(I also wanted to collect Kojiharu and Okada Nana but they seem expensive and have a lot of pictures, so nope lol) I'm debating whether I should just focus on CD images or throw in some theatrical pictures (not including the monthly ones), is there a difference in the quality of the images? lunakitten Leader Please give me upcoming OMG limited cards. Are you nice? Post: 976 Name: Cathryn ♡: 4NIA ♡: Oh My Girl ♡: ♡: Girl groups ♡: Boy groups lunakitten Thank you! It's really overwhelming how much pictures there are even though some are really really cheap. I'm thinking of collecting Takeuchi Miyu because she's my Japanese bias in PD48 (I also wanted to collect Kojiharu and Okada Nana but they seem expensive and have a lot of pictures, so nope lol) I'm debating whether I should just focus on CD images or throw in some theatrical pictures (not including the monthly ones), is there a difference in the quality of the images? I honestly don't know if there's a difference, but I don't think there is. I think older images are not the best quality but some of them are 10 years old. Miyu should be easy enough to get because she's not that popular again, just find them. Even she doesn't have that many CD photos. Not everyone gets a CD photo in every release and Miyu only has 5 from what I can find. I also don't think she has anyone in the albums but I'm not sure how photos work for them but I haven't found her photos for any of the albums. So she has these 5Manatsu no Sounds good from that singleTsugi no Season from UZAEien Press from that singleBetter from High TensionAtarashii Chime from Teacher Teacher And do a quick fromjapan search I found 4 / 5. So Miyu is much easier then Kojiharu or Nana who can have 3 pictures of just a single. Tonatrhythm Leader My ultimate bias uploaded this picture on my birthday last 2012. Thank Thank for the information btw, I still do not know if I should collect them but it's nice to know that for Miyu, it's only at least 5 and not a guaranteed 20+ or something. Something.
