Insula occidentalis crossbow

While the Dundrasil region had the most well-hidden crossbow targets, those located on the various small islands will be the most time-consuming to track down. There are still five in total, but each is on a separate island and you can't use Zoom to travel quickly to any of them. Luckily, they are pretty easy to find once you get there. Here you will find each of them: 1. (Insula Australis) Hanging from a tree in the southwestern part of the island. 2. (Insula Algarum) On the cliffs of the southern part of the main island. 3. (Insula Borealis) Under the bridge connecting the two islands. 4. (Insula Orientalis) On a plateau directly north of the pier used to enter the island. 5. (Insula Centralis) On a series of rocks between the small building that requires the Magic Key to enter. You still have work to do after finding all five crossbow targets. Now you have to sail to the Insula Occidentalis (the western island, and only one without a target to shoot) and head inside the small hut to claim your prize: four pep pips. Need to find other goals? Head to the next section, the Champs Sauvage. If not, head to the Lumineare Tome for a look at other Dragon Quest XI guides. - This article was updated on June 8, 2019 GAME DEALSGet Twitch Prime for free right now and get free in-game items, rewards and games RELATED TOPICS: To unlock this Dragon Quest XI trophy, you need to find all crossbow targets. This character will then give you the Lorelei Harp, which will allow you to go under the ocean. Where is the NPC you need to talk to to claim your island goals prize? Unlike other regions where it can be found in a campsite, it is located in Insula Occidentalis [6], northwest of the Strand (photo1). On this island, enter the inn to find it (photo2).
