D.o. exo religion

If you don't want to know, don't read. Okay, so I know some of you really don't want to know their religion, I've been through it. It shuts me off for a while, but now that I'm really in the study of religion, I think it's easier for me to accept (?). All this search began when I was making my favorite Gifs blog/Soho pictures and I saw a question about their religion. I then remember that my friend and I had been wondering about their religions and I was just really curious about what they are. I don't mean to get into their personal lives, I'm just a person who's very interested in belief and psychology systems. Disclaimer: Most of these answers are authored by fans/in comments from a post, opposed by the fan writer. As there were some who had numerous opinions of different religions, I tried with one that was most commented on.
