This destination for outdoor enthusiasts offers not only equipment but experienced advice to guide patrons as they enjoy all sorts of self-propelled outdoor activities. In business continuously since 1974, Pack & Paddle was founded by John's parents, Joan and Doc Williams, when John's mother bought an excess canoe in an effort to create a wonderful Scout adventure. Pack & Paddle focuses on customer service and strives to retain talented and experienced staff who understand the needs of rural enthusiasts. Offering paddle trips and hiking trips to destinations that showcase the treasures Louisiana has to offer, the focus of Pack & Paddle is always on the needs of every customer. John and Becky Williams have made a conscious decision not to offer internet retail sales so that they can meet your needs as you walk in the door. In today's world of easy access to goods that can be delivered quickly with free shipping but don't really work or fit your needs once you really open the box, this decision to offer excellent customer service will probably be touted in the business books of the future, such as the way that local stores maintained a profitable existence in the wave of dominance of internet sales. John and his wife, Becky, bought Pack & Paddle in 1999. As you will hear, John and Becky Williams are living the dream that everyone would like to live: to get up every day to experience the pursuit of the mission of your life.... Listening to them will make you want to rent a canoe, learn how to paddle or hike, or continue any outdoor activity that stimulates your innate movement to live life to the fullest! You'll want to hear how easy it is to catch redfish from your kayak, the best places to take pictures of the first generation Cypress trees ((Lake Fausse)), or the best place to bring your dogs as you travel in a clean water, sand bottom bayou (Kisatchie Bayou Recreation Complex). Pack & Paddle is the place in Lafayette Parish to get information about all outdoor adventure activities and go get fitted properly for all types of outdoor searches. Pack and Paddle are also a well-recognized go-to resource for guidance on exploring local forests, swamps, marshes, streams that define Louisiana as a special place for outdoor enthusiasts to jump and experience! In this interview, you will enjoy John and Becky's contribution on why Southern Louisiana is a destination for world travelers. You will also be recommended the opportunities that you will be able to experience when you travel to our region as an introduction to our beautiful topography. With the continuing limitations and social distancing requirements of COVID-19, it's a good time to hit the countryside and enjoy nature. Pack and Paddle offers many kayaking adventures locally, where you can rent equipment and take guided tours. See their Facebook page at for current information. Owners John and Becky Williams spoke with Jan Swift of the Discover Lafayette podcast. The business was founded by John's parents, Joan and Doc Williams, and focuses on customer service, having an experienced staff who understand the needs of outdoor enthusiasts. It offers paddle trips and hiking trips to destinations around Louisiana, and owners made the decision not to offer sales on the internet, but instead to meet customers' needs in person. The Williams bought the business in 1999, and they can tell you how easy it is to catch redfish from your kayak, the best places to take pictures of the first generation cypress and the best place to bring your dogs to a clean water, sand bottom bayou.
