While there are quite a few similarities to a very popular game on a computer, it's a legendary alliance but what's better is Valor's Arena is a mobile game that increases the comfort and reach of players and will be much greater. Valor's Arena Essentially game has the same game as League of Legends, you will control your generals along with your teammates and fight with the ultimate goal: destroy your opponent's main house. You win only when destroying the enemy's main house so avoid too focused on fighting that you have to fight, kill many lives but still lose as usual. The game focuses on individual skills as well as the coordination of teammates, not seriously plowing the hoe like some other games. Rich game mode until now, Valor's Arena has quite a lot of game modes that allow gamers to experience the game perfectly. The most prominent mode of play is the division mode, in which players and 4 team members participate in combat battles in 5vs5. Every win, you will get gold 1 star to help you accumulate to be able to increase your ranking, if you lose, you will still get gold but with fewer numbers and besides you will be deducted 1 star. The ranking system of the game consists of ranks from low to high: bronze, silver, gold, platinum, diamonds and masters, challengers. At any given ranking, when you play against the same people in the same class as you, so to be able to achieve a high level, skills are the most important thing and besides the combination of teammates is a necessary factor to win. After each season, your rewards match the achieve rating. To join the rating mode You need at least 5 generals, when you're not general enough or you don't want to fight, you can participate in the regular tournament. In a normal game you can play against the same PVP 5v5 mode as the division but in this mode you will not get awarded or lost stars. Besides, there are other modes such as 3v3, solo matches and show their own level. In addition, Valor's arena has also updated new game modes such as hooking, chaotic fighting, fighting and especially at the last World Cup, Hanofiq has launched a very interesting football mode for players who can shoot with the World Cup. For those of you who haven't played, you can go to the practice game or fight with the machine to be able to recognize and improve your skills. Many generals give you options in valor's arena, and chess is a very important factor to help gamers have interesting adjustments with each role in different roles of generals. Therefore, in order to make the game not boring, Hanofik regularly launches new generals with unique skills and storylines. Because each general has different skills, I recommend that in each 5v5 game, one team is filled with positions such as middle-distance wizard, top-way fighter and assistant who travels with the other. Besides, it's necessary for an assassin to go to the woods to inflate the monstrous resources and have support while teammate. To own the generals, you need to accumulate gold to buy, in addition to those who have the patience and want to own many generals can buy with real money. Ruby is also an important thing in the game, it allows to buy some items such as yellow X2 cards, EXP X2 cards, treasure spinning cards (which can spin off rare items) or unlock more pearl panels. Equipment is diverse to increase the general's power, the equipment is a very important factor. The equipment in the game is very diverse with various features such as craft, craft, running speed, spells,... To be able to match the qualities, some of the general's tricks. One thing I find good compared to the legendary league is that in valor's arena the easy purchase of equipment, you just have to Kill soldiers, monsters,... Take gold and can upgrade equipment immediately instead of turning home to the chief. In addition, creating a suitable pearl board for any general also increases power significantly. In any game you can choose to bring an extra that suits your generals such as speed, breakthrough, punishment, ... Quality graphics, I'm quite impressed with this part, compared to mobile games, the graphics of Valor's arena are a bit excellent. It can be said that this game is a mobile MOBA game with the most advanced graphics. The generals in the game are carefully designed, from costumes, weapons to running, surfing and skills are also described in a very realistic and clear way. The sound makes the game more dramatic with intense combat. Download Valor APK's Arena game for Android! played quite a lot of games, when played at Valor's Arena I was really impressed about it. What's more interesting than robbing Mega Kill's friends or considering 5 enemy team members alone. The game has an addictive game with beautiful graphics that definitely don't disappoint you, don't forget to invite more friends to play to conquer the scene of justice together! All right!
