Nintendo's status continues with this product in the global gaming market. In 1981, she published a game called Mario Wide, the most profitable game. Until now it is still one of the most popular brands of numerous games with lots of games to play it. It was the next, after 1996 Pokemon and his older brother, Mario, came out to earn more in the second game of the world. After almost 23 years of playing such as Pokemon, comics, anime, their journey around the world won every year, different products such as toys ... So, in the summer of 2018, Nintendo launched its production level for different graphics. Pokemon quest graphics play our latest games with a classic game, but their characters are not the same cubes. Probably a lot of players to win this interesting game and game. The mission is simple. They have three Pokemon can fight on a map available to a larger controller. End of the game when you can destroy all the enemies on the map. Designer mechanics are added to the game, which are a very easy target to invent. This means that your Pokemon looks automatically map and attacks. At this time, the most powerful skills are ready and running to press the virtual button. These skills are targeted automatically, not just. One of the main Pokemon fun games in the game is to collect stocks. There you will find delicious dishes to suit your Pokemon and abilities, but also to create decorations in their true home. Is it fun to see camp and decorations satisfying? In addition to innovative gameplay, the player moves his whimsical graphics. It can be said that Minecraft rests the hearts of many players from different ages of these cubes. In the early days, there was more to learn about Nintendo's 20-year-old game on young players than just a game. Around the country trees, mountains, rocks, cube fun with design and streams in harmony with beautiful flowers. But at base camp, you have everything organized in furniture decorations. But such a simple graphics are made, it is a 360-degree rotation that guarantees a full view, but also a complete 3D guality. In addition, each movement is improved to increase. Thanks to their fighting skills with Roque, but still simple players each individual Pokemon abilities are different. Even so, their style has persisted in the efforts of Pokemon and the year class, many Nintendo developers shows. In addition, players are increasingly buying entertainment products that they need to spend more strictly The money. Each year the presentation should be more innovative and innovative. The game was released for the current Nintendo Switch and comes on both iOS and Android mobile devices. Stay tuned !!!
