It was released on November 16, 1999 by Interscope Records following his 1992 debut album, The Chronic. The record was mainly produced by Dr. Dre and Mel-Man, as well as Lord Finesse, and features several guest posts from fellow American rappers such as . Hittman, Snoop Dogg, Kurupt, Xzibit, Eminem and Nate Dogg. The same article mentions Chronic 2001, Dr. Dre and Dr. Dre 2001 as other names that were considered. On the album's content, Dr. Dre told The New York Times: Everything you hear is planned. It's a movie, with different kinds of situations. This album will be called Chronic 2000 until Priority Records (which became the new distributor of Death Row) decided in coherence with Suge to call their Deathrow Compilation album Chronic 2000. Deathrow owned a trademark for Chronic, as did Interscope Records, which previously distributed Death Row Records. Shortly after Death Row's Chronic 2000 release, Dr. Dre changed the title of this album to Chronic 2001 and a big budget promotional campaign Suge was informed of dr. Dre's album title because a trademark notice was required by Aftermath Records. 1 Lolo (Intro)Featuring – Tray-Dee*, Xzibit 0:40 2 The WatcherBacking Vocals – Eminem, Knoc-Turn'al 3:28 3 Fuck YouFeaturing – Devin The Dude 3:25 4 Still D.R.E. 4:28 5 Big Ego's 4:01 6 XxplosiveBass – Colin WolfeFeaturing – 6Two, Nate Dogg 3:35 7 What's The DifferenceChorus – Phish Featuring – Eminem, Xzibit 4:04 8 Bar OneFeaturing – Eddie Griffin, Ms. Roq, Traci Nelson 0:51 9 Light SpeedBacking Vocals – Knoc-Turn'al, Ms. Roq 2:41 10 Forgot About DreFeaturing – Eminem 3:42 11 The Next EpisodeBacking Vocals – KuruptBass – Preston CrumpFeaturing – Nate Dogg 2:42 12 Let's Get HighBacking Vocals – Anthony , Traci NelsonFeaturing – Ms. RoqVocals [Additional] – Mel-Man, Scruncho 2:27 13 Bitch NiggazBass – Mel-ManFeaturing – 6TwoScratches – DJ Pen One 4:14 14 The Car BombFeaturing – Charis Henry, Mel-Man 1:01 15 Murder InkBacking Vocals – Traci NelsonFeaturing – Ms. Roq 2:28 16 Ed-UcationFeaturing – Eddie Griffin 1:32 17 Some L.A.
