5 year anniversary theme

I can't believe it's 5 years when I'm starting blogging! It was hard to capture full-time work, a child, and a blog during the first two years. However, the last 3 years really flew since I left my job. Wow, what can I say? English was one of my weak subjects in school. I've always done better in math and science classes. It's possible anything that goes to show you. I think the biggest lesson I've learned from this experience is that you can get better at anything. I'm a much better writer now than I was 5 years ago and I still have a lot of room to grow. I can't thank you enough for your help. I really appreciate every reader and your encouragement helps me keep blogging. 5 years ago... Wow, a lot has changed. Then, I was an engineer at The Intell and I was going through a difficult period in my life. My job was no longer right and it was due to a lot of unhappiness. I knew I had to get out there, but I was not sure how. First, I thought I could change the position of companies or jobs and i'd like to be engineered. But after that, I started reading many personal financial blogs and set an alternative idea in my mind. Is it possible to quit engineering? That's when I thought I'd try blogging and see where it goes. I think it would be interesting to share your journey with everyone. Hey, if it does not work, I can always find another corporate job. Fortunately, this stay in the home father/blogger lifestyle is working very well. Today, I have too much time to spend with THE RB40JR. And I love my life . I worked full time so I would not be able to get to know my son too. This blog was a huge upprek and it changed my life. Next 5 years... Can I keep blogging for 5 more years? I don't know, but I hope so. Someday, it feels like I've already written about every personal financial topic. Let's face it, the struggle to retire early is a much more forced story than living in home dad. Fortunately, our challenges are not enough yet. Now Mrs. R.B.40 is trying to retire by 2020. He saw how much better my life is and he wants to follow his own agenda. He used to be a workawlaq so I thought he was working, but I was wrong and so he was. We're not ready enough to leave her work yet, but I think we can do it by 2020. Follow us and see if they can retire initially. The blog Gurutaloggang was initially difficult. We had only a few readers and slow edify growth. Whoever in their right mind will retire initially? Fortunately, it seems that the early retirement movement is speeding up Getting it. More and more workers are looking for an alternative to retiring at 65. Everyone wants to follow the path of the path. I'm sure everyone dreams about retirement sooner or later and Google led a lot of people for us. Let's see some data from Google Analytics. Users (readers): (readers): 4, 619, 491That's Mandbogagang! I have not paid attention to The Pagaveus in a long time. We are on nearly 5,000,000 views. And we were more readers than some small (small) countries! More and more people visited guinea bissau from 40 retired by population. Let's say if we can leave Lattoya next year. Actually, growth has been flat during the last year. I have not tried much to show the blog growing and it. I'll probably have to wait until THE RB40JR. Kindergarten starts to make any serious effort in more development. Dad is the top priority right now. Apple Watch Cheap! Thanks for all of you, I'm giving an Apple Watch game! Actually, I received it as a reward from the personal capital. He released his retirement calculator in June and signed up by many people retiring by 40. I thought I'd give this prize back to the community. Also, I don't have a phone to pair with apple watch. ☺ you need to leave a comment and enter through the following helper. Maybe you might want to read by 40 in retiring to suggest a topic.
