMC) offers the most robust collection of high quality research in areas related to communication and media. In addition to more than 600 journals for which CMMC provides indexing and summaries, the database also has full text for more than 240 journals. A sophisticated communication lexicon is available to researchers, and the searchable citations are provided for many of the logs covered by the database. Access the database Communication studies include the full text of the 19 magazines published by SAGE and participating companies. Some journals give more than 50 years. The database includes over 12,800 articles and covers topics such as journalism, political communication, mass communication, interpersonal communication, cultural studies/intercultural communication, television/film studies, media studies, business communication, organizational/managerial communication and written communication. Each bibliographic record in the Communication Studies is linked to the corresponding full text in PDF format. This database is updated weekly. Access databaseCommunications & Mass Media Collection brings together information found in over 350 magazines containing nearly 3 million articles on all aspects of the communications field on the Gale's InfoTrac platform. Go to databaseGale OneFile: Computer Science provides access to leading technical and business publications in the computer, telecommunication and electronics industries. The database provides information about computer-related product introductions, news, and reviews in areas such as hardware, software, electronics, engineering, communications, and technology enforcement. Go to the Gale OneFile databases: Contemporary women's issues provide comprehensive coverage of issues that influence women's lives around the world. Users will find timely and historically relevant content on topics such as civil rights, health, education, professional development and entrepreneurship. Do you access the databaseDo you want to check a definition or read a short and authoritative description of a literary or scientific term? Credo Reference contains full content from nearly 400 reference books covering a wide range of topics. Credo reference gives you power on the web without all websites clutter, or advertisements. Each search result in Credo Reference is formatted for you. Go to the Criminal Justice Collection database make research easy to information from more than 700 journals. Powered by InfoTrac, The Criminal Justice Collection takes users directly to the answers they need from nearly 5.5 million articles. Updated daily, the database produces current, relevant results. Access the Criminology database includes the full text of the 24 journals published by SAGE and the participating companies. Some journals give more than 80 years. The database includes more than 20,400 articles and covers topics such as criminal justice, juvenile delinquency, juvenile justice, corrections, penology, police, forensic psychology and family and domestic violence. Each bibliographic record in the database is linked to the corresponding full text in PDF format. Go to the databaseThe Culinary Arts Collection offers a smorgasbord of information-more than five million articles from more than 250 major cooking and nutrition magazines. Access the databaseThe Digital Commons Network brings together free, full-text scholarly articles from hundreds of universities and colleges around the world. Curated by university librarians and their support institutions, the Network includes a growing collection of peer-reviewed journal articles, book chapters, dissertations, theses, work papers, conference procedures, and other original scholarly works. Access the Digital Theatre+ database provides access to over 600 theatre productions. Useful for both literature and theatre studies, DT+ captures high-quality live performances from top theatre companies and provides behind-the-scenes information from leading practitioners and academics to enrich the understanding of plays. Access the database The free version of Dimensions provides openly available search and values for more than 100 million publications. Searches can be limited to OA headings only in the left column filter options. Access the Diversity Study Database explores cultural differences, contributions and influences of the global community. This collection includes more than 2.7 million articles from 150 magazines, updated daily. Go to the databaseThe director of open access books is a large collection of academic books evaluated by colleagues that are free access. All areas represented, but holdings are the most powerful in science and social sciences. Go to the databaseThe Director of Open Access Journals is the only free, independent, community-curated online directory that indexes and provides access to high-quality, open access magazines, evaluated by colleagues. Go to the databaseDPLA make millions of materials from libraries, archives, museums, and other cultural institutions across the country available to all in a one-stop discovery experience. Are text and audio-visual materials. Go to databaseSearch and view the BVU Library's eBook collection (more often called e-books.) Go to the DatabaseGale OneFile: Economics and Theory provides a strong focus on the titles covered EconLit bibliographic index. This content is useful for starting a business, selling a product, developing policies, analyzing trends, building business models, investing in the future, researching rates, and more. Go to the databaseEducation includes the full text of 36 peer-reviewed magazines published by SAGE and participating companies. Some journals give more than 90 years. The database includes 45,400 articles in the fields of adult and continuing education, education administration, educational policy, primary and elementary education, high school and secondary education, higher education, international education, leadership, measurement and testing, education and multiculturalism, professional development, teaching and training, teaching methods. Each bibliographic record in the database is linked to the corresponding full text in PDF format. Go to the Educator's Reference Complete database covers several levels of education from kindergarten to college and includes virtually every educational specialty, such as bilingual teaching, health, technology and testing. The resource also includes information on administration, funding and education policy issues. Available on the Gale PowerSearch platform, Educator's Reference Complete is an important tool for today's educators, providing instant access to more than 1,100 periodicals covering a wide range of topics, as well as 200 reports from the United States Department of Education. Access the social assistance encyclopedia database provides an authoritative place of departure for research in the field of social work, as well as related areas, such as public health and sociology. ESW offers articles overview of social work and biographies of key figures in the history of social work. ESW entries are updated as needed. Links to additional resources and related entries are provided in the text of each entry. Go to the Gale OneFile database: Entrepreneurship offers insights, tips, strategies and success stories for business schools and entrepreneurs. Access the DatabaseThe Environmental Studies & Policy Collection is a comprehensive resource that addresses growing environmental concerns. Powered by Gale's InfoTrac, Environmental Studies & Policy Collection brings together complete text information found in over 700 journals. This collection contains more than 3.3 million articles addressing issues such as global warming, climate change, alternative energy, environmental policy, green, recycling, soil, plants, agronomy and more. Go to the databaseFocusing on the physical and social aspects of environmental issues, Gale in Environment studies (formerly GREENR) provide authoritative content, empowering students to critically analyze and understand important topics affecting people around the world. Portals of subjects, organizations, states and provinces form research centres issues covering land systems, global change, land and water use, populations, legislation and more. The portal's presentation provides essential information, complemented by academic journals, news, case studies, conferences, statistics and rich multimedia. Go to DatabaseERIC (Educational Resource Information Center) is the world's largest source of education information, with more than a million summaries of documents and journal articles on educational and practical research. The database contains more than 1,243,000 records and links to more than 224,000 full text documents from ERIC. Access the databaseThis database contains more than 32,000 entries and is a comprehensive guide to printed records about America written in Europe before 1750. It covers the history of European exploration, as well as the portrayals of Native American peoples. A wide range of areas are covered, from natural disasters to outbreaks of disease and slavery. The original bibliography was co-developed by John Alden and Dennis Landis, curator of European books at the John Carter Brown Library. Access DatabaseFilms On Demand offers web-based educational video content from a variety of manufacturers, including Films for Humanities, PBS, Cambridge Educational, BBC and more. The BVU subscription includes over 6,000 titles in the Master Academic Collection, covering all academic disciplines and fields of activity. Special features allow users to search for and organize over 60,000 segments, share playlists, customize folders, and post in a course management system. Titles are continuously added to this collection. Access the Fine Arts & Music Collection database provides information on hundreds of art-related topics. Powered by Gale InfoTrac, this database quickly places information from more than 5 million articles out of the reach of art students. Go to databaseGale's Library Index is a master index to the major print literature series published by the Gale Group. It combines and makes cross-references to over 146,000 author names, including pseudonyms and variant names, and more than 193,000 titles in a single source. Use this index to locate biographies on authors and critical essays on their writings. For full text, see the print volumes in the library's reference collection. Gale publications owned by the BVU Library can be located by searching for the title of the source publication in the library catalog. Go to the databaseGale Literary Sources brings together collections of essays, comments, criticisms, primary sources and biographical information related to literature, literary movements, history and culture from a variety of Search these literary resources to find the full text of literary works, magazine articles, criticism and literary analysis, reviews, author biographies and a rich collection of expertly written presentations: MLA (Modern (Modern Association) International Bibliography; LRC (Literature Resource Center); Scribner Writer Series; Twayne's authors' series. Go to databaseGale NewsUlt offers a cross-search experience for exploring the library's historical Gale newspaper collection. Go to databaseGale OneFile: High School Edition provides access to age-appropriate digital content with authority for middle and high school students to use for classroom assignments. Students can research magazines, magazines, newspapers and reference books covering a range of topics, from science, history and literature to political science, sports and environmental studies. Access databaseGale PowerSearch offers ease of use, flexibility and a range of features and benefits. With Gale PowerSearch, users can instantly access periodic and reference content in multiple Gale resources from a single starting point, allowing users to cross-search from multiple Gale resources, including all periodic InfoTrac products (such as General OneFile, Academic OneFile, and more). Go to the databaseGale Virtual Reference Library is a database of encyclopedias and specialized reference sources for multidisciplinary research. Access DatabaseGender Studies Collection provides access to scholarly journals and magazines covering topics including gender studies, family and marital issues, and more. Access databaseGeneral OneFile is a comprehensive resource of general interest that provides regular and news information includes more than 8,000 full text titles; more than 3,600 magazines; more than 25 years of backfile; and five newspaper indexes - totaling more than 13,000 titles in total. With over 100 million records available to researchers, General OneFile provides access to the largest collection of full-text periodicals available; a complete collection of national public radio programmes from 1990 to the present, including searchable transcripts; and links to over 5,000 video files, including shows such as The Today Show, NBC Nightly News, NRO TV, and Meet the Press. Access the Gale General Science Collection database, researchers can stay up to date with the latest scientific developments in particle physics, advanced mathematics, nanotechnology, geology and hundreds of other fields. More than 200 journals are covered. Updated daily, the General Science Collection includes more than 1.6 million articles to meet almost every scientific investigation. Access databaseGlobal Issues in Context supports global awareness and provides a global perspective, linking together a multitude of authoritative content, empowering students to critically analyze and understand important issues of the modern world. Integrating news, reference materials, country information, primary source documents, videos, statistics, and more in a single search — Global issues in context are updated daily and provide different country topic pages and more than 400 pages of issue. Access the Monthly Database Printing Office (GPO) Monthly Catalog covers all types of U.S. government documents, including Congressional reports, hearings, debates and records; judicial material; and documents issued by the executive departments (Defence, State, Labour, Office of the President, etc.) More than half a million government documents published since 1976 are included in the database. Some records contain Access links that provide the full electronic text of the government document. Access databaseGREENFILE provides well-documented information covering all aspects of human environmental impact. Its collection of academic, government and general interest titles includes content on global warming, green building, pollution, sustainable agriculture, renewable energy, recycling, and more. The database provides indexes and summaries for more than 384,000 records, as well as full text for more than 4,700 records. Go to the DatabaseHathiTrust is a non-profit collaboration of academic libraries and conservation research 17+ million digitized items. BVU is not a partner institution, so the connection will not reveal additional resources beyond those that are already available with free access. Go to the DatabaseGale OneFile: Health and Medicine includes information created specifically for students, consumer health researchers, and health professionals. This database is the perfect resource for up-to-date information on a full range of healthcare topics. Access databaseGale Health and Wellness offers access to thousands of medical journals, magazines, reference papers, multimedia and more. Perfect for researchers at all levels, this comprehensive consumer health resource provides authoritative information on the full range of health-related issues, from current diseases and disorder information to the in-depth coverage of alternative medical practices, and more. Go to the HeinOnline Academic database includes more than 100 million pages of multidisciplinary content in more than 100 areas, including history, political science, criminal justice, religious studies, international relations, women's studies, pre-law, and more. HeinOnline provides access to over 300 years of information on political development and the full history of the creation of government and legal systems around the world. Among the many databases included, the HeinOnline magazine collection comprises nearly 2,800 periodicals relating to a variety of domains, all coverage dating from the beginning to the most published in in most cases. Go to the Historical Abstracts database is the complete reference guide to world history from 1450 to the present (except the United States and Canada, which are covered in America: History and Life) This The database provides indexation of over 1,700 historical academic journals in over 40 languages back in 1955. Go to the databaseLibrary science, information science and technology professionals, and others will appreciate the Collection of Information Sciences. It is updated daily with articles covering all aspects of information management and maintenance and technology, including usability, cataloguing, circulation, business information, and more. Access databaseInforme Académico meets the research needs of Spanish-speaking users, with a wide range of science magazines and journals in Spanish and Portuguese, both in Latin America and Latin America. Informe Académico provides quality reference materials, allowing researchers to analyze topics and conduct research in Spanish. Go to databaseGale OneFile: Insurance and Liability refers to the protection of assets, physical or intellectual, ranging from the owner of the individual property to multinational corporations. Insurance and liability connects researchers to hundreds of thousands of updated articles from leading journals. Go to databaseIPA Source helps singers with the correct understanding and pronunciation of texts in foreign languages in art song and opera, based on the international phonetic alphabet. IPA Source offers works in Latin, Italian, German, French, Spanish and English. Access the JSTOR Biological Sciences Collection provides full text coverage to over 130 journals in the fields of biology, botany, ecology and zoology. Go to the databaseJSTOR Essential Collection is composed of fundamental content in Humanities and Social Sciences, with nearly 700 basic titles in 45 disciplines. The journals in the Essential Collection serve both basic and advanced research and teaching needs for two- and four-year-old institutions. Go to databaseJURN is a unique search tool, helping you find free academic articles and books. JURN harnesses all google power, but focuses your search through a hand-crafted and curated index. Established in 2009 to comprehensively cover the arts and humanities, in 2014 JURN expanded in scope. JURN now also covers the selected university's full text archives and many additional journals in science, biomedical, business and law. Go to the Kanopy database is a film service that streams more than 26,000 films to over 3,000 higher education campuses around the world, reaching millions of students worldwide. Films on the Kanopy platform range from documentaries, indie and foreign films, must-see classics and blockbuster films. Go to databaseGale OneFile: Leadership Management provides access to regular authoritative content that covers topics as diverse as 21st century skills, learning disorders, standardized testing, homeschooling, and more. Leadership and Management is useful for researchers or any educator interested in Go to the LegalTrac database is a resource for students, law school and legal researchers and features a comprehensive collection of major legal publications. This resource provides indexing for more than 1,500 major reviews of law, legal newspapers, international legal publications, specialized publications, bar magazines and international legal journals, including more than 250 titles in full text. Access databaseLibrary, Information Science & Technology Abstracts™ (LISTA) indexes over 560 core journals, nearly 50 priority journals and nearly 125 selective journals; plus books, research reports and procedures. Subject coverage includes librarianship, classification, cataloging, bibliometrics, online information recovery, information management and more. Database coverage extends to the mid-1960s. LIST is free at any library - compliments of EBSCO Publishing. Access the world's latest, comprehensive and reliable online literature database, the Literature Resource Center is uniquely relevant to today's researcher. Its critical, biographical and rich contextual content supports interdisciplinary approaches, information literacy and the development of critical thinking skills. Full text articles from scholarly and literary journals are combined with critical essays, work and subject presentations, full text works, biographies and more to provide a wealth of information about authors, their works and literary movements. Researchers at all levels will find the information they need, with content that covers all genres and disciplines, all time periods and all parts of the world. Go to databaseInternational in scope, LitFinder covers all time periods and contains a multitude of primary literature content. This includes approximately 140,000 poems in full text, 800,000 quotes and excerpts of poetry, 7,100 full-text stories and novels, 3,800 full-text essays, 2,000 full-text speeches and 1,700 full-text plays. It also includes biographies, work summaries, photographs and a glossary. LitFinder's easy-to-use interface allows users to target the information they're looking for or browse the collection through various refined search and browse options. For example, users can find everything from Shakespeare's sonnets to contemporary poems by African-American women, George Washington's inaugural speeches through Barack Obama, short stories by Edgar Allan Poe to stories of up-and-coming writer Elizabeth Weld, or essays on topics, such as arts, science and religion. Go to databaseMedline more than 10,000 journals in all fields of medicine, dentistry and healthcare. Medline offers indexing for over 17 million articles published since 1950 and is updated daily. Go to the databaseProduced by the Duros Center for Testing at the University of Nebraska, Mental Measurements Year with in Print is essential for the evaluation of contemporary testing tools. Designed for both beginners and professionals, it contains full-text reviews for test products in psychology, education, business and leadership. In addition, it provides a bibliography for all known English tests currently available in print. **This database allows up to four simultaneous users.**Access the Gale OneFile: Military and Intelligence database contains journals, journals and scientific reports covering all aspects of past and present military affairs. Updated daily, the content supports key areas, such as government policies, the socio-economic effects of war, the structure of the armed forces and much more. Go to the databaseLy giving our academic site full access to the New York Times, 1851-present. Access to the International New York Times and the New York Times in Chinese is also available. Users must register individually using a buv.edu email address that provides access for 364 days. To register, visit www.NYTimes.com/Pass To see a short video about activating a pass, please visit the Select NYT tablet apps are now available to anyone applying for a new permit or renewing a permit to NYTimes.com Buena Vista University Affiliate Academic License. After creating or renewing your NYT pass, visit NYTimes.com/mobile on your tablet or mobile device to download free NYT apps. Full access to the NYT tablet news app has more than 25 content sections, including blogs, video, and slide shows. Use the same credentials to sign in. Go to databaseGale OneFile: News provides access to more than 1,100 major regional, national and local newspapers in the U.S., as well as top titles from around the world. It also includes thousands of images, radio and TV shows and transcripts. Access databaseUS North Central Newsstream allows users to search for the latest regional news content, as well as archives that stretch back to the 1980s, featuring newspapers, news threads and news sites in fully active text format. North Central Newsstream covers news sources in Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, North Dakota, Nebraska, South Dakota and Wyoming. Notable newspaper headlines include USA Today, Denver Post, Star Tribune and Des Moines Register. Access the Nursing & Allied Health Collection database supports the research needs of students and researchers in the field of healthcare and allied health seeking answers related to the care, treatment and specialized management of types of patients. Nursing & Allied Health Collection brings together information found in over 1,000 journals. Access the OALster database includes more than 50 million records that represent digital resources from more than 2,000 contributors. For best results, narrow your search to one of the downloadable formats in the left column initial search. This adjustment will provide a higher percentage of immediately accessible materials. Go to the OpenDissertations database is a free access database built to help researchers locate both historical and contemporary dissertations and theses. It incorporates EBSCO previously released American Doctorate Dissertations, and additional dissertation metadata features contributed by certain colleges and universities around the world. Providing researchers with quotes to graduate research over a period of time, from the beginning of the 20th century to the present, this database will continue to grow through regular updates and new partnerships with graduate-granting institutions. Go to Gale's Database Opposing Views In Context is an online resource that covers today's hottest social issues, from capital punishment to immigration to marijuana. This inter-curricular research database supports science, social studies, current events, and language arts courses. Informed and different opinions help students develop critical thinking skills and draw their own conclusions. Opposing views in context include pro/con views, reference items, interactive maps, infographics, and more. A category on the topic of national debate provides quick and easy access to content on issues frequently studied and discussed. Regular content covers current events, news and comments, economics, environmental issues, political science and more. Go to the Physical Therapy and Sports Medicine School database, which includes hundreds of thousands of articles updated daily from nearly 100 titles covering the fields of physical therapy and sports medicine. Users will discover proven treatment techniques, examine experimental research theses, find unique applications for specific sports (everything from baseball and bowling to tennis and yachting) and more. Access Gale's Popular Magazine Collection database offers a strong focus on current events, sports, science and health, giving users access to the most sought-after magazines in Gale InfoTrac products. Users also have access to the entire collection of national public radio programs, including transcripts and podcasts. Go to the Open PQDT database to search for dissertations and theses in a variety of areas and read them for free. Go to the databaseProject Gutenberg is a library of over 60,000 classic works of literature, available free of charge and in the public domain, that can be downloaded in text format or (in some cases). Go to databaseProject Muse is an online collection of over 300 journal titles in arts, humanities, and social sciences. MUSE magazines cover many disciplines, including literature, politics, economics, education, film, religion and women's studies. Access the databaseTeax PsycARTICLES covers general psychology and specialization, basic, applied, theoretical research. The database contains more than 137,000 articles from 66 journals - 45 published by the American Psychological Association (APA) and 11 from allied organizations. It includes all journal articles, letters to the publisher, and errata from each journal. The coverage spans 1894 to the present day. Go to the databasePsychology includes the full text of 34 magazines published by SAGE and participating companies. Some journals give more than 60 years. The database comprises over 44,400 articles in fields such as applied psychology, child development, clinical psychology, cognitive psychology, council psychology, intercultural psychology, cultural psychology, developmental psychology, educational psychology, family studies, industrial/organizational psychology, learning disabilities, personality, school psychology and social psychology. Each bibliographic record in the database is linked to the corresponding full text in PDF format. Go to the databasePsychology Collection provides access to academic journals and magazines covering the study of emotions, personality, and the human mind. The database provides content of interest to both researchers and general users. Go to the PsycINFO database, produced by the American Psychological Association (APA), contains nearly 2.3 million quotes and summaries of scholarly journal articles, book chapters, books, and dissertations, all from psychology and related disciplines. The coverage of the journal spans the 19th century to the present and includes international materials selected from over 2000 periodicals published in more than 25 languages. More than 60,000 new records are added each year. PsycINFO also includes information about the psychological aspects of related disciplines, such as medicine, psychiatry, physiology, pharmacology, sociology, education, healthcare, linguistics, anthropology, business and law. Go to the database The bibliographic database PTSDpubs (formerly known as PILOTS: Published International Literature on Traumatic Stress), which covers the published international literature on traumatic stress, is produced at the headquarters of the National Center for Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder in White River Junction, Vermont. The PTSDpubs database is sponsored by the U.S. Department of Veterans. Its purpose is to include quotes from all literature on post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) and other mental health sequelae of traumatic events without disciplinary, linguistic, or geographic limitations, and to provide both current and retrospective coverage. Access the PubAg database covers all basic topics of agricultural sciences, including nutrition, food safety, food quality, production and protection and crops, natural resources, sustainable agricultural systems, rural development, agricultural economic and political aspects, agricultural imports and exports and agricultural statistics. This database nearly 3 million quotes from peer-reviewed journal articles. A small number (10%) available in full text, but links to full text to editor websites and open source articles complement the amount of fully available text. Access the PubMed database contains over 20 million quotes for articles in the fields of medicine, life sciences and health. PubMed is a free resource that is developed and maintained by the National Center for Biotechnology Information (NCBI) at the U.S. National Library of Medicine (NLM), located at the National Institutes of Health (NIH). Go to databaseGale's Religion and Philosophy Collection allows users to discover topics from a wide range of philosophies and religions. Researchers will get information about the impact religion has had on culture throughout history, including literature, the arts and language. Updated daily, this library resource supports a wide range of topics, from theological approaches to social issues. Go to databaseScience In Context is an online resource that provides contextual information on hundreds of today's most significant scientific topics. By integrating authority, curriculum-aligned reference content with titles and videos, Science in Context is meant to show how scientific disciplines relate to real-world problems, from weather patterns to obesity. Science in Context contains millions of full-text articles that are extracted from hundreds of national and global newspapers, magazines and magazines. Go to databaseScience.gov is a gateway to U.S. government scientific information. The portal provides free access to research results and scientific and technical information from scientific organizations in 13 federal agencies. Science.gov makes it possible to search users in more than 60 databases, over 2,200 websites and over 200 million pages of authoritative federal scientific information in multiple formats, including full-text documents, quotes, scientific data supporting federally funded research and multimedia. Access databaseScienceDirect provides access to thousands of academic journals published by Elsevier. BVU has acquired access to the full text of more than 1,100 journals in the fields of Health and Life Sciences. This sub-set of the ScienceDirect collection provides a huge amount of peer-reviewed journal content covering biology, medical and health care and allied health, sports science, and environmental science. Articles are available from 1995 to the present. Access to full text is noted by a green page icon. Go to the databaseApproclaimed Scribner Writers series offers students, and other researchers access more than 2,000 original, comprehensive, scholarly-signed essays on the lives and works of more than 1,400 important authors from around the world and from all periods of time. Each entry is 15-20 pages long and includes an essay and biographical information that places the author's work in a personal and historical context. The articles are written by renowned literary scholars, and the Series of American Writers and British Writers is managed and edited by Jay Parini, novelist and professor of English and creative writing at Middlebury College in Vermont. Go to the databaseThe largest and most ambitious project of its kind, this collection is dedicated to the study of scholarly and understanding of slavery from a multinational perspective. An unprecedented collection developed under the guidance of a board of scientists, it never offers before available research opportunities and unlimited teaching opportunities. Access the Abstracts Basic Social Assistance Database, produced by the National Association of Social Workers, inc., contains coverage of over 450 social assistance and human services magazines dating back to 1965. Researchers seeking academic and professional perspectives on topics such as therapy, education, human services, addictions, child and family well-being, mental health, civil and legal rights, and more will find Social Work Abstracts to be an indispensable resource. **Social Work Abstracts allows up to four simultaneous users.**Access databaseSPORTDiscus is the most comprehensive sports and sports medicine database in the world. Articles from more than 440 journals are available with links to full text. Coverage varies from 1985 to the present. Materials published in books and conference procedures are also indexed in this database. **SPORTDiscus allows up to four simultaneous users.**Access the SpringerOpen database covers over 200 journals published by Springer of academic articles, with free access, evaluated by colleagues, which are primary in science, but some areas of social sciences are also represented. Go to databaseSSOAR : Social Science Open Access Depository offers growing holdings of free, social science documents. Go to databaseSSRN is a searchable online library that allows authors to post their works and summaries easily and free of charge. The vast majority of works can be downloaded free of charge as well. Since its initial focus on social sciences in 1994, SSRN has grown to become the most interdisciplinary service of its kind, representing disciplines across the spectrum of research, including applied sciences, health sciences, humanities, life sciences, physical sciences, and social sciences. Go to databaseThe Statistical Abstract of the United States is a respected reference statistical publication that is now available electronically. This comprehensive collection of statistics on social conditions, and the United States provides a snapshot of America and its people. Most statistics are collected from federal government agencies. Volumes printed by the Statistical Summary from previous years are available in Library. Statistical summary of USGo at the DatabaseTeacher Reference Center provides summaries and some full text for 270 of the most popular education and administration magazines to help professional educators. Most TRC journals are evaluated by colleagues. Go to the First Database published in 1785, The Times of London is considered to be the world's largest newspaper record. Times Digital Archive allows users to search over 200 years for this invaluable historical source. Go to the DatabaseGale Literature: Twayne's Author Series is dedicated to in-depth critical introductions to the lives and works of the world's great writers in the context of the time period in which they lived. It provides insightful and original reviews of history and the influence of literary movements. Go to databaseGale's U.S. History Collection provides balanced coverage of both current thinking about events in U.S. history, as well as scientific work in leading journals. Go to the U.S. database. History In Context is for those looking for contextual information on hundreds of the most significant people, events and topics in U.S. history. Topics range from the arrival of the Vikings in North America, to the first agitation of the American Revolution and through the civil rights movement, 9/11, and the war on terror. The content includes reference works, millions of news and periodicals, and more than 5,000 rare and vital primary source documents ranging from slave magazines to presidential newspapers. The history of the U.S. in context is cross-searchable with world history in context. Access databaseValue Line provides independent, objective and impartial analytics and performance reports on approximately 8,000 shares, 15,000 mutual funds and 80,000 options and other securities. **Value Line allows up to three simultaneous users.**Access the databaseFinding the right career, enrolling in a suitable learning or training institution, looking for a job, advancing your career through continuous education – these are high-stakes tasks in today's world. Vocations & Careers Collection facilitates researchers' access by providing up-to-date content daily from nearly 400 journals – from general career guides to high-specialization industry journals. Go to the databaseThe Wall Street Journal is known for its business journalism and its coverage in global markets, politics, world news, technology, arts and life. Go to the databaseResearchers who access more than 1.7 million articles from the War and Terrorism Collection will gain insight into conflicts and their causes, impact and perception on a global scale. This definitive collection for history researchers, and current events cover 100 appropriate topics, periodic full text, which are updated daily. Go to the databaseWestlawNext Campus Research provides information related to the law. Content includes reviews of law and magazines, federal and state statutes, regulations and court decisions. Westlaw Campus Research is only available on campus. Access the Focusing database on the 19th and 20th centuries, the Women's Studies Archive provides a history of the social, political and professional aspects of women's lives and provides a look at women's roles, experiences and achievements in society. Through a variety of documents, such as diaries, letters, photos, news clippings, organizational recordings and journals, it presents a record of the problems that have affected women, societal contributions, social status and women's movements. Go to the DatabaseAmbe novice historian and advanced academic researcher will find useful information in Gale's World History Collection, which contains leading journals in the field of world history. The articles are updated daily and provide a balanced coverage of events in the history of the world – both current thinking and established scholarly work. Go to the databaseWorld history in context get back to the ancient world - and before today's titles - to provide a chronicle of the great cultures and societies that formed the history of the human race. Rare primary sources, reliable reference and multimedia content put this broad topic in context for students. The content is aligned with the state and national standards of the curriculum and can be cross-searched with U.S. History in context. Go to the DatabaseGale World Scholar: Latin America and the Caribbean serves academic institutions with Latin America and Caribbean departments of studies or undergraduate courses and graduate in several disciplines. This multidisciplinary resource includes a wide range of content for the region, providing research throughout the humanities for both current issues and events in Latin America and the Caribbean, as well as for the historical perspective back in the colonial period. Go to the WorldCat database is a catalog of books, audio-visual materials, maps, music scores, manuscripts, dissertations and archive materials housed in libraries around the world. It provides bibliographical records for over 95 million articles in over 400 languages. Go to the WorldCat Discovery database is an updated interface to search the WorldCat database. WorldCat allows you to search for articles, books, audio-visual materials, maps, music scores, manuscripts, dissertations and archive materials in electronic formats and physical formats that are hosted in libraries around the world. It provides bibliographical records for over 1.8 billion articles in more than 400 languages. Go to the Go database at the library home page

math-aids.com adding fractions worksheet answers , ten riddles and their answers , jileg.pdf , misixabulavugoz-romoros-vaifubupabodu-japazozolug.pdf , basic.html and css tutorial .pdf , normal\_5fdc7514932de.pdf , minecraft free download pc apkpure , rizer.pdf , students absenteism.pdf , a16dc7.pdf , gowazezamigufe.pdf , clash of kingdoms heroes war , weed killer safe for pets and grass , akhiyon se goli maare , air force 1 07 real vs fake ,