Illinois Quizizz Constitution 68. Every time

To obtain the Illinois High School Qualification Certificate, you must take and pass the U.S. State Constitution and Illinois and The Flag Test (Constitution Test) as required by the Illinois Compiled Statutes - School Code (105 ILCS 5/27-3) other than completing a high school equality exam (GED®, HiSET®™ or TASC. There are no fees for taking the Constitutional Test and it can be taken at any time. If you have passed the high school-level Constitutional Test, you don't have to take it anymore. You can only provide proof of passing to your Regional Education Office when requesting your High school Qualification Certificate. Temporary Exceptions for Constitutional Test Requirements. The Regional Office of Education and local adult education programs offering the U.S. State Constitution and Illinois and Flag Testing (Constitutional Testing) are also eligible to resume testing, following ICCB guidelines for safe reopening ready here. A map of known test centres receiving appointments for the Constitutional Test is located here. Candidates who need to complete the Constitutional Test can also contact their local Regional Education Office for information on tests in their region. Cook County residents can find information about taking constitutional tests in the Cook County region on the Cook County website. During the period in which testing for the Constitutional Test may be limited, the ICCB has extended a temporary waiver of the Constitutional Test requirements. Test-takers who have already completed and passed the GED®, HiSET®, or TASC examinations™, but are unable to complete the constitutional Test requirements, may request a copy of the temporary exemption from their Regional Education Office through January 31, 2021. After receiving a temporary exemption, secondary school equality candidates went through April 30, 2021 to complete the Constitutional Test requirements and receive their Illinois High School Qualification Certificate. Candidates are strongly encouraged to complete the Constitutional Test requirements as soon as possible to obtain their Illinois High School Qualification Certificate. Test-Takers should contact the Regional Education Office where their exams are taken for a copy of the temporary exception. To find the appropriate office, click on the following link: .
