Vera bradley patterns 2019

Vera Bradley's case of the year is in 1 week and I can't wait! Vera Bradley Annual Outlet sales are held 24/7 in Fort Wayne, Indiana. It is an arena full of handbags and accessories at a discounted price. For me it's just as good as Christmas! Basically, after entering, grab a multiple-dissect grid (new this year!) and map, then it's time to shop! My plan is to catch everything I think I might want and stuff it in my bag. Then, when I browse through everything, I find a place and sort what's in my bag. Discarded items are placed in nearby boxes and carts to be replenished by Vera employees. After making decisions and any final sweeps around the arena, it's time to pay! There are always plenty of registers, and lines usually move quite quickly. To prepare for the sale, I try to make a list of styles that I want to look at the most. These are items that I'll head to first before taking some time to mosey for the rest of the sale. I'll share my wish list for sale soon, so come back to check it out! Almost every current and withdrawn style of bags and accessories will be on sale. It is not known exactly which designs will be available. Based on what I've seen in previous sales years, I can usually make pretty good predictions of what I'll see. I try to determine which patterns I would most like before selling. This is especially useful if you are participating in a sales with a group. Your friends can help by grabbing things in the pattern you want if you want to share your shopping and then meet back to sort. (Of course, you'll help your friends by grabbing what they want.) I've found that the designs are mostly the ones that have been withdrawn since the previous year's sale, as well as some that will be retired after sale. These are often the colors listed as sales on the Vera Bradley website Over the past few years, I've also seen exclusive outlet designs and exclusive QVC designs for sale. So, what colors can I expect to see on sale? I usually say it's a good bet, we'll see a lot of patterns that have been withdrawn since the last sale, but on the 2013 sale, there were a lot of new designs available, so that's really someone's guess. However, I wouldn't set my hopes for getting a new pattern and instead be pleasantly surprised if they are available this year. I believe most of the available patterns will be retired patterns. Here are the designs that we will definitely see on sale this year. Starting with the 4 designs we saw last year selling, but since we didn't officially retire until after last year's sale, I'm sure we'll see them again at this year's sale. It is nothing to see the designs for sale for several years. Hearts Pink Paisley Strips Berry Burst Winter Berry We'll Also See... Lilac Medallion Lilac Medallion was recently withdrawn and I don't remember seeing it year of sales, so I'm sure we'll see it this year. Coral Floral Coral Meadow Midnight Floral (Midtown style) Bright Serape Stripe Desert Floral Go Fish Teal Go Fish Hacienda Diamonds Superbloom Sketch Superbloom Vines Floral Wildflower Paisley Splash Dot Indio Patchwork Bouquet Dream Diamonds Dream Tapes Owls Holiday Owls Airy Floral Petite Vines Petite Paisley Romantic Paisley Vera Bradley has not officially withdrawn these designs from last summer, autumn, or winter, but I think that's a good bet we'll see most, if not all of these patterns on this year's sales. It is quite standard for sales to be mainly patterns that appeared a year earlier. Bordeaux Blooms Bramble Vines Bramble Butterfly Flutter Charcoal Medallion Cut Vines Daisy Dot Paisley Daisy Paisley Lei Flowers (Midtown Styles) Scattered Superbloom Stitched Flowers Stitched Garden Stitched Heart Vines Water Bouquet Geo Source for all pattern pictures As in previous years, there will also be older patterns available in select styles, but it's hard to predict just what exactly will be available. Last year I still saw patterns that were withdrawn before the 2017 sale. It is best to look at the Sales section of Vera Bradley's website to get an idea. Retired styles are usually available in all patterns that have been made. Theoretically, you can find the bag in the pattern Spring 2019, but I discovered that everything new quickly disappears. Your best scoring bet will happen in the first few sessions on Wednesday. What about prices? The exact prices will not be known until the sale opens, but looking at the prices from previous years can give you an idea of what to expect. Please note that starting on the second day of sale, prices may start to fall. Just a few the other day and then more as sales continue. Just remember that the later you go on sale, the less choice you can have to choose from. I value choice over price, so the second day works fine for me. To help give you an idea of prices, I made a price comparison chart that I could find from sales over the past few years. I'll be updating on how to find out the prices from this year's sale. Please note that the prices on the chart are the starting price; I did not include any reductions that occurred as we sold. This will be my 12th Vera Bradley Outlet Sale and I've picked up some tips along the way. Parking is $6 and it's just cash, so be sure to have some cash set aside for it. Use a crossbody bag or a smaller handbag. It gets crowded in the arena as you can see in the pictures and believe me, you'll want your hands free to shop! Wear comfortable clothes and shoes. You will be on your feet all the time. Don't wear flip-flops or risk your leg sticking around. Bring a snack just in case. In 2016, due to problems with we waited for check-out for more than 2 hours. I was dying for because we planned to make dinner right after our session. Luckily, Trish is an amazing mom who is, she had fruit snacks in her bag. This year I will be prepared! A few years ago, several readers suggested using a tote or larger bag to store purchases. I was buying a tote for my mother-in-law, so I stuffed my other purchases in it and it was amazing. It was much easier to carry than the plastic bag you get. This year, Vera Bradley uses reusable mesh totes instead of plastic bags. Depending on the size of these bags, you may not need to use a tote to keep shopping after all. If you don't use a tote and you're not going to buy the tote you're using, I suggest making sure you're using one that's well stocked so as not to take someone's chance of getting that bag. I recommend Grand Tote 2.0. It's big and very much! At the tills there are fields where you can place items that you do not want to buy. Do not ignore last chance tables. They will be crowded when the sessions open because a lot of people head there first. Give him some time and they will clear. Believe me, these tables are well stocked! Two years ago, Trish found an amazing backpack for a good deal on one of the last chance tables while we were doing our last floor sweep before check-out. I also found some good deals at these tables. Make sure you register for sale and bring your ID with you. Typically, there are computers configured to register if you haven't already done so, but you have to wait in the queue. Save time and do it before you arrive. You won't be able to buy anything without doodms, so make sure you have it! At the checkout, you will provide them with the phone number to which you have registered or the printed e-mail you will receive after registration. If you have a ticket, you already have a coupon this year. Just show your ticket at the checkout. Early bird tickets get $25 off the $100 purchase. Non-early bird tickets have $10 off $50. Sort before you get to the checkout. Last year I had to wait in line for a long time to check because the woman in front of us had to examine every thing in the bag and decide whether she wanted to or not. Please don't bring young children! There is no way I would bring a small child for sale. It's crowded and you won't be happy if you have to worry about keeping your baby with you all the time. I go with my best friend, Tricia, and she leaves her adorable baby at home. He is a great buyer, but he knows that the outlet sale is not a place for a child who is young. I am glad that I have responsible friends who value the safety of their children. This year, Vera Bradley released an early floor plan map! Be sure to check it out and make a plan where you'll head Sales can be overwhelming, so with an idea of where you're going, you can you are focused. Don't forget to loosen up your Argyle Love Facebook page and follow me on Twitter and Instagram. I will try to post some Instagram Stones of this experience. I don't use it much, but I'll try to make some stories while selling. (It's going to be crazy out there, so there's no promise!) Also, follow my friend Trish on her Twitter and Instagram. We're shopping together and I'm sure she'll have things to share too! And finally, be sure to have fun! Score some great deals and enjoy in the company of other Vera Bradley lovers.
