Comerica park tiger den lounge menu

It's that time of year again: time for expensive bags of peanuts, miles of high daiquiri cups, hot dogs, and Detroit Tigers baseball. This season at Comerica Park, fans can expect old believers along with a brand new series of stadium discounts from coney dog egg rolls Beyond Burgers to French onion fries in deep fried zeppole donuts. Find all the essential details of this year's ballpark foods below and don't forget to visit Curbed for tips on parking lots and stadium attractions. New menu options Every year Comerica Park fans are clogged with a brand new stadium food layout - some better than others. Falling into the category of novelty items in 2019 are coney dog stuffed egg rolls, plates of bacon banh mi and boozy ice cream rods. Refreshingly, there are also a number of new vegetarian options being peddled at concession stands, including Beyond Burger at Big Cat Court and salads at the Jar Stadium Grab and Go kiosk. There's even Guerns's ice cream. Here's the full list of newcomers this year. Coney Dog Egg Rolls: Last year, Tigers fans saw the rise of dessert egg roll at Comerica Park. This year, the chef became savoury with egg rolls stuffed with hot dogs, chili, mustard and onions. It's an ode to detroit classics, not a bad choice for ballpark food, either. [Where to find: Big Cat Court near Gate A, Midtown]* Beyond Burger: Faux meat scones are all rage now and it's a hockey puck-like option now served with traditional salads, tomatoes, onions and pickles with French fries on the side of Comerica Park. There is also a bowl version for those who want to skip the bun. It is served as a salad with vegetables and marinated balsamic sauce. [Where to find: Big Cat Court near Gate A, Corktown]* French Onion Burger: This fancy hamburger option is served with Swiss cheese, caramelized onions and a zip sauce on the side with fries. [Where to find: Big Cat Court near Gate A, Corktown] Al Pastor dog: Continuing the tradition of unconventional hot dog toppings at Comerica, this year fans can find hot dogs covered in pork, pineapple relish, sriracha aioli, and cotija cheese. Why exactly he called al pastor dog, but lacks actual tasteful, braids baked al pastor is not clear. [Where to find: Big Cat Court near Gate A, Downtown] Banh Mi: For those who never eat banh mi, please don't get that awesome Viet-French sandwich confused with this version of Frankenstein from Comerica Park. The people of Delaware's Northern Sportservice took a hot dog bun and filled it with a thick side plate, crushed lettuce and cabbage called Asian forceps, and sriracha aioli drif. It's like a riddle. [Where to find: Big Cat Court near Gate A, Downtown] Gyro: Last year there was a gyro nachos. These Comerica visitors can find the pita wrapped in a food court with gyro meat, diced tomatoes, tzatziki, and red onions to offer a big cat court. [Where to find: Big Cat Court near Gate A, Greektown]* Falafel: Vegetarians can find falafel sandwiches in a food court served pita with tomatoes, tzatziki, and red onions. There is also an enhanced falafel option without pitas and additional black olives and cucumbers. [Where to find: Big Cat Court near Gate A, Greektown]* Zeppole: Find deep fried Italian doughnut holes in a food court with chocolate dipped sauce. [Where to find: Big Cat Court near Gate A, Midway]* Guernsey Ice Cream: Cool with local favorite Guernsey ice cream in two flavors: Blue Moon and Detroit Grand Slam. [Where to find: Big Cat Court near Gate A]* Chicken Wings: It's hard to go stray with chicken wings. These are smoked and marinated in spicy beer sauce with celery and barbecue or ranch sauce on the side. [Where to find: Michigan Craft Beer next to Section 101]* French Onion Fries: Continuing this year's bizarre French onion theme, baseball fans can look for fries topped with Swiss cheese, caramelized onions, and zip sauce. [Where to find: Michigan Craft Beer next to Section 101] craft beer flights: try three different seven-ounce poured beer ballpark. [Where to find: Michigan Craft Beer near Section 101] Boozy Ice Cream Bars: Atwater Brewery's Vanilla Java English-style porter and Decadent Dark Chocolate Ale are now served in the form of an ice cream bar. [Where to find: Michigan Craft Beer near Section 101]* Chimichanga: Usually deep fried items are a safe bet at the ballpark. This version of chimichanga features barbaoca chicken with Monterey Jack cheese, white cheddar queso, pico de gallo, sour cream, and salad. It is supplied with Spanish rice and black beans. [Where to find: Tiger Den Lounge near section 131] Italian sandwich: snack on mortadella, capicola ham, salami, lettuce, tomato, red onion, banana pepper and Italian sauce on a sesame sub roll. [Where to find: Miller Lite Pitcher's Pub next to section 104]* Farm field table Moroccan spiced beef sandwich: Ferndale butcher shop Farm outdoor tables Ras el Hanout rubbed beef served with toun, pickles, onions, and olives on a roll. [Where to find: Corner tap room next to Section 115]* Loaded Nacho Fries: These fries are topped with cheddar queso, pico de gallo, jalapeños, and cotija cheese. [Where to find: Corner Tap Room next to Section 115]* Garden Salad and Grain Bowl Jars: Eating salad from a paper boat at a ballpark is sort of awkward, but it somehow makes a lot of sense to serve it in a jar. Stadium visitors can now buy salads with vegetables, cheese and ranch sauce and cereal bowls with quinoa, salads, brown rice, farro, cheese, and vegetables for tigers games. Just shake it in sauce and [Where to find: Grab and Go next to the next 140]* Fruit cups: Of course, pick up some sliced melons, pineapple, berries and grapes in the game. [Where to find: Grab and Go near section 140]* Packaged snacks: Customers who need vegan, vegetarian or gluten-free alternatives can buy Sabra hummus, guacamole snack cups and Oh Snap Pickling Co. snacks at the stadium. [Where to find: Grab and Go near section 140] * Eater picks Eater does his best to confirm the locations of specific items, but places and things can change. Things return Every year brings a new wave of stadium food options and only a handful usually cut (RIP Bratwurst Pop). At least one item has struck out the competition since 2017 and returns for a third season: Coney Dog Pizza: The Ilitch family also happens to own Comerica Park, which means little caesars pizza is never far from reach. The chain's pizza-coney mashup features a Detroit-style square pizza crust with chili sauce, cheese, mustard, onions, and sliced hot dogs. The combination managed to win fans in 2017 and returns this year. [Where to find: Little Caesars locations in Big Cat Court and Chapters 115, 137, 217, 323, 334] Comerica Park is a gluten-free and vegan gluten-free food option. Among them are French fries, sausages and hot dogs (sans bun), popcorn, hummus and vegetables and more. For vegans, options include Beyond Burgers, fruit cups and salads in a jar (minus ranch sauce). Many items from both of these categories are offered in Grab and Go near section 140. Happy Hour New 2019 Comerica Park offers drinks special offers in the first hour after the gates are opened in every home game at Pepsi Porch, including Copper Craft Bar and Miller Lite Pitcher's Pub. Patrons can expect 24 ounces of Pepsi and Aquafina products for $3, 16-ounce Miller Lites and Coors Lites for $5 (decent craft beer price at the ballpark), $5 cocktails, $5 jumbo hot dog bags, 1/4-pound burger bags for $5, and $5 nachos. Stadium Party Areas Comerica Park has two reserved party zones that were new in 2018. The rooftop deck has space for groups from 100 to 150 overlooking the park overlooking the Pitcher's Pub on the right field. This place offers a picnic menu with options such as hot dogs, burgers, coleslaw, pasta salad, baked beans, potato chips, and Pepsi products. The smaller space, called the Chevrolet Pavilion, is beyond chapter 148 under the scoreboard. It has a capacity of 65 people and offers a buffet with hot dogs, boneless chicken wings, Little Caesars pizza, vegetable spring rolls and potato chips, Pepsi products and beer. Big Cat Court: This food court features most of the stadium's food in a central location with various stands marked downtown, Mexicantown, Corktown, Greektown, Michigan State Fair, and Expect options from ears and guerningi ice cream to frozen daiquiris, gyroscopes and soft pretzels. [Near gate A witherell] Tiger Den Lounge: Specialty menu items. Limited access. [Section 131] Beer Hall: It's not exactly a craft beer wonderland, but they're way better than the standard fare on offer throughout most of the park, so it's worth checking out the Sierra Nevada, Oberon, Stroh's, Leinenkugel, Atwater and so on. [Section 131] Brushfire Grill: This is a better option for vegetarians because they have black bean burgers, veggie dogs and even a plate of hummus, but they also have plenty of meat eaters like pork peel, turkey legs, pulled pork, beef brisket and a new chicken bacon cheddar sandwich. They even serve margaritas. [Big Cat Court and Section 131] Blue Moon Brewhouse: The Upper Deck Lounge features air conditioning and a heated seating area with an open bar for the public. It offers bar snacks, draughts and bottled beer and alcoholic beverages. [Chapters 329-330] Tiger Club Bar/Dining Room: They have fancier drinks and buffets, but access is restricted, so this is not a viable option for most fans. Limited access. [Enter the corner of Witherell and Elizabeth Street] Michigan Craft Beer: Find a variety of the usual ballpark suspects here from burger chili cheese fries and chicken fingers next to draughts of beer, garden, and shakes. [Section 104] Miller Lite Pitcher's Pub: This bar next to Gate B offers options such as bacon cheeseburgers, chicken pitas, salads, hummus plates, and garlic fries. There is also a full bar with beer and alcoholic beverages. [Section 104] beer kiosks: find draughts of beer and canned beer at these stops scattered around the ballpark, as well as peanuts, pretzels, and soft drinks. [Sections 101, 111, 117, 128, 136, 138, 145, 322, 333, 344] Big League Grill: Visit these classic stands - hot dogs, kielbasa, nachos, ice cream, lemonade cups, and all important peanuts and cracked jacks. They're everywhere in the park. [Sections 108, 130, 143, 149, 151, 213, 325, 327, 331, 339, 343] Corner Taproom: The Corner Taproom debuted in 2015, replacing Leo Coney Island. One of the advantages of the bar is that it shares an alcoholic beverage license with the ballpark so that patrons can pick up a drink in the ballpark with them rather than finish the spot. The restaurant has a bar menu with options such as muffaletta and buffalo cauliflower, as well as more than 50 touched and bottled beers. [Section 115] Dippin Points: Get those weird frozen ice cream pellets here. [Sections 129, 148, 151, 213, 334] Daiquiris: A place of frozen, sweet, boozy goodness, also known as Tiger Fuel. [Sections 119, 131, 141, 330] hot fries: chicken tenders, corn dogs, chili fries and French cooking cups serve at this place. [143, 150, Sections] Little Caesars: Cheese, Meat, Pepperoni, and Vegetables, it's all pizza all Time. [Sections 115, 137, 217, 323, 334 and Big Cat Court] Nacho Kiosk: Find two style nachos here along with hot dogs and Italian sausages. [Section 116] Popcorn Kiosk: As the name suggests there is a lot of hot popcorn at this stop, as well as cotton candy. [Section 138] Grab-n-Go: Find 125 packaged items here including sandwiches, beer, soda, juices, healthy fruits, yogurt, salads, and germack snacks. There are also healthier options such as caprese salads and fruit cups.
